Let us now praise famous men and our fathers that begat us. . . .

There be of them, that have left a name behind them, that their praises might be reported.

And some there be, which have no memorial; who are perished, as though they had never been; and are become as though they had never been born; and their children after them.

But these were merciful men, whose righteousness hath not been forgotten.

With their seed shall continually remain a good inheritance, and their children are within the covenant.

Their seed standeth fast, and their children for their sakes.

Their seed shall remain for ever, and their glory shall not be blotted out.

Their bodies are buried in peace; but their name liveth for evermore.

---- Ecclesiasticus xliv.

Wakefield, Massachusetts;
originally a part of "Old Redding".

Of the descendants of Edward[1] and Mary (Partridge) Kibbe, only the lineages of the male lines have been carried forward, those individuals bearing the Kibbe surname. Descendants through the female lines may be found in other genealogies under the surname of the daughter's husbands.

This genealogical data on the descendants of Edward Kibbe[1] is arranged in three sections; that concerned with descendants of his son, James, appearing first. This is followed by descendants of his second son, Elisha; and third, are given the descendants of Joshua, his youngest son.

It will be noted that the male line of James Kibbe[2] became extinct after the third generation, whereas that of Elisha Kibbe[2] flourished and forms the bulk of this data. Descendants of Elisha are arranged in four groups corresponding to the order of the births of his four sons: John, 1668; Edward, 1670; James, 1675; and Isaac, 1683.

Throughout this outline of descendants of Edward Kibbe the surname has been spelled, KIBBE, although it may be used, and appear elsewhere in various spellings, such as Kibby, Kibbey, Kibbee, and Kibbie.

Acknowledgement is made gratefully to all those livings descendants of Edward Kibbe who have contributed so generously of their time and researches in helping in this compilation of the family records. Without their aid and knowledge this family history could not have been written.

KIBBE

In the Old Burying Ground by the Congregational Church in Wakefield, Massachusetts, is an ancient stone bearing this inscription:

"Here lyes ye Body
of Edward Keebe
Aged 97 years
Died November
1 1694"

On the left of this grave is that of Hannah Kibbe, a daughter of Edward Kibbe[1], who died April 28, 1695, aged 32 years. On his right is buried Mary Hodgman, wife of Thomas, who died November 10, 1735, aged 95. It is believed she was the eldest daughter of Edward. Beyond this grave is that of Mary Hay, wife of Peter. Marriage records of Reading or Redding, Massachusetts, of which this portion of Wakefield was once a part, show this Mary Hay to have been a daughter of James Kibbe[2], and therefore a grand-daughter of Edward. Thus it appears that the Edward Kibbe buried at Wakefield is the Edward Kibbe who emigrated to the Boston area sometime around 1645, and set up a sawmill on the Muddy River in what is now Brookline, Massachusetts.

Source materials give the birth date of the emigrating ancestor as May 11, 1611, and his parents as Edward and Deborah (----) Kibbe of Exeter, England. There is an obvious discrepancy between the birth date and age at death as marked on the gravestone. Since we have no reason to doubt the parentage and birth record, this mistake may be attributed to the person marking the stone, or to the fact that the elderly tend to forget and add a few years to their age.

The wife of Edward Kibbe[1] is said to have been Mary Partradge or Partridge whom he married in England. By September, 1645, Boston records show that Mary was affiliated with the church there. Births, baptisms, and deaths of children born to this couple are given in Boston and Roxbury records. No death record has been found for Mary (Partridge) Kibbe. It is probable that Edward did not move to Reading to live near his children until after his wife had died.

That Edward Kibbe[1] was active in community affairs is indicated by some records of his service. In 1662 he was appointed Clerk of Market, a position created, probably, to give the Muddy River area representation in Boston markets. From 1666 to 1683 he served intermittently as Surveyor of Highways. Edward and his wife are listed in 1674 as contributors to the fund for the second meeting house in Roxbury, Massachusetts.

Descendants of James Kibbe[2]:

JAMES KIBBE2, 1642-ca.1681/2, the oldest son of Edward[1] and Mary (Partridge) Kibbe, was born in 1642, perhaps in Boston, Massachusetts. He was baptized there September 30, 1645, when three and a half years old. As an adult he is recorded as living in Dorchester, and later in Cambridge, Concord, and Charlestown, Massachusetts. The children of his first marriage are recorded in Concord, and Hannah was the given name of his wife. Her surname is not known. His second marriage is recorded in Charlestown, Massachusetts, October 23, 1679, to Sarah (Stephenson) Lowden. She was the daughter of Andrew Stephenson, alias Stimpson, and the widow of John Lowden.

Wyman in "Charlestown Genealogies and Estates" says there was a Thomas Kibbe who lived seven years in the household of John Lowden. It is not known whether this was an apprenticed child, or whether this boy was related in some way.

James Kibbe appears on the tax rolls in 1681 in Charlestown, but it is his estate which is taxed in 1688. His widow, Sarah, died in Charlestown, June 29, 1720. Her tombstone bears this inscription: "Here Lyes buried ye Body of Mrs. Sarah Kibbey Aged 80 years who dec'd June the 29 1720".

Children of James Kibbe[2] and Hannah (----) Kibbe:
1. Mary, 1668-1693/4, m. 1685, Peter Hay of Stoneham
2. Anna, 1670, m. 1. 1688, Joseph Fitch3
2. 1700, John Dix(Ralph)
3. James, 1674-1731/2, m. Elizabeth ----, d. 1715

Children of James Kibbe[2] and Sarah (Stephenson) Lowden Kibbe:
4. Elizabeth, 1681, m. 1697, Andrew Patterson2

JAMES KIBBE3, 1674-1731/2, the only recorded son of James Kibbe[2] is said to have been born in Concord, Massachusetts, February 8, 1674. It is probable that he lived in Reading and Sherborn, Massachusetts, as did his older sisters. No record has been found of his marriage, but it is, probably, his wife, Elizabeth, whose child was born in Sherborn in 1713, and died with the mother in 1715.

Since James Kibbe[3] was a brother of Anna (Kibbe) Fitch, he must be the insane uncle for whom her son, Zachariah, was appointed guardian. This James Kibbe is said to have owned land in Lunenberg, Massachusetts. His death is given in Reading records, February 17, 1731/2.

1. Bathsheba, 1713-1715

There were, apparently, no male descendants to continue this line.

Descendants of Elisha Kibbe[2]:

ELISHA KIBBE2, 1644-1735, the second son of Edward[1] and Mary (Partridge) Kibbe, was born about November 20, 1644, since at his baptism in Boston, Massachusetts, September 30, 1645, he was said to be ten months and ten days old. He became a joiner by trade, and when nineteen years of age removed to Salem, Massachusetts. Here he was married October 12, 1667, to Rachel Cooke[2], 1645-1740, daughter of Henry[1] and Judith (Birdsall) Cooke of Salem. In 1680/2 he removed his family to Enfield, Connecticut, where they were among the earliest settlers. Elisha was active in town affairs, holding various public offices including that of Selectman and Constable. He died in Enfield, April 3, 1735, and his widow died there, September 10, 1740.

Children of Elisha Kibbe[2] and Rachel (Cooke) Kibbe:
1. John, 1668-1755, m. 1. 1695, Mary Brown3
   2. 1698, Hannah Phelps3
2. Edward, 1670-1756, m. 1. 1692, Rebecca Hadlock
   2. 1693, Dorothy Phelps3
3. Elisha, 1673-1688
4. James, 1675, m. 1703, Hannah Kelsey3
5. Mary, m. 1699, John Parker
6. Thomas, d.y.
7. Isaac, 1683-1766, m. Dorothy Smith4
8. Rachel, 1688-1786, m. 1. 1708/9, Jonathan Bush3

Descendants of Elisha Kibbe[2] through his son, John Kibbe[3]:

JOHN KIBBE3, 1668-1755, the oldest son of Elisha[2] and Rachel (Cooke) Kibbe, was born in Salem, Massachusetts, February 1, 1668, and removed to Enfield, Connecticut, with his parents in 1680/82. Here he was married October 12, 1695, to Mary Brown[3], daughter of James Brown[2]. She died at the birth of her daughter in May, 1696. On August 18, 1698, John Kibbe married Hannah Phelps[3]. She was born November 26, 1677, the daughter of Jacob[2] and Dorothy (Ingersoll) Phelps. John died in Enfield in 1755. His will of 1751 was presented for probate, August 5, 1755, and names his widow, one son, and five daughters.

Children of John Kibbe[3] and Mary (Brown) Kibbe:
1. Mary, 1696, m. Isaac Osborn

Children of John Kibbe[3] and Hannah (Phelps) Kibbe:

- 4th Generation -

JOHN KIBBE4, the only surviving son of John[3] and Hannah (Phelps) Kibbe, was born in Enfield, Connecticut, June 12, 1699. Vital records of Windham, Connecticut, give this entry: "Elizabeth, wife of John Kibbe, died November 5, 1731". She was, probably, the first wife of this John Kibbe. On March 21, 1732, he married Hannah Lombard of Windham. Births of the children of the second marriage appear in Enfield records. No death records have been found for John and Hannah (Lombard) Kibbe.

Children of John Kibbe[4] and Elizabeth (----) Kibbe:
1. John, 1728-1730, recorded in Windham

Children of John Kibbe[4] and Hannah (Lombard) Kibbe:
2. John, 1733, d.y.
3. Paul, 1735-1757, unmarried
4. Silas, 1735
5. Hannah, 1736/7
6. John, 1739, m. 1. 1762, Mindwell (----) Rude
   2. 1768, Elizabeth Bruce
7. Elizabeth, 1740
8. Moses, 1742-1743
9. Sarah, 1745-1766
10. Martha, 1752-1835, unmarried

- 5th Generation -

PAUL KIBBE5, 1735-1757, one of the twin sons of John[4] and Hannah (Lombard) Kibbe, was born in Enfield, Connecticut, June 9, 1735. He served in the French and Indian Wars, and was present at the attack on Crown Point. His death, April 8, 1757, at twenty-two years, was, probably, the result of his military service. He was unmarried, and administration of his estate was granted his father.

SILAS KIBBE5, one of the twin sons of John[4] and Hannah (Lombard) Kibbe, was born in Enfield, Connecticut, June 9, 1735. He is listed as serving in the military action at Ticonderoga in 1758. No further record of him has been found, and it is probable that he never returned from the war.

JOHN KIBBE5, son of John[4] and Hannah (Lombard) Kibbe, was born November 1, 1739, in Enfield, Connecticut. He was married, first, March 24, 1762, to Mindwell (----) Rude, a widow of Stafford, Connecticut. No record has been found of her death, but John was married June 10, 1768, in the Putnam Congregational Church to Elizabeth Bruce. She was born September 25, 1735, the daughter of Benjamin and Abigail (Morse) Bruce of Putnam, Connecticut. There has been no record found of children born to John and Elizabeth, but it is believed they had a son, Moses, born in 1769, and that Elizabeth died when the child was very young, so that he was placed in a foster home in or near Simsbury, Connecticut. John, the father, went off to the war, and is recorded as serving from 1777 to 1779 in the Revolution, stationed at Warwick and Greenwich, Rhode Island. Descriptive rolls of 1779 give his age as 40; height, 6 feet; complexion, light.

That a Moses Kibbe was born in Connecticut in 1769 is confirmed by Ohio census records. Family tradition confirms his living in the Simsbury area as a child. Connecticut land records show that a Moses Kibbe of Simsbury purchased a farm in Barkhamsted in 1794. The Census of 1800 for Barkhamsted lists John Kibbe as head of the household living on the farm purchased by Moses, and in the same household are a man, his wife, and children ranging in number and age as those known to be in Moses' family. Where John Kibbe was between 1779 and 1800 is not known, nor when or where he died.

Children of John Kibbe[5] and Elizabeth (Bruce) Kibbe:
1. Moses, 1769-1850, m. ca. 1792, Mary Case(Andrew)

MOSES KIBBE[6] (John[5], John[4], John[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), the only known son of John[5] and Elizabeth (Bruce) Kibbe, was born in 1769, possibly in Windham, Connecticut, since his parent's marriage is recorded there. Moses was eight years old when his father went into service, and it is assumed that his mother was already dead. It is known that he was placed in a foster home, or apprenticed, and grew up in or near Simsbury, Connecticut. No record has been found of his marriage to Mary Case , circa 1792, but land records establish her identity as daughter of Andrew and Rhoda (Moses) Case of Barkhamsted. Moses was of Simsbury when he first purchased land in Barkhamsted in 1794. In 1800 this couple was living in Barkhamsted, and Moses' father was living with them. By 1810 Moses had moved to New York State, but not liking it there this family returned to their farm in Barkhamsted where they are listed in the 1820 census.

In 1828 Mary sold the property inherited from her father, and she with Moses moved to Ohio where they joined their sons who had removed there as early as 1820. Only their son, James, remained in Connecticut on the home farm in Barkhamsted. Moses and Mary did not buy land in Ohio. Until 1837 they lived with their son, Moses, and afterwards made their home with their daughter, Elizabeth, and her husband, James Tuttle. Here Moses died soon after the 1850 census. His widow, Mary, then lived with the older daughter, Mary, wife of Joseph Tuttle. She died February 14, 1861. Both Moses and Mary (Case) Kibbe are buried in the cemetery at Concord, Ohio.

Children of Moses Kibbe[6] and Mary (Case) Kibbe:

1. Moses, 1793-1877, m. 1816, Tamar Knight
2. Child, 1795, d.y.
3. Mary, 1798-1865, m. 1. 1819, Martin Adams, d. 1820
   2. 1823, Joseph Tuttle
4. John, 1799-1881, m. 1820, Sylvia Reed
5. Stephen, 1800, m. 1. 1822, Chloe Tullar, d. 1824

MOSES KIBBE7, the oldest son of Moses[6] and Mary (Case) Kibbe, was born May 22, 1793, in Simsbury, Connecticut, and removed to Barkhamsted with his parents in 1794. He was married October, 1816, in Canton, Connecticut, to Tamar Knight. She was born in Litchfield County, Connecticut, possibly the daughter of David and Welthy (Hayes) Knight. In 1819 Moses and Tamar removed to Ohio, settling in Geauga County where they lived until 1837. In that year they moved to Cessna Township in Hardin County, Ohio. Tamar died in Hardin County, June 3, 1856/7. After the death of his wife, Moses moved to Lima, Ohio, and died there at the home of his son, Harmon, December 2, 1877. He was buried in Huntersville, Hardin County. Of the thirteen children born to this couple only five lived to maturity, eight others including two sets of twins died in infancy.

Children of Moses Kibbe[7] and Tamar (Knight) Kibbe:

1. Maryetta, 1817-1894, m. 1837, Lucius Manly or Manley
2. Harmon or Harman, 1819-1902, m. Mercy Ann Purdy
3. Lucia, 1822-1880, m. George Preston

JOHN KIBBE7, son of Moses[6] and Mary (Case) Kibbe, was born December 5, 1799, in Barkhamsted, Connecticut. It is said that he and Sylvia Reed of Barkhamsted accompanied the Origin Adams family of Canton, Connecticut, in migrating to the "far west". Because the bans for their marriage had not been read as required, they waited until they had left their native township, and were married by a justice of the peace, one Amos Beecher, on June 21, 1820. In the summer of 1821, John and Sylvia settled in Ridgeville Township, Lorain County, Ohio. Here they joined the Methodist Church in 1826, and were living on their original homesite at the time of their deaths. John died August 30, 1881. Sylvia who was born April 4, 1802, died August 12, 1882. They are buried in the Fields Corners Cemetery, Ridgeville, Ohio.

Children of John Kibbe[7] and Sylvia (Reed) Kibbe:

1. Charles R., 1821, m. Urana R. or Lurany R. ----
2. Emeline R., 1823-1859, m. 1847, Alonzo Fauver

3. Eunice E., 1827, m. 1861, Mark T. Smith
4. C. Ransom or Ransom C., 1829, m. 1. Catherine ----
2. 1883, Nettie E. Taft
5. Luther R., 1832-1881, m. 1860, Esther or Hester Bainbridge
6. Wesley P., 1841-1873, m. 1866, Emma Beebe: no issue
7. Lorinda Sylvia, 1843-1889, m. Thomas Spriggs

STEPHEN KIBBE7, son of Moses[6] and Mary (Case) Kibbe, was born in Barkhamsted, Connecticut, in 1800. He was married, first, to Chloe Tullar of Barkhamsted, December 13/23, 1822. After his wife died in Barkhamsted, March 25, 1824, Stephen migrated to Ohio. His second marriage, November 24, 1825, to Caroline A. Baldwin of Concord, Ohio, is listed in Ohio Marriages for Geauga and Lake Counties. In the Census of 1830, Stephen Kibbe is listed in Thompson Township, Geauga County, with a wife and two female children. Only the younger of these children is believed to have been his. No further data has been found.

JAMES KIBBE7, son of Moses[6] and Mary (Case) Kibbe, was born in 1801 in Barkhamsted, Connecticut. He is said to have married Alma or Almira Root. She was born in 1807. When other members of his family removed to Ohio, James remained on the home farm in Barkhamsted. He is listed there in the Census of 1850. By 1866 James had removed to Bloomington, Illinois, and was living in a house located between his sons, George and Marshall. This information is recorded in letters to relatives. It seems probable that James died in Illinois before 1870, since his name does not appear in that census. His widow is known to have returned to Connecticut, and was living in 1884. It is probable that she died in Connecticut.

Children of James Kibbe[7] and Alma (Root) Kibbe:

1. George Washington, ca. 1822-1878, m. 1. ---- ----
   2. Laura Almira Grosvenor
2. Amos Watson, 1827-1915, m. Harriet Tuttle
3. Lucy Ann, married three times; once named Weed; living Barkhamsted in 1912
4. Marshall, 1838; married three times; one wife, Catherine ----
5. Alva C., 1847, m. ca. 1889, ---- ----

NORMAN KIBBE7, the youngest son of Moses[6] and Mary (Case) Kibbe, is said to have been born in New York State in 1810, and returned to Barkhamsted with his parents in 1820. From Ohio census records it appears he may have married twice, probably both marriages were in Ohio. The first wife, Louella, was born in New Hampshire; the second, Lucretia, was born in New York State. When Norman came to Ohio is not known, perhaps with his parents in 1828. He is listed in the 1850 census as living in Ferry Township, Franklin County, and in 1880 was living in Liberty Township, Delaware County, Ohio. Lucretia died July 1, 1890, aged 76, in Liberty Township, and Norman died there July 27, 1890, aged 80.

HARMON or HARMAN KIBBE8, the only surviving son of Moses[7] and Tamar (Knight) Kibbe, was born February 1, 1819, in New Hartford, Connecticut, and was brought to Ohio by his parents in that year. One obituary says he was born near Hinsville, Ohio. He is said to have married at Chili, Monroe County, New York, November 1, 1853, Mercy Ann Purdy. She was born in 1825, the daughter of Eliab and Mary (Harford) Purdy, and grew to adulthood near Rochester, New York. Coming to Ohio as a teacher it was there that she met Harmon Kibbe. He was educated in the local schools, taught school, helped clear land, farmed, dealt in livestock, was in the tannery business, a grocerer, builder, and contractor. In 1884 he built the Kibby block in Lima, Ohio. Harmon died in Lima, April 9, 1902, and Mercy died there September 22, 1910. She was a member of the Baptist Church for 72 years. They are buried in Woodlawn Cemetery, Lima, Ohio.

Children of Harmon Kibbe[8] and Mercy Ann (Purdy) Kibbe:

1. Clemie, 1857-1859
2. Clara T., m. Dr. A. N. Smeall of Toronto, Ontario, Canada
3. LaVerne Harmon, 1864-1955, m. Mary Ellen Condit

CHARLES R. KIBBE8, the oldest son of John[7] and Sylvia (Reed) Kibbe, was born about 1821, perhaps in Ridgeville Township, Lorain County, Ohio. His existence is indicated in the Census of 1830 and 1840, and his name is given in the Census of 1860. At that time his age was forty, his wife, Urana, born in Vermont, was aged twenty-nine. In later land records his wife's name is given as Lurany R. Charles was mustered into service in the Civil War at Cleveland, Ohio, September 8, 1862, and served until January 8, 1863. He was with Co. H, 103rd Ohio Voluntary Infantry. It seems possible this family removed to Indiana or Michigan after the war, but no authentic information has been obtained.

Children of Charles R. Kibbe[8] and Urana (----) Kibbe:

1. Albert P., ca. 1850, m. 1874, Martha Amanda Hanchett
2. Gilbert, ca. 1850
3. Lucia, ca. 1854
4. Henry, ca. 1856

EUNICE E. KIBBE8, a daughter of John[7] and Sylvia (Reed) Kibbe, was born in Ridgevill Township, Lorain County, Ohio, ca. 1827. Her existence is indicated in the 1830 and 1840 census, but her name does not appear until 1850, and again in 1860, when she was living with her parents. In both of these later Census records there is listed a Hugh Paddock, born November 6, 1849. In 1870 this Hugh is again listed with John and Sylvia but the name Paddock is omitted, suggesting that his surname was Kibbe. It is possible that Hugh Paddock was a child raised by John and Sylvia, and perhaps legally adopted by them. It seems equally possible that Eunice E. Kibbe was the mother of Hugh. She was not married until 1861 to Mark T. Smith.

Quoting from a letter of 1966, written by Ira Wesley Kibbe, son of Hugh, he says: "I do not know the first name of the father of Hugh L. Kibbe. Apparently he died when father (Hugh) was very young. His mother remarried to a Smith, and later moved to western Michigan. I do not know her maiden name. Hugh L. apparently remained in Ridgeville".

No son of John and Sylvia fits the conditions of parenthood of Hugh. However this information ties in with the known facts about Eunice Kibbe whose marriage August 12, 1861, was to a Smith. In land records of 1875 for Lorain County she is given as Eunice E. Smith. Since other members of this family are known to have removed to Michigan, it is quite probable that Eunice also moved there. If Hugh was the son of Eunice it may explain why she married so late in life.

RANSOM C. or C. RANSOM KIBBE[8](John[7],Moses[6],John[5],John[4],John[3],Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of John[7] and Sylvia (Reed) Kibbe, was born in Ridgeville, Lorain County, Ohio, in 1829, his existence indicated in the 1830 and 1840 census. The Census of 1870 lists him by name living with his parents, and his occupation given as "farm hand". At that time a housewife given as Catherine is listed. It has been assumed that Catherine was the wife of Ransom. In 1880 he is again listed with his parents, and occupation given as jeweller. Catherine no longer appears. It is, probably, this Ransom C. Kibbe who married February 10, 1883, Nettie E. Taft. No further data found.

LUTHER R. KIBBE8, son of John[7] and Sylvia (Reed) Kibbe, was born September 8, 1832, in Ridgeville Township, Lorain County, Ohio. On November 11, 1860, he was married to Esther or Hester Bainbridge, daughter of William Bainbridge of Ridgeville. Luther died in Ridgeville, October 4, 1881, and is buried in Fields Corners Cemetery, Ridgeville.

WESLEY P. KIBBE8, the youngest son of John[7] and Sylvia (Reed) Kibbe, was born in 1841 in Ridgeville Township, Lorain County, Ohio. His military service in the Civil War is listed in "Ohio Civil War Soldiers". He was married November 28, 1866, to Emma Beebe. Wesley died February 9, 1873. His gravestone says he was the youngest son of John and Sylvia. Emma, his widow, died January 11, 1881, and is buried by her husband in Fields Corners Cemetery, Ridgeville. There were no children.

GEORGE WASHINGTON KIBBE8, son of James[7] and Alma (Root) Kibbe, was born in Barkhamsted, Connecticut, circa 1822. It is said that he taught school early in life to finance a medical education, and graduated from a medical school in Cincinnati, Ohio, about 1849. He is known to have married twice. The name of his first wife is not known, but she died in Metropolis, Illinois, in January, 1862. On July 22, 1862, George married in Cincinnati, Ohio, Laura Almira Grosvenor. She was born October 8, 1830, in Beaver County, Pennsylvania, the daughter of Roswell and Harriet Lamson (Chipman) Grosvenor. Laura is said to have graduated from Granville Academy (now Denison University) where her father was a professor; to have taught school; and to have written both prose and poetry. George is known to have lived in Tennessee, Ohio, and in 1866 was living in Bloomington, Illinois. Family letters indicate he lived next door to his father, James, and near his brother, Marshall. At that time he was said to have a good practise, and well appointed office. In 1870 the census lists this family in LaSalle County, Illinois.. By 1874 they had moved to Larned, Kansas, and in 1876 were in Salem, Oregon. When applying for a patent on the "Kibbee Cot" in 1876, his residence was Salem. This cot George perfected for use in the treatment of yellow fever patients.

While in Oregon George had typhoid fever, and before fully recovered he returned east with his family to New York City. When he decided to aid in the yellow fever epidemic in New Orleans in 1878, George settled his family in Highlands, Macon County, North Carolina. By September of that year he was in New Orleans, Louisiana. There he contracted the fever himself, and died September 23, 1878, at the Hotel Dieu, aged ca. 56. His funeral was attended by the Governor, and other prominent members of the community. He was buried in Washington Cemetery, New Orleans. His name is inscribed on the Roll of Honor, a brass plaque in the entrance hall of the Orleans Parish building, commemorating physicians who died during the epidemic of 1878.

His widow, Laura, survived him by many years, dying December 14, 1911, at the home of her daughter in Lewiston, Idaho. There are said to have been eight children by the first marriage, but names of only five are known.

Children of George Washington Kibbe[8] by his first marriage:

AMOS WATSON KIBBE8, son of James[7] and Alma (Root) Kibbe, was born in 1827, in Barkhamsted, Connecticut. He was married December, 1868, to his cousin, Harriet Tuttle, daughter of Joseph and Mary (Kibbe) Tuttle of Concord, Ohio. She was born in Concord, August 24, 1840. After their marriage they lived for a while in Normal, Illinois, but returned to Concord, Ohio, in 1874.

Children of Amos Watson Kibbe[8] and Harriet (Tuttle) Kibbe:

MARSHALL M. KIBBE8, son of James[7] and Alma (Root) Kibbe, was born in Barkhamsted, Connecticut, circa 1838. The 1850 census for Barkhamsted lists a Seth M. Kibbe, aged 11, in the family of James Kibbe[7], but does not list Marshall M., who would have been approximately that age. It is believed that Seth M., and Marshall M., are one and the same person. In 1866 Marshall and his family were living in Bloomington, Illinois, in a house next that of his father, James. He is said to have made three marriages. The Census of 1880 lists Marshall in McLean County, Illinois, with wife, Catherine, and six children. Catherine was born in Illinois circa 1847, and her parents had been born in Virginia and Ohio. The six children listed were all born in Illinois, but whether they were the children of Catherine is not known.

Bloomington, McLean County, Illinois, probably having gone there with his parents. Family letters mention his proposed marriage in 1889, but do not give the name of his bride. He is said to have had a son, Edwin, and three daughters. The scrapbook of Daisy Kibbe records that Edwin Kibbe visited in Barkhamsted in 1891.

JOHN KIBBE8, son of Norman[7] and Louella (----) Kibbe, was born in Ohio, probably Franklin County, between 1842 and 1848. In 1880 the census of Franklin County lists the wife of John Kibbe as Adeline, born in Ohio, circa 1850. Records of Delaware County, Ohio, give the marriage of John to Adelaide Carrier. Adeline or Adelaide, believed to be the same person, is said to have died in 1935/6, aged about 86 years.

GILBERT KIBBE[9](Charles R.[8],John[7],Moses[6],John[5],John[4],John[3],Elisha[2],Edward[1]), son of Charles R.[8] and Urana R. (-----) Kibbe, was born circa 1850/2, perhaps in Lorain County, Ohio. It is believed he may be the Gilbert C. Kibbe whom descendants have reported as born in New York State in 1852, and who is supposed to have been taken to Michigan when aged ten years. This Gilbert C. Kibbe married Jane Law who was born in Benzie County, Michigan. She died in 1890, and her husband died March, 1924, aged 72 years.

HUGH L. KIBBE[9](Eunice E.[8]?,John[7],Moses[6],John[5],John[4],John[3],Elisha[2],Edward[1]), is said to have been born in Ridgeville, Lorain County, Ohio, November 6, 1849. It is not known whether his real name was Hugh Paddock, and was an adopted child of John[7] and Sylvia (Reed) Kibbe, or whether he was the son of their daughter, Eunice E.[8], by someone named Paddock. He appears, first, in the 1850 census as Hugh Paddock, aged 1, listed in the household of John Kibbe[7]. In later census records the name Paddock does not appear. Hugh became a farmer and carpenter. His marriage is given in Ridgeville records, July 20, 1874, to Betsey Neil or Neal. She was born in Yorkshire, England, in 1852. In 1880 they are listed in the Ridgeville census, but removed to California in 1886. Settling, first, in Alameda, they bought later a fruit orchard in the Santa Clara valley near San Jose. Mrs. Kibbe died in San Jose, January 3, 1929, and her husband died in Sacramento, California, December 27, 1934. They are both buried in San Jose.

JAMES B. KIBBE[9](George Washington[8],James[7],Moses[6],John[5],John[4],John[3], Elisha[2],Edward[1]), son of George Washington Kibbe[8] by his first marriage, was born April 26, 1858, in Nashville, Tennessee, or in Memphis. He was married in Mason, Texas, to Adeline or Ada Lea. She was born in Rome, Indiana, the daughter of ---- and Louisa (Ricks) Lea. James was a printer, publisher, and columnist. In 1886 he lived in El Paso, Texas, where he had a printing business. By 1888 this family was in Old Mesilla, near Las Cruces, New Mexico, where James published a bilingual weekly newsheet. In 1907 they were living in Denver, Colorado, where James was in partnership with Tom Ferris in the Kibbee-Ferris Printing Company in the Tremont Building. A letter written on the firm's letterhead in August, 1907, tells of his intent to dissolve this partnership, and move to Portland, Oregon, where his son, James, was already established in the printing business. He did move to Portland, and later was editor of "The Columbia Pilot" in Camas, Washington. James died in Camas, January 29, 1917, and his widow died in 1925. They are buried in Riverview Cemetery, Portland, Oregon.

HORACE GROSVENOR KIBBE[9](George Washington[8],James[7],Moses[6],John[5],John[4], John[3],Elisha[2],Edward[1]), son of George Washington[8] and Laura Almira (Grosvenor) Kibbe, was born September 20, 1866, probably in Bloomington, Illinois. He removed with his parents to Larned, Kansas, and then to Salem, Oregon. In 1877 his family settled in Highlands, Macon County, North Carolina. Owing to his father's untimely death in September, 1878, Horace began working at an early age, and learned the printing trade. He was employed, first, on the "Highland Enterprise" in North Carolina, and later on newspapers in Bridgeport, Connecticut. Horace married October 12, 1892, perhaps in Bridgeport, Augusta John Foster. She was born January 7, 1870, in North Carolina, the daughter of Fenton and Helen (----) Foster. About 1896, after a serious illness, Horace removed to Oregon in search of a milder climate. After trying ranching for a time he became editor of newspapers in Antelope, Mosier, and Madras, Oregon. During World War I Horace worked in the shipyards of Oregon and Washington. In the 1920's he removed to California. There he died in Hollywood, March 23, 1950. His body was cremated at the Chapel of the Pines, Los Angeles. His widow married Chester McCorkle, and died in McMinnville, Oregon, in January, 1960.

GRANVILLE FREDERICK KIBBE[11](James Lerch[10],James B.[9],George Washington[8], James[7],Moses[6],John[5],John[4],John[3],Elisha[2],Edward[1]), son of James Lerch[10] and Jessie (----) Kibbe, was born in 1902, in Durango, Colorado, and by 1907 had removed to Portland, Oregon, with his parents. He was married, first, in 1924, to Louise Buchannan. She was born in Kansas City, Kansas, in 1906, the daughter of Lawrence and Beatrice (Gill) Buchannan. Granville was in public relations work, promotion, sales, and advertising, and lived at various times in New Mexico; Long Beach, California; and Chicago, Illinois. About 1927, he deserted his wife and children, and there was a divorce. Louise remarried, later, and died in Los Angeles, California, in 1963. It is believed that Granville may have married two more times, but possibly only once. His last marriage was in Nevada in 1942, when he was married to Laura Grosvenor Kibbe[10]. She was born in Ashwood, Oregon, April 28, 1902, the daughter of Horace Grosvenor[9] and Augusta John (Foster) Kibbe. Her home at the time of her marriage was in California, and there they made their home. Granville died in 1958. Having served in the tank corps during World War II, he was buried in Veterans Cemetery, San Bruno, California. Laura died July 12, 1971, in San Francisco, California.

EDWARD KIBBE5, son of Edward[4] and Rebecca (Elmer) Cooley Kibbe, was born in 1723, in Enfield, Connecticut. It is believed to be this Edward Kibbe who married in 1747, Mary Parsons. She was born in 1726, and died in 1810. Edward's death is listed in 1812 in his 88th year. There are no children recorded.

Reference: Connecticut Vital Records.

ELIJAH KIBBE5, son of Edward[4] and Rebecca (Elmer) Cooley Kibbe, was born in Enfield, Connecticut, in 1725. He is not named in his father's will, nor any descendants. It is assumed he died without issue prior to 1784.

Reference: Connecticut Vital Records.

NOADIAH KIBBE5, son of Edward[4] and Rebecca (Elmer) Cooley Kibbe, was born November, 1733, in Enfield, Connecticut. He is listed as taking part in the military action at Crown Point and Ticonderoga. His marriage in Somers, Connecticut, February 16, 1763, was to Keziah (Jones) Ward, the widow of Amos Ward. A second marriage of Noadiah is indicated by Somers Church records which say that Abigail, wife of Noadiah, was admitted October 4, 1778, from East Windsor, Connecticut. This family removed to Vermont. Noadiah died October 10, 1808, his death recorded in Hartford, Vermont.

Children of Noadiah Kibbe[5] and Keziah (Jones) Ward Kibbe:

1. Elijah, 1764, m. 1784, Hannah Morehouse
2. Rebecca, 1765
3. Dolly, 1767, m. 1789, Joseph Lombard

ELISHA KIBBE5, son of Elisha[4] and Mehitable (Felt) Kibbe, was born August 27, 1729, in or near Enfield, Connecticut. He was married in Somers, Connecticut, November 8, 1750, to Sybil Tiffany. She is believed to have been a daughter of Nathaniel Tiffany[3]. Sybil died in Somers, June 20, 1801, aged 73 years. Elisha was married, second, December 27, 1801, to Mary Ayre, aged 20/21 years. He died December 15, 1805. Probate records show distribution of his estate to his widow, Mary, and their daughter.

Children of Elisha Kibbe[5] and Mary (Ayre) Kibbe:
1. Mary, 1802
2. Elisha, 1804-1805

PETER KIBBE5, son of Elisha[4] and Mehitable (Felt) Kibbe, was born in Enfield, Connecticut, June 15, 1731. He was married, May 1, 1755, to Esther Wood. She was born in 1732, the daughter of Josiah[4] and Hannah (Killum) Wood. No death date has been found for Esther, but Peter was married, second, by 1803, to Anna (Marsh) Pratt Hills. She was born May 31, 1755, the daughter of Daniel and Anna (Morrison) Marsh of East Hartford, Connecticut, and had been married, first, to Moses Pratt, and second, to Amos Hills. Anna died February 24, 1804, aged 48, and is buried in South Cemetery, Somers. Peter's third marriage, June 18, 1804, was to Dorcas (Hubbard) Arnold, 1756-1824, the widow of Samuel Arnold. This couple and several of Peter's children removed to Johnstown, New York. Here Peter died by February 15, 1808. In his will he named his widow, Dorcas, five sons and five daughters. His widow married, third, Noah Pease of Somers, and the latter was appointed guardian of Sidney Marsh Kibbe. Peter is said to have built the first hotel in Somers in 1769.

CHARLES KIBBE5, son of Elisha[4] and Mehitable (Felt) Kibbe, was born May 11, 1737, near Somers, Connecticut.

He was married there in 1758, to Mary Wood. She was the daughter of Josiah[4] and Hannah (Killum) Wood, and a sister of the wife of Peter Kibbe[5]. Mary died January 27, 1790, in her 54th year. Charles was married, second, July 14, 1791, to Deborah Payne of New Bolton, Connecticut. Captain Kibbe died December 8, 1805, and is buried beside his first wife in South Cemetery, Somers. His widow, Deborah, was married in 1811 to James McKinney of Ellington, Connecticut.

Children of Charles Kibbe[5] and Mary (Wood) Kibbe:

1. Mary, 1758, m. 1776, Reuben Sikes

TIMOTHY KIBBE5, son of Elisha[4] and Mehitable (Felt) Kibbe, was born December 3, 1739, near Somers, Connecticut. He was married about 1762, to Mary Sexton. She is believed to have been born February 6, 1742, the daughter of Amos and Elizabeth (Morris) Sexton. From land records it had been thought that Timothy died before December, 1793, but it now seems probable that it was this Timothy who signed the records rather than his son. The Census for 1820 of Marcellus, Onondaga County, New York, lists a Timothy Kibbe and his wife, both over 45 years of age, and it is believed these two may have been Timothy[5] and Mary (Sexton) Kibbe.

Children of Timothy Kibbe[5] and Mary (Sexton) Kibbe:

1. Louise, 1763-1822, m. 1800, Simeon Kibbe6

ASA KIBBE5, son of Israel[4] and Sarah (Horton) Kibbe, was born March 1, 1730, near Enfield, Connecticut. He was married about 1755, to Mary, whose surname is not known. Births of their children are recorded in Springfield, Massachusetts. Asa is said to have died in Medway, Massachusetts, in 1758 or 1759, shortly before the birth of his son. Probate records of April 11, 1776, give the appointment of Luke Hall as guardian of Asa, Jr., then about 15 years of age. It is possible this Luke Hall was an uncle, or the stepfather of Asa, Jr.

Children of Asa Kibbe[5] and Mary (----) Kibbe:

1. Mary, 1756, perhaps m. 1781, Jacob Ward ?
2. Asa, 1759, m. 1783, Jerusha (Kibbe) Coy(Daniel Kibbe[4],James[3], Elisha[2],Edward[1])

AARON KIBBE5, son of Israel[4] and Sarah (Horton) Kibbe, was born near Somers, Connecticut, May 27, 1739. He was married there, November 13, 1764, to Sarah Meachum, and births of two children are recorded in Somers. It is, probably, this family who joined the Shaker Colony, and whose deaths are recorded at Mount Lebanon, New York. Aaron died there February 15, 1813, at 75 years, but no record has been found for his wife. It is assumed this couple left no descendants who carried on their name.

LEVI KIBBE6, son of Peter[5] and Esther (Wood) Kibbe and twin to Simeon, was born August 17, 1768, in Somers, Connecticut. He was married February 5, 1800, to Sally Antrim. She died June 12, 1805, aged 27 years. Levi married, second, Mary (Palmer) Barber of New London, Connecticut. She was the daughter of David and Abigail (Gardner) Palmer, and widow of Thomas Barber. An active and prosperous farmer, Levi suffered financial reverses when a friend defaulted on a note, and he lost his property. After this misfortune he lived with his son, Warren. He died May 13, 1858, in his 90th year.

Children of Levi Kibbe[6] and Sally (Antrim) Kibbe:
1. Levi, 1802, m. Nancy Smith
2. William, said to have removed to Georgia
3. Warren, 1804-1892, m. 1. Samantha Spencer
2. Harriet Hurlburt or Hubbard

Children of Levi Kibbe[6] and Mary (Palmer) Barber Kibbe:
4. Thomas, ca. 1821/2, m. Sarah ----
5. Emeline, 1815-1838, unmarried

JUDAH KIBBE6, son of Peter[5] and Esther (Wood) Kibbe, was born in Somers, Connecticut, circa 1770. He removed to Johnstown, Fulton County, New York, with his father in the early 1800's. On December 18, 1799, Judah had married Mary or Polly Prior. She was born in 1777, the daughter of Ebenezer and Mary (Thompson) Prior of Enfield, Connecticut. Mary died September 18, 1812, aged 35 years, and is buried in the Johnstown Colonial Cemetery. The second wife of Judah was Catherine, her surname unknown. Possibly she was a sister of the Agnes Coughnet, aged 74, born in New York State, who is listed in the household of Judah in the 1850 census. At that time Catherine was 77, also born in New York State. The children given below appear to have belonged to Judah, but no verified list has been obtained.

Children of Judah Kibbe[6] and Mary (Prior) Kibbe:

1. Thompson Prior, 1801, m. Catherine ----
2. Jane Maria, m. ---- Young, Welsh, or Lepper*
3. William, 1805-1815
4. Philo P., 1808-1822
5. Fonclair, 1810-1895, m. Cornelia A. ----
6. Daughter
7. Daughter

Children of Judah Kibbe[6] and Catherine (----) Kibbe:

8. Martin, ca. 1820, m. Eleanor Decker
9. John, ca. 1820-1902, unmarried

* From papers concerned with the estate of John Kibbe[7], son of Judah, it appears that he had nieces named Harriet Welsh or Welch and Charlotte Lepper, living in Amsterdam and Aiken, Montgomery County, respectively; and nephews, John and Daniel Young of Saratoga Springs, and Jerome Young of Lansingburgh. This suggests that Judah had at least three daughters, and they married men named Welsh, Lepper, and Young. From the will of Caroline Kibbe[8], daughter of Martin[7], it is learned that Harriet Welsh married William Blood.

SIDNEY MARSH KIBBE6, son of Peter[5] and Anna (Marsh) Pratt Hills Kibbe, was born in Somers, Connecticut, in 1803. It is not known whether he removed to Fulton County, New York, with his father or remained in Connecticut with relatives. In 1808 when his father died, Noah Pease was appointed guardian of Sidney. He is called "of Hartford, Connecticut", at his death in Havana, Cuba, October, 1825. It is believed he was unmarried.

ZERAH KIBBE6, son of Zerah[5] and Hannah (Bement) Kibbe, was born September 29, 1761, in Somers, Connecticut, and died there May 27, 1836, aged 77. He was married, first, to Abigail Hildreth. She died in Somers, October 3, 1805, aged 50. Zerah is said to have married, second, Julia (Young) Green. It appears to be his widow whose death in Somers is recorded April 15, 1853, at 72 years. No authentic list of the children of Zerah has been found. Data collected by Mrs. Davison lists five, and records in Trumbull County, Ohio, suggest two others.

Children of Zerah Kibbe[6]:

1. Ora, 1791-1830, m. Wealthy (Gowdey) Butler(Levi Gowdey[4],Samuel[3], James[2],Simon[1])
2. Dorcas, unmarried
3. Anna, 1795; in Trumbull County, Ohio
4. Zerah, unmarried
5. Tirzah, 1800, m. Daniel Warner; Trumbull County
6. Abigail
7. Theodosia, m. 1826, Isaac Ladd; Trumbull County

GORDON KIBBE6, son of Zerah[5] and Hannah (Bement) Kibbe, was born September 30, 1764, in Somers, Connecticut.

He was married August 26, 1789, to Rana Wait of Somers. It ie, possibly, this man reported as Gurdon Kibbe who died December 12, 1822, in Madison County, New York. This death notice appears in The Hamilton Recorder, volume one, number one.

Children of Gordon Kibbe[6] and Rana (Wait) Kibbe:
1. Guy, b. February 26, 1791
2. Jervis ?

JAIRUS KIBBE6, son of Zerah[5] and Hannah (Bement) Kibbe, was born July 20, 1766, in Somers, Connecticut. His name is listed as Gaius in vital records. The will of Jairus Kibbe was probated October 10, 1797. It names his brothers and sisters as heirs. He was unmarried.

ELISHA KIBBE6, son of Charles[5] and Mary (Wood) Kibbe, was born in Somers, Connecticut. He was married there, July 2, 1789, to Sybil Pease[6]. She was born in 1767, the daughter of Abner[5] and Elizabeth (Farrington) Pease of Canaan, Connecticut. Her line of descent was Abner[5],Isaac[4],Isaac[3],John[2],Robert[1]. No death record has been found for Elisha, but his widow married, second, John Henry of Norwich, New York, and third, Joseph Powers of Worcester, New York. She had no children by any of her husbands, and died sometime after 1847, at which time she was living in Cooperstown, New York.

PHILIP KIBBE6, son of Charles[5] and Mary (Wood) Kibbe, was born February 2, 1762, in Somers, Connecticut.

He was married in Somers, December 1, 1785, to Thankful Sikes, probably the daughter of Reuben and Thankful (-----) Sikes. This family removed to Sherburne, Chenango County, New York, about 1804, and later records show them in Madison County. Histories of Madison County indicate Philip was an early settler near Lebanon, and had an inn on the road north of Earlville. This is spoken of as "Old Kibbie Tavern", and it's proprietor was known as "Old Jolly Kibbie". The graves of Philip and Thankful are in the Hill Burying Ground, Madison Center, New York. According to the tombstones, Thankful died June 6, 1835, aged 73, and Philip died April 26, 1837, aged 75. The only child known is that recorded in Connecticut. The will of Philip, executed May 20, 1836, bequeaths all his real and personal estate to his sister, Eunice Corbin, wife of Edward Corbin, of Florence, Huron County, Ohio. The petition to probate the will says "only heir at law of said deceased and next of kin is Eunice Corbin of the State of Ohio".

Children of Philip Kibbe[6] and Thankful (Sikes) Kibbe:
1. Percea or Persis, 1787, m. 1806, Nathaniel Ford ?

JOEL KIBBE6, son of Charles[5] and Mary (Wood) Kibbe, was born September 15, 1764, in Somers, Connecticut. He was married there, February 24, 1785, to Esther Durkee. This couple removed to Ohio, settling in Trumbull County about 1833, in the company of four of their sons. Joel died January 16, 1838, and his widow, Esther, born in 1763, died February 27, 1851. They are buried in the Old Center Cemetery, Bristolville, Ohio.

Children of Joel Kibbe[6] and Esther (Durkee) Kibbe:

TIMOTHY KIBBE6, son of Timothy[5] and Mary (Sexton) Kibbe, was born in Somers, Connecticut, in 1767, and baptized there July 12, 1772. He was married, first, February 1, 1787, to Lillis Davis of Somers. She died between 1795 and 1797 in her 32nd year. After her death Timothy migrated to Ohio with his brother, Amos. Here he was married, second, November 20, 1798, to Rachel Stites. She was the daughter of Major Benjamin Stites, the founder of Columbia, Ohio. Soon after their marriage this couple moved to St. Charles, Missouri, and here most of their children were born. Timothy was Judge of Common Pleas and Quarter Sessions Court in St. Charles. He died there, January 24, 1813. Rachel was called "Locky" in Missouri, and as a widow married there someone named Wheldon. Later she and her children returned to Cincinnati, Ohio, where she signed herself, Rachel Weldon. She died in Cincinnati, August 10, 1864.

AMOS KIBBE6, son of Timothy[5] and Mary (Sexton) Kibbe, was born February 13, 1770, in Somers, Connecticut. He migrated to Ohio with his brother, Timothy. Parting company there, Amos went on into Greenup County, Kentucky, where he went into the salt business with the Boone family. The Census of 1800 lists him in Mason County, Kentucky. Here he was married, May 8, 1804, to his first wife, Sidney Bragg. She was the daughter of Thomas and Lucy (Blakemore) Bragg. In 1816 Amos moved to Jefferson County, and by 1817, was settled in St. Louis, Missouri, where he operated a hotel. Later he moved to St. Charles, Missouri. Here his wife died of consumption in August, 1820. The following season Amos returned to Kentucky, and there was married, May 31, 1821, in Mercer County, to Sally (Baber) Finch, the widow of William Finch. Returning to Missouri they settled in Montgomery County. Amos died in St. Louis about 1845 or 1846.

EPAPHROS KIBBE6, son of Timothy[5] and Mary (Sexton) Kibbe, was born May 14, 1776, in Somers, Connecticut.

He became a minister. In 1799 records of Reverend Kibbe appear in Sandwich, Rhode Island, when he was transferred to Kingston, New Hampshire. In 1800 he was in Maine, and records of Boston, Massachusetts, list him as Methodist minister there from 1803 to 1805. He was married in Chelsea, Massachusetts, in 1815, to Betsey Cook. She was born in 1794, in Provincetown, Massachusetts, the daughter of Samuel and Jane (----) Cook. Epaphros died in Chelsea in 1865, and his widow died there, January 30, 1890.

MOSES KIBBE6, son of Jacob[5] and Abigail (Warner) Kibbe, was born April 20, 1747, in Somers, Connecticut.

He married Ruth Butler, and she was his widow when he died circa July 14, 1783, in Monson, Massachusetts. Testimony of his widow given in February, 1785, indicates her husband had died nineteen months earlier, and implies his death resulted from his military service in the Revolution. Further testimony says the youngest child died six weeks after the father. The death of this child, Love, has been recorded as 1789, which date is therefore inaccurate. At the same time the death of a Moses Kibbe was recorded as 1789. This has led to the belief that it was the son, Moses[7], who died. It is my belief that both deaths, the father and child's, were recorded in 1789 although they had died in 1783. There is every reason to believe that the son, Moses[7], is the same as the Moses Kibbe who appears in Kentucky.

Children of Moses Kibbe[6] and Ruth (Butler) Kibbe:

1. Rosanah, 1772
2. Moses, 1774-1832, m. Sarah Everman
3. Jacob, 1775

JACOB KIBBE6, son of Jacob[5] and Abigail (Warner) Kibbe, was born in Somers, Connecticut, March 21, 1754. During the Revolution he served as a private from 1775 to 1782, then becoming a Corporal. His service covered the march to Cambridge, April 19, 1775; Roxbury; White Plains; Fredericksburg; Fishkill, and Fort Arnold. Descriptive rolls of 1778 give his age as 24, height 5 feet 9 inches, and occupation as farmer. His first wife is said to have been Ann, her surname not known. On June 25, 1793, Jacob was married in Monson, Massachusetts, to his second wife, Diademia (Field) Williams. She was born October 9, 1756, the daughter of Moses and Rebecca (Cooley) Field, and was the widow of Stephen Williams. She died in Monson. In 1801, Jacob married Abilene Collins. She was then 34 years of age, and may, possibly, have been a widow.

This couple removed to New York State, and Jacob is said to have died in Geneseo, Livingston County, August 25, 1818. Filed there is an inventory of the personal property of Jacob Kibbey, deceased, of Caledonia, dated May 2, 1821. This bears the signature of Jason Kibbey, whom it is assumed was a son. Further confirmation of this relationship is found in the History of St. Joseph County, Michigan, whence Jason migrated. This gives a biographical account of Jason Kibbe, and says that his father died in New York State in 1818, leaving three sons and three daughters.

It is believed to be the widow of Jacob whose will, dated June 12, 1855, was probated in Otsego County, New York, May 20, 1861, when she was circa 94 years old. This Abilene Kibbe left the bulk of her estate to her daughter, Alicia, who is assumed to be a child of Jacob.

Children of Jacob Kibbe^{6} and Ann (----) Kibbe:

1. Joseph, 1777-1805/6, m. 1802, Elizabeth Kibbe^{7}(Ephraim^{6},Jacob^{5},^{4}, Edward^{3},Elisha^{2},Edward^{1})

EPHRAIM KIBBE^{6}(Jacob^{5},Jacob^{4},Edward^{3},Elisha^{2},Edward^{1}), son of Jacob^{5} and Abigail (Warner) Kibbe, was born in Somers, Connecticut, either December 10, 1754, or November 20, 1756, though the latter could be a baptismal date. He enlisted in the Revolutionary forces from Monson, Massachusetts, and served in the 4th, 3rd, and 1st New Jersey Regiments. His wife was the former Phebe Ann Crane. She was born March 26, 1758, probably the daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth (Johnson) Crane of New Jersey. Their first three children were born in New Jersey, and later ones in Ohio where they moved in November, 1788. Accompanying Major Benjamin Stites party, Ephraim was one of the original settlers of the Miami purchase, and the village of Columbia which lies eight miles north of Cincinnati. The tax list of 1796 for Columbia Township, Hamilton County, Ohio, shows 1878 acres in the possession of Ephraim Kibbe. About 1800 he removed his family to the vicinity of Deerfield (South Lebanon), Ohio. Here Ephraim died April 22, 1809, and his widow died July 14, 1813. He has been described as a "hunter, Indian fighter, scout, leader, surveyor, township clerk, and road builder". Ephraim served in both the territorial and state legislatures.

NATHANIEL and THOMAS KIBBE6, twin sons of Jacob[5] and Abigail (Warner) Kibbe, were born May 26, 1759, in Somers, Connecticut. Both served in the Revolution, marching to Ticonderoga and the northern departments. Nathaniel died December 28, 1777, a casualty of the war. Thomas served through 1782. It is believed to be this Thomas Kibbe who is listed in the 1790 census in New Salem, Hampshire County, Massachusetts, and who was a grantor there in 1828. In 1840, Thomas, aged 81, was a pensioner living in Shutesburg, Franklin County, Massachusetts. There are no known descendants of these men.

PHILIP WARNER KIBBE6 son of Jacob[5] and Abigail (Warner) Kibbe, was born in Monson, Massachusetts, May 19, 1761.

He was married April 27, 1786, to Sarah Meigs of Claremont, New Hampshire. She was born in Woodbury or Goshen, Connecticut, April 5, 1769, the daughter of Abner and Sarah (Church) Meigs. Philip saw service in the Revolution. Sarah died in Newport, New Hampshire, September 3, 1834, and Philip died there November 5, 1853. They are both buried in North Newport, New Hampshire.

Children of Philip Warner Kibbe[6] and Sarah (Meigs) Kibbe:

1. John Meigs, 1787-1851, m. Lavina Benson
2. Nathaniel C., 1789-1789

ISRAEL KIBBE6, son of Israel[5] and Ruth (Needham) Kibbe, was born December 29, 1758/9, in Somers, Connecticut. He entered military service in the Revolution in June, 1776, and served intermittently under various commands until the autumn of 1779. Israel was married in Somers, January 3, 1783, to Ruth Wood, the daughter of John and Mary (Chapin) Wood. This family removed to Randolph, Vermont, about 1790/92. Israel applied for a pension, October 5, 1832. He died in Randolph, March 28, 1836. His widow died there, July 17, 1847. They are buried at Randolph Center, Vermont.

Children of Israel Kibbe[6] and Ruth (Wood) Kibbe:

1. Ruth, 1783-1827, m. 1806, Rufus Morgan

MOSES KIBBE6, son of Israel[5] and Ruth (Needham) Kibbe, was born June 7, 1761, in Somers, Connecticut. He is believed to be the Moses Kibbe who was married in Somers, April 27, 1786, to Mary Pratt. His death is recorded there, August 12, 1830. The Census of 1790 lists six persons in the household of Moses Kibbe of Somers; one male over sixteen, two males under sixteen, and three females. No authentic list of children has been found.

Children of Moses Kibbe[6] and Mary (Pratt) Kibbe:
1. Moses, 1788-1845
2. Needham ?

NATHAN KIBBE6, son of Israel[5] and Ruth (Needham) Kibbe, is listed in records of Somers, Connecticut, as born there in 1763. No Nathan is named in the will of Israel Kibbe[5], but there is given a son, Joseph, for whom no birth record has been found. It seems probable the name on the birth record was incorrect.

JOSEPH KIBBE6, son of Israel[5] and Ruth (Needham) Kibbe, was born in Somers, Connecticut, probably September 25, 1763, the date given for Nathan above. Joseph was married in Somers, September 5, 1792, to Chloe Green. Nothing further has been found about this couple, but it seems probable that they removed to New York State where some of their children are known to have migrated.

Children of Joseph Kibbe[6] and Chloe (Green) Kibbe:

1. Joseph, 1793
2. Joel, 1797, m. 1824, Sophia Bisbie
3. Jeheil, 1800
4. James, 1803
5. Jared, 1803

REUBEN KIBBE6, son of Israel[5] and Ruth (Needham) Kibbe, was born May 17, 1766, in Somers, Connecticut. He was married March 1, 1791, to Jerusha Smith of West Springfield, Massachusetts. She was, probably, the daughter of Aaron Smith, baptized March 18, 1764. This couple removed to Randolph, Vermont. Jerusha died there December 13, 1836, and Reuben died in Randolph, March 18, 1839.

Children of Reuben Kibbe[6] and Jerusha (Smith) Kibbe:

1. Reuben, 1792-1829, m. 1814, Sally Capron(Ephraim)

ASA KIBBE6, son of Asa[5] and Mary (----) Kibbe, was born September 11, 1759, in Springfield, Massachusetts, some time after the death of his father. At the time of his marriage he was living in Wilbraham, Massachusetts. He was married in Somers, Connecticut, April 14, 1783, to Jerusha (Kibbe) Coy. She was born in Somers, in 1757, the daughter of Daniel[4] and Mary (Pratt) Kibbe, and was the widow of Abraham Coy. The Census of 1790 lists Asa Kibbe in Wilbraham with five in his household; three male children under sixteen. Later records suggest this family lived in Connecticut before their removal to Herkimer County, New York. No death date has been found for Asa, but Jerusha was buried in Litchfield, Herkimer County, July 15, 1840, aged 84 years. Names of only three children are known.

Children of Asa Kibbe[6] and Jerusha (Kibbe) Coy Kibbe:
1. Martin, 1785/6-1865, m. Anna Houck or Huyck
2. Asa, ca. 1792-1881, m. Mary Prindle

GIDEON KIBBE6, son of Gideon[5] and Bridget (Wood) Kibbe, was born August 26, 1778, in Somers, Connecticut. He was married, first, January 16, 1809, to Fidelia Munn. She was born in 1783 and died in 1814. After her death Gideon was married, second, in December, 1816, to Chloe Bliss. She was born in 1783 and died in 1858. Gideon was a prominent physician in Wilbraham, Massachusetts, and was instrumental in organizing the local medical association. He died in Wilbraham, March 7, 1859.

Children of Gideon Kibbe[6] and Fidelia (Munn) Kibbe:
1. Franklin, 1810-1810
2. Nancy Adams, 1812-1838, m. 1831, William Gilbert

EDWARD KIBBE6, son of Edward[5] and Hannah (Hall) Kibbe, was born February 7, 1777, in Somers, Connecticut. The birth records of their first children indicate that the wife of Edward was named Rebecca. Her surname is not known. In 1812 this family removed to Hambden, Geauga County, Ohio, along with the families of Levi Hale, Moses Parsons, and Salmon Carver. When Mrs. Carver died soon after their arrival in Ohio, Mrs. Kibbe cared for the two small Carver children. The 1820 census shows three males and three females in the Kibbe household besides the parents. No death record has been found for Edward. Rebecca, aged 82, is listed in the household of William H. Carver in the Census of 1860. This William H. Carver was one of the children she had cared for as a child.

Children of Edward Kibbe[6] and Rebecca (----) Kibbe:
1. Rebecca, 1799
2. Edward, 1800-1848, m. 1826, Prudence Sinclair6

LUKE KIBBE6, son of Edward[5] and Hannah (Hall) Kibbe, was born March 8, 1781, in Somers, Connecticut. He was married there, November 27, 1801, to Anna Brace. Births of their children through 1819 are recorded in Somers. Anna died in Longmeadow, Massachusetts, May 11, 1833. It is said in The History of Tolland, Connecticut, that Luke Kibbe married Lavinia Hall, daughter of Seth and Lavinia (Parsons) Hall. Whether this refers to Luke Kibbe[6] or to his son, Luke, has not been .

determined. This Luke Kibbe died in Longmeadow, June 15, 1864.

Children of Luke Kibbe[6] and Anna (Brace) Kibbe:
1. Anna, 1802, m. 1822, Seth Pease[7](Samuel[6],Richard[5],James[4],John[3],[2], Robert[1])

THOMPSON PRIOR KIBBE7, son of Judah[6] and Mary (Prior) Kibbe, was born in Somers, Connecticut, November 19, 1801, and removed to Johnstown, Fulton County, New York, with his parents. There he was married to Catherine, her surname unknown. Census records show she was born in New York State circa 1809, and was of Scotch parentage. Thompson is listed as a jeweller. He died before 1880 when his widow is listed in the home of their daughter, Jane.

Children of Thompson Prior Kibbe[7] and Catherine (----) Kibbe:
1. Alonzo, ca. 1838
2. Emily, ca. 1840

3. Jane A., ca. 1842, m. Jeremiah Keck(Isaac,George)

FONCLAIR KIBBE^{7}(Judah^{6},Peter^{5},Elisha^{4},Edward^{3},Elisha^{2},Edward^{1}), son of Judah^{6} and Mary (Prior) Kibbe, was born in New York State, probably Fulton County, circa 1810. He is mentioned in the will of his aunt, Achsah (Kibbe) de Fonclair, probated in Montgomery County in 1831. In the Census of 1850 he is listed with his family in Chautauqua, Chautauqua County, New York. His occupation is given as jeweller. His wife, Cornelia A., died October 8, 1866, aged 45, and is buried in the Mayville Cemetery, Chautauqua. In 1870 Fonclair is listed with his daughter, Evaline, keeping house, and his sons, Duane and Edwin. Also listed is a child, Frances, aged 4 years or 4 months. If this child was born in 1866, she was, probably, the cause of death of Cornelia, Fonclair's wife. Fonclair is listed in Mayville in 1873, as a jeweller specializing in the repair of clocks and watches. In 1880 he is listed with his son, Edwin, and Edwin's wife, Lillie aged 19, living in the same household. Fonclair died March 9, 1895, aged 84 years, 2 months, and 15 days, and is buried beside his wife in Mayville Cemetery. Also buried there are four of their children.

Children of Fonclair Kibbe^{7} and Cornelia A. (----) Kibbe:
1. Martin, ca. 1840
2. Joseph A., 1843-1857
3. Philo P., 1845-1853

MARTIN KIBBE7, son of Judah[6] and Catherine (----) Kibbe, was born circa 1820, probably in Johnstown, Fulton County, New York. In 1850 and 1860 the census shows Martin, a farmer, living in Johnstown. In his household in 1850 were his wife, Eleanor, their children, and his parents and brother, John. Eleanor was born circa 1818. In 1860 her mother, Margaret Decker, was living with them. That Eleanor Decker was Martin's wife's name before marriage is proven by the will of Caroline, their daughter, who speaks of Grandmother Decker. It is known that in 1900, Martin was living in Amsterdam, Montgomery County, New York, and presumably Eleanor was deceased, since she is not mentioned.

Children of Martin Kibbe[7] and Eleanor (Decker) Kibbe:

1. Catherine, ca. 1847
2. Margaret, ca. 1849, became insane
3. Ann E., ca. 1851-1926, unmarried
4. Caroline, 1853-1938, unmarried
5. George, 1855-1928, unmarried

JOHN KIBBE7, son of Judah[6] and Catherine (----) Kibbe, was born circa 1824/5, probably in Johnstown, Fulton County, New York. He is listed as a farmer, unmarried, living in the household with his father and brother, Martin, in 1850 and 1860. In 1880 the census shows John, aged 55, a boarder in the home of Charles Wilber of Johnstown. John died in Johnstown, January 11, 1902, leaving a will dated in 1900.

ORA KIBBE^{7}(Zerah^{6},Zerah^{5},Elisha^{4},Edward^{3},Elisha^{2},Edward^{1}), son of Zerah^{6} and Abigail (Hildreth) Kibbe, was born in Somers, Connecticut, October 22, 1791. He married Wealthy (Gowdey) Butler. She was, probably, the daughter of Levi^{4} and Ruth (Belknap) Gowdey, born May 29, 1794. This couple removed to Trumbull County, Ohio, where Ora is listed as a voter in 1819. He died in Farmington Township, Trumbull County, December, 1830. The 1830 census shows his family with two sons and four daughters. Names of the sons are known, and it is probable the young women listed below were daughters of Ora Kibbe. It is recorded that Wealthy Butler married Cory Cook Smith, August 5, 1825. This Wealthy Butler was, perhaps, a daughter of Wealthy (Gowdey) Butler by the first marriage.

Children of Ora Kibbe^{7} and Wealthy (Gowdey) Butler Kibbe:

1. Ora Butler, 1813, m. 1836, Mary Maria Allen(Harvey)
2. Child, 1815-1815
3. Ryland, 1817-1842, m. Mary Ann Ensign
4. Harriet, m. 1840, Peter Proctor: removed to Michigan
5. Daughter
6. Candace, 1824, m. 1848, Martin Barb: to Longmount, California
7. Ann, 1827, m. 1849, Lowell Proctor: to Michigan

GUY KIBBE^{7}(Gordon^{6},Zerah^{5},Elisha^{4},Edward^{3},Elisha^{2},Edward^{1}), son of Gordon^{6} and Rana (Wait) Kibbe, was born February 26, 1791, in Somers, Connecticut. It is known that he removed to New York State, and was, perhaps, in Madison County. Names of two children have been given by descendants. In 1828 this man inscribed a bible which he gave his son: "Guy Kibbe, Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, to son, Barton William Kibby, 1828". Where or when he was married is not known, nor to whom. However the Census for 1860 in Allegan County, Michigan, records a Harriet Kibbe, aged 68, born in Massachusetts, with a child, William B., aged 12, born in Michigan. It seems possible this child is William Bartlett Kibbe, born 1848, son of Barton William and Hannah (Starr) Kibbe of Allegan County. If this is true, then Harriet Kibbe was, undoubtedly, his grandmother, and was the wife or widow of Guy Kibbe.

Children of Guy Kibbe^{7}:

1. Jervis H., m. Mary ----
2. Barton William, ca. 1818-1852, m. 1841, Hannah Starr

JOEL KIBBE7, son of Joel[6] and Esther (Durkee) Kibbe, was born March 1, 1786/7, in Somers, Connecticut. He was married in Tolland, Connecticut, November 30, 1809, to Elizabeth or Betsey Abbott[7]. She was born in 1789, the daughter of John[6] and Temperance (Baker) Abbott, her line of descent being John[5],[4],Nehemiah[3], George[2],George[1]. Joel Kibbe was a carpenter, and migrated with his family to the west, living at one time in Oswego, New York. He died in Wayne County, Ohio, March 3, 1861. His widow died in Albany, New York, in 1864.

Children of Joel Kibbe[7] and Betsey (Abbott) Kibbe:

CHARLES WOOD KIBBE7, son of Joel[6] and Esther (Durkee) Kibbe, was born December 23, 1787, in Somers, Connecticut. He married, first, Amelia Morrison who died March 9, 1821, aged 32. Charles Wood Kibbe is called Doctor Kibbe, and is presumbed to have practised medicine. On October 31, 1822, he was married in Somers, to Betsey or Elizabeth Spencer. She was born November 30, 1795. This family removed to Trumbull County, Ohio, about 1833. Charles died there, June 4, 1855. His widow died May 2, 1861. They are buried in the West Cemetery, Bristolville, Ohio. The will of Charles, dated December, 1852, was filed for probate, December 4, 1855. In it he mentions the two children of his first marriage, and his widow, Betsey.

Children of Charles Wood Kibbe[7] and Amelia (Morrison) Kibbe:

LYMAN STOKES KIBBE7, son of Joel[6] and Esther (Durkee) Kibbe, was born March 1, 1794, in Somers, Connecticut. His wife was Lydia Howlett[6], born January 15, 1793, the daughter of Didymus[5] and Alice (Marcy) Howlett of Woodstock, Connecticut. In 1833 this couple migrated to Bristol Township, Trumbull County, Ohio. Here they were among the earliest settlers, and after clearing their land, built a hotel. Later they removed to Warren, Ohio, where Lyman was engaged in the mercantile business. He died in Warren, October 16, 1851. His widow died June 4, 1873. The will of Lyman was signed September 22, 1851, and probated late in October. In it he mentions his wife, Lydia, and sons, James H. and John S. Also mentioned is a Jefferson Palm, but his relationship is not indicated.

Children of Lyman Stokes Kibbe[7] and Lydia (Howlett) Kibbe:

1. Edward Hopkins, 1817-1868, m. Harriet N. Ballard7

ORRIN KIBBE7, son of Sylvester Kibbe[6], is listed on the genealogical chart made by his nephew, Augustus F. Kibbe[8]. In the Census of 1850 for Middlefield, Otsego County, New York, there is an Orrin Kibbe, born circa 1803, in Connecticut. Since the name, age, and location would fit this Orrin, son of Sylvester, it is possible this man is he, and so has been included here.

Children of Orrin Kibbe[7] and Laura (----) Kibbe:

1. Jared, ca. 1833
2. Aaron, ca. 1834
3. James, ca. 1836
4. Esther, ca. 1839
5. Laura, ca. 1842

DANIEL H. KIBBE7, son of Sylvester Kibbe[6], was born August 18, 1807, possibly in Schoharie County, New York. He married Augusta Henrietta Lawyer, born November 7, 1813. She was the daughter of General Thomas and Sarah (Tiffany) Lawyer of Lawyersville, New York. Daniel H. Kibbe was a doctor by profession. This couple lived in Cobleskill, Schoharie County. They are buried in the Cobleskill Rural Cemetery, as are most of their children. Augusta died November 19, 1849, and Daniel died the following January 8, 1850. Estate records show only two children survived the parents: Augustus, about 20, and Allison, about 10.

Children of Daniel H. Kibbe[7] and Augusta Henrietta (Lawyer) Kibbe:

1. Augustus F., ca. 1830, m. Sarah Sayre
2. Irving, 1835-1843
3. Epaphros, 1839-1845
4. Allison E., ca. 1840-1893
5. Thomas L., 1844-1846
6. Helen, 1847-1850
7. Daniel H., 1849-1849

MOSES KIBBE7, son of Moses[6] and Ruth (Butler) Kibbe, was born, probably, in Monson, Massachusetts, either January 10, 1774, or February 14, 1776. Records of Hampshire County, Massachusetts, suggest that this son died, but there are obvious errors in the recording of deaths in this family, and it is believed that this young man migrated westward, and is the same Moses Kibbe who was married in Adams County, Ohio, April 13, 1802, to Sarah Everman. Sarah was born July 5, 1781, and died June 8, 1863, near Grayson, Kentucky. Moses was an early settler in Greenup County, Kentucky, later called Carter County. He died February 21, 1832, at Pactolus, Kentucky. His widow raised their ten children to maturity. Moses and Sarah are buried in Lindsey Cemetery, Carter County.

Children of Moses Kibbe[7] and Sarah (Everman) Kibbe:

1. Jacob, 1803-1870, m. 1824, Malinda Everman
2. David, m. 1836, Eliza Womack: to Oregon in 1852
3. Moses, m. 1835, Jermima Cobb
4. Ephraim, probably died at 17 years, unmarried
5. Clarinda, m. 1823, Thomas T. Hood or Hord
6. Jacintha, m. 1829, William Womack
7. William, 1819, m. 1. 1847, Mary Scott
   2. 1849, Sarah Pierce
8. Oliver Perry, 1821, m. Nancy ----
9. Delilah, m. 1832, George W. Rigg
10. James Hugh, 1825-1916, m. 1849, Martha Ann Gill

JACOB KIBBE7, son of Moses[6] and Ruth (Butler) Kibbe, was born April 27, 1775, probably in Monson, Massachusetts. After the death of his father in July, 1783, Jacob was placed under the guardianship of Thomas Truesdale. No further records of him have been found.

Reference: Probate Court records, Hampshire County, Massachusetts.

EPHRAIM KIBBE7, son of Moses[6] and Ruth (Butler) Kibbe, was born October 12, 1777, probably in Monson, Massachusetts. Possibly he is the Ephraim Kibbe whose wife, Lydia, died in Medbury, Massachusetts, January 10, 1814. Nothing further known of this man.

Children of Ephraim Kibbe[7] and Lydia (----) Kibbe:
1. Moses, 1810

JOSEPH KIBBE7, son of Jacob[6] and Ann (----) Kibbe, is believed to have been born December 30, 1777. Possibly this Joseph followed his uncle, Ephraim[6], to Ohio. He may be the Joseph Kibbe who was married in 1802, to Elizabeth Kibbe[7], 1784-1865, daughter of Ephraim[6] and Phebe (Crane) Kibbe. If so, he was a cousin of his wife, and died in Ohio in 1805/6. Children of the marriage of Elizabeth and her husband are listed under her name.

JASON KIBBE7, son of Jacob[6] and Ann (----) Kibbe, was born October 20, 1783, in Connecticut or Vermont. He was married in 1811, to Polly Eddy. She was born January 25, 1790, the daughter of Levi and Rhoda (Hyde) Eddy of Woodstock, Connecticut. This couple removed to Livingston County, New York, and about 1839 moved to Michigan, settling at Burr Oak, St. Joseph County. Polly died in Burr Oak, July 6, 1862, and Jason died there December 14, 1863 or 1872. They are buried in the cemetery at Burr Oak, Names of only three children are known, perhaps there were others.

Children of Jason Kibbe[7] and Polly (Eddy) Kibbe:
1. John S., 1812-1888, m. Jerusha A. Coe
2. Charles E., 1814-1863, m. Julia ----
3. Chester J., 1818-1872

JOHN CRANE KIBBE7, son of Ephraim[6] and Phebe (Crane) Kibbe, was born in New Jersey, March 17, 1783, and removed to Ohio with his parents at an early age. A marriage license was issued him, February 5, 1805, to marry Mary or Polly Espy. Leaving Warren County, Ohio, in 1821/2, this couple settled in Wayne County, Indiana, in the vicinity of Richmond. John is said to have died in Illinois in 1856. Ten children were born to this couple; nine daughters and one son. As the order of their births is not known, they are listed in the order of the marriage dates.

Children of John Crane Kibbe[7] and Mary (Espy) Kibbe:
1. Elisa, m. 1822, Elias Willets
2. Phebe Ann, m. 1824, Robert Wade
3. Mary Jane, m. 1829, Thomas L. Doughty
4. Electra Abigail, m. 1832, Kline Shryock
5. Rebecca, m. 1834, Thomas Adams

ELIZABETH KIBBE7, daughter of Ephraim[6] and Phebe (Crane) Kibbe, was born July 12, 1784, probably in New Jersey, and removed to Ohio with her parents. Her first marriage, March 3, 1802, was to a Joseph Kibbey whose identity has not been established. Some have suggested that he was a recent emigre from England, but it is equally possible he may have descended from collateral Kibbe lines. Use of the name, Aurelia, suggests relationship to Jacob Kibbe[6] who had a son, Joseph, and daughter, Aurelia. Joseph the husband of Elizabeth, is believed to have died in 1805/6, leaving two children. The mother was married, second, to Oliver Whitaker, by whom she had six children. Elizabeth died in Clinton County, Ohio, July 5, 1865, and is buried near Clarksville, Ohio.

Children of Elizabeth Kibbe[7] and Joseph Kibbey:
1. Arsasus Warren, 1803-1879, m. Abigail Sewell
2. Aurelia, 1805-1831, m. Isaac Johnson Cast: four children

ABIAL L. KIBBE[7](Philip Warner[6],Jacob[5],Jacob[4],Edward[3],Elisha[2],Edward[1]), son of Philip Warner[6] and Sarah (Meigs) Kibbe, was born April 29, 1807, in Newport, New Hampshire. He was married, first, in New York State, to Elizabeth Imas. She was born in New York State about 1820, perhaps the daughter of Charles Imas. The 1840 census shows Abial in Moriah, Essex County, New York. This couple removed to Rosendale, Fond du Lac County, Wisconsin, in 1849. There Elizabeth died before 1870. Abial married by 1870, Laura D. (----) Eddy. She was born circa 1825, and had at least four Eddy children. Living in Abial's household was his niece, Almira V., the daughter of Arial Anson Kibbe[7]. She had come to Wisconsin with Abial and Elizabeth. Before 1880, Abial removed to Ripon, Fond du Lac County, and there he died August 24, 1897. He is buried in Picketts Cemetery, Winnebago County, Wisconsin. His widow, Laura, survived him.

ISRAEL KIBBE7, son of Israel[6] and Ruth (Wood) Kibbe, was born in Somers, Connecticut, March 4, 1785, and removed to Randolph, Vermont, with his parents. About 1810, he was married in Williamstown, Vermont, to Azuba Root[6]. She was born in Alstead, New Hampshire, February 1, 1787, the daughter of Thomas[5] and Azuba (Chapin) Root. Soon after their marriage this couple removed to Arcade (formerly called China), Wyoming County, New York. Here Israel is said to have been the first resident doctor, and dispenser of herbs. His original farm of some 400 acres gave the area the name of Kibbes Corners. Azuba died in Arcade, October 5, 1833, and Israel remarried. His second wife was Rebecca, born in Pennsylvania. Possibly she was a Widow Bennett. An entry in the Kibbe bible written in Israel's handwriting says: "Rebecca Kibbe died March 5, 1858". After her death Israel went out to Fairwater, Wisconsin, where he is said to have lived with his eldest son. He died there November 3, 1868. Azuba and Rebecca, wives of Israel, are buried in Prospect Hill Cemetery, Arcade.

* A Marvin Kibbe died in California, November 2, 1865, Humphrey Barber, lawyer and administrator of the estate, filed papers, September 1, 1866. There was no will, no personal property, but there was some real estate in Kane County, Illinois. Because of the Illinois property it has been questioned whether the name should have been Martin Kibbe, referring to Martin[7], husband of Anna (Houck) Kibbe.

HARRY CLINTON KIBBE7, son of Israel[6] and Ruth (Wood) Kibbe, was born December 31, 1797, in Randolph, Vermont. His twin, Harvey Chapin Kibbe, died in 1816. Harry was married, first, in 1824, to Sarah Whittemore, who was the mother of his children. His second marriage, April 24, 1859, was to Emily (Kinney) Billings, the daughter of Nathan and Polly (----) Kinney. Harry died in Randolph, April 4, 1874, and his widow died there, December 13, 1886.

Children of Harry Clinton Kibbe[7] and Sarah (Whittemore) Kibbe:

1. Lucina P., 1827-1889, m. 1. 1848, Henry Blodgett(Horace)
   2. 1853, Ammi Burnham
2. Ruth M., 1829-1849 ?
3. Charles Henry, 1831-1913, m. Johanna Johnston
4. Israel N., 1833-1897, m. 1. 1854, Phebe Mathewson
   2. Julia Thankful ----
5. Ebenezer, b. 3/12/1835

MOSES KIBBE7, son of Moses[6] and Mary (Pratt) Kibbe, was born in Somers, Connecticut, in 1788. His death there is indicated by cemetery records, September 26, 1845, aged 57 years. That he married and lived in Somers is evident from census records. It is probable he is the Moses Kibbe who married Eunice Hall. She was born in 1798, the daughter of George and Laura (Lathrop) Hall of East Windsor, Connecticut. In a letter written by his uncle, Israel Kibbe of Randolph, Vermont, in 1830, this Moses is called "General", a distinction earned, probably, in the War of 1812. Several children are suggested by census records, but data has been found for only two.

Children of Moses Kibbe[7]:
1. Wilder, 1819-1820
2. Child, 1833-1834

REUBEN KIBBE7, son of Reuben[6] and Jerusha (Smith) Kibbe, was born in Randolph, Vermont, in 1792. He was married February 3, 1814, to Sally Capron of Williamstown, Vermont. She may have been the daughter, Sally, of Ephraim and Lucy (Gaffield) Capron, who was born July 5, 1793, and who is said to have died in 1839. Reuben died January 11, 1829, aged 36, and is buried in Randolph Center, Vermont. Probate records filed in Rutland, Vermont, show that Reuben was in Brandon, Vermont, at the time of his death. His widow, Sally of Randolph, was married July 29, 1830, to Hiram Sexton of Chelsea, Vermont.

Children of Reuben Kibbe[7] and Sally (Capron) Kibbe:
1. Lucy Laura, 1815-1817
2. Lavinia J., m. 1835, Philo Sexton of Poultney, Vermont

JOSEPH KIBBE7, son of Joseph[6] and Chloe (Green) Kibbe, was born in Connecticut in 1793, probably near Somers. It is believed he may have removed to New York State, but nothing further is known about him.

Reference: Connecticut Vital Records.

JOEL KIBBE7, son of Joseph[6] and Chloe (Green) Kibbe, was born in 1797, in the Somers area, Connecticut. It is this Joel Kibbe whose marriage is recorded in December, 1824, in Lebanon, Madison County, New York, to Sophia Buysby, the Reverend Thomas Jeril, officiating. She was born in Massachusetts circa 1798. This Joel's identity was established through the family tradition concerning the naming of his first son. The child was named Jared for his father's brother, Ebenezer for his mother's brother, Cushman was the maternal grandmother's surname, and Green the maiden name of the paternal grandmother. Joel Kibbe had a brother, Jared, and his mother was Chloe Green. The name Buysby, was really, Bisbie or Bisbee. There are several intermarriages between Cushman and Bisbee families. It seems probable that Sophia was the daughter of Reuben and Lydia (Cushman) Bisbie, and had a brother, Ebenezer, named for her grandfather Cushman and her mother's brother, Ebenezer[7]. The Cushman line is Lydia[7],Ebenezer[6],Elkanah[5],Josiah[4],Elkanah[3],Thomas[2],Robert[1].

Children of Joel Kibbe[7] and Sophia (Bisbie) Kibbe:

1. Jared Ebenezer Cushman Green, 1830-1898, m. Lucena Alexander Foster
2. Russell Harry, 1833-1902, m. Caroline Amerett Foster(Charles)
3. Permelia, 1836

JAMES or JAIRUS KIBBE7, son of Joseph[6] and Chloe (Green) Kibbe, a twin to Jared, was born in the Somers area, Connecticut, in 1803. It is believed this child, recorded as James, may have been named Jairus, and be the Jairus Kibbe of the 1850 census for Batavia, Genesee County, New York. This record gives the wife of Jairus as Polly, aged 46, and his age as 46, a farmer, born in Connecticut.

Children of Jairus Kibbe[7] and Polly (----) Kibbe:

1. Jared G., ca. 1824, m. Laura ----
2. Hiram, 1830
3. Martin V., 1832
4. Ligora A., 1837 (female)
5. Bertha E., 1843

JARED KIBBE7, son of Joseph[6] and Chloe (Green) Kibbe, was born a twin to James or Jairus in the Somers area, Connecticut, in 1803. It is probable that he removed to New York State. It may be his estate probated in St. Lawrence County. A Jared Kibbe died in Oswegatchie, New York, April 1, 1881. No widow was named but there were three children.

Children of Jared Kibbe of Oswegatchie:
1. Alvira, m. ---- Cooper: in Sacramento County, California, 1881
2. Parker, of Ogdensburg, New York, in 1881
3. Edna, m. ---- Church: Sacramento City, California, 1881

MARTIN KIBBE7, son of Asa[6] and Jerusha (Kibbe) Coy Kibbe, was born about 1785/6, probably in Wilbraham, Massachusetts, and accompanied his parents to Connecticut, and then to Herkimer County, New York. It has been said that he lived in Litchfield and Frankfort, Herkimer County, and it seems probable that he is the Martin Kibbe recorded in Ellisburg, Jefferson County, in 1820. Later he was in Mexico, Oswego County, and from there left for Illinois. In 1850, Martin, aged 64, and his wife, Anna, aged 57, both born in Massachusetts, are listed in Grafton, McHenry County, Illinois. Descendants believe the surname of Martin's wife was Houck or Huyck. It is not known where or when Martin and Anna died*. The children listed below are believed to have been theirs and perhaps there were others.

Children of Martin Kibbe[7] and Anna (Houck) Kibbe:
1. Martin, 1809/10, m. Abigail Jane Hall
2. Abrim C., 1814/16, m. 1840, Olive Tracy
3. Almon or Almond M., 1818-1866, m. 1. 1846, Caroline Adams
   2. Mary J. Winder
4. Augustus, 1821, m. Emily Mason
5. Harriette

* The estate of Marvin Kibbe is filed in California. He died November 2, 1865. It has been suggested the name should have been Martin Kibbe, the name mis-spelled in recording. Humphrey Barber, lawyer and administrator of the estate, filed papers, September 1, 1866. There was no will, no personal property, but there was real estate in Kane County, Illinois.

ASA KIBBE[7] (Asa[6], Asa[5], Israel[4], Edward[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of Asa[6] and Jerusha (Kibbe) Coy Kibbe, was born in Wilbraham, Massachusetts, or Connecticut, in 1792. It is known that he accompanied his parents when they removed to Litchfield, Herkimer County, New York. He is said to have married Mary Prindle, and to have lived in Mexico, Oswego County, New York, where he died in 1881. In the Kibby Genealogy compiled by Berry, this Asa Kibbe has been confused with the Asa of Connecticut, who married Lucinda Root. No authentic list of children has been found but these appear to have been his.

Children of Asa Kibbe[7] and Mary (Prindle) Kibbe:
1. Harriet
2. George Washington, 1817-1883, m. Emily Minerva Kenyon

WALTER KIBBE[7] (Asa[6], Asa[5], Israel[4], Edward[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of Asa[6] and Jerusha (Kibbe) Coy Kibbe, was born January 17, 1793, probably near Somers, Connecticut, and accompanied his parents when they removed to Herkimer County, New York. Here he was married about 1813/4, to Lydia Barber. She was born September 1795, the daughter of Heman and Almira (Brace) Barber. The Barber and Brace families had removed to New York State in 1793. Lydia died January 8, 1841, and Walter died in Litchfield, Herkimer County, January 29, 1868.

Children of Walter Kibbe[7] and Lydia (Barber) Kibbe:
1. Caroline, 1815-1898, m. Ezra Stuart
2. Jerusha, 1817/8, m. Solomon Devendorf
3. Janette, 1818/9, m. Alfred Birdsall
4. Almira, 1820, m. Whitney Wheeler

5. Angeline Lydia, 1826-1895, m. 1850, Alva Kinne or Alvah Kinney
6. Delos L. W., 1830-1890, m. 1. Jenney Davey
2. Adelaide Reynolds

EDWARD KIBBE7, son of Edward[6] and Rebecca (----) Kibbe, was born in Connecticut, about 1800, and removed to Geauga County, Ohio, with his parents circa 1812. They settled in Hambden Township. Edward was married there, September 4, 1826, to Prudence Sinclair[6]. She was born in Rockdale, Pennsylvania, December 29, 1805, the daughter of John[5] and Abigail (Clark) Sinclair. Edward's death is recorded in Hambden in 1848. His widow was married in 1850, to Butler Lord.

Children of Edward Kibbe[7] and Prudence (Sinclair) Kibbe:
1. Maria A., m. Lewis Carver
2. Harriet R., m. George Marshall
3. Hannah, lived in Pennsylvania
4. Fidelia, 1833, living with Philo Reed family, 1860
5. Frederick Edward, 1836, lived Hambden
6. Mary R., 1838
7. Henry W., 1841
8. Cyrus, died before settlement of his father's estate

LUKE KIBBE7, son of Luke[6] and Anna (Brace) Kibbe, was born June 16, 1805, in Somers, Connecticut. He was married there, March 14, 1833, to Laura Hall, according to Somers records. The History of Tolland, Connecticut, says Luke Kibbe married Lavinia Hall in 1833, the daughter of Seth and Lavinia (Parsons) Hall. It seems possible the names Laura and Lavinia were confused and really refer to the same person, or it may be there were two girls named Hall, one marrying the son, and the other marrying the father. It is not known whether the child given below belonged to this Luke Kibbe or to his father. Luke Kibbe[7] died in 1874, in Longmeadow, Massachusetts, and his widow was Mary A.

Children of Luke Kibbe and Lavinia (Hall) Kibbe:
1. Lorinda, m. 1859, Edwin Porter of Longmeadow

LORENZO KIBBE7, son of Luke[6] and Anna (Brace) Kibbe, was born February 2, 1815, in Somers, Connecticut. He was of Longmeadow, Massachusetts, when he was married, June 7, 1836, to Betsy K. Pelton of Somers. She was born in 1814, the daughter of Jacob[6] and Betsey (Kibbe) Pelton. Lorenzo was a stonecutter, and lived in Wilbraham, East Longmeadow, and Springfield, Massachusetts, at different periods.

GEORGE KIBBE7, son of Alfred[6] and Laura (Crane) Kibbe, was born in the Somers area, Connecticut, October 3, 1825. He was married November 14, 1850, to Lomira Caroline Richardson of Willington, Connecticut. She was born June 24, 1828, the daughter of Levi and Sarah (Cook) Richardson. This couple lived for a period in Iowa and Missouri, and some of their children were born there. Returning to Hartford, Connecticut, George was a building contractor. He built many houses, and laid out many streets in Hartford. Lomira died in Hartford, January 16, 1881. Soon after her death, George visited in East Longmeadow, Massachusetts, and there met Sarah Pratt to whom he was married in 1882 or 1883. She was born June 14, 1840, the daughter of Edmund and Sarah (Vining) Pratt. For a while this couple lived in Hartford, but in 1887 moved to East Longmeadow where Sarah owned considerable property. Here George continued in the building trade. He died after a brief illness in 1894, and is buried in the Kibbe lot, Spring Grove Cemetery, Hartford. Also buried there are Lomira, and several of their children. His widow, Sarah, died in April, 1925.

Children of George Kibbe[7] and Lomira Caroline (Richardson) Kibbe:

HENRY ROOT KIBBE8, son of Asa[7] and Lucinda (Root) Kibbe, was born in Somers, Connecticut, August 19, 1825. His schooling was that of the local area. He became an agent for a book company, and in 1849 went to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. There Henry became associated with a dry goods and importing firm operating in New York City and Philadelphia. His name appears in New York City directories in 1864 as a member of the firm, Kibbe, Chaffee, Shreve & Company, importers. Henry was married January 29, 1855, to Mabel C. Gager, the daughter of Samuel Gager of Somers. After returning to Connecticut, Henry lived on the farm of his father. In 1881 he was a Representative in the Connecticut Legislature. Henry died in Somers, December 19, 1908, and his widow died in 1923.

FRANCIS WARREN KIBBE8, son of Warren[7] and Samantha (Spencer) Kibbe, was born, probably, in the Somers area, Connecticut. He married Ellen Pomeroy, and removed to New York City by 1859. In directories there he is listed as a broker, with residence at Delancey and West 48th Streets. In 1892 when the estate of his father was probated, the whereabouts of this son were unknown.

WILLIAM H. KIBBE[8](Thompson Prior[7],Judah[6],Peter[5],Elisha[4],Edward[3],Elisha[2],Edward[1]), son of Thompson Prior[7] and Catherine (----) Kibbe, was born ca. 1845, probably in Johnstown, Fulton County, New York. His wife, Lizzie, her surname not known, appears in the 1880 census for Johnstown. She was then aged 25, and William was aged 33, a photographer. William died in Johnstown, March 9, 1910.

Children of William H. Kibbe[8] and Lizzie (----) Kibbe:
1. Arthur F.

ALMON E. KIBBE8, son of Fonclair[7] and Cornelia A. (----) Kibbe, was born circa 1846, perhaps in Chautauqua County, New York. He is listed there in 1850. In 1870 Almon (or Almond) is given as a householder, aged 24, a carpenter. With him are, Mary, aged 17, housekeeper, and Franklin, aged 10 months. Thus it appears that Almon's first wife was named, Mary, and was, probably, the mother of his two children. In 1880 Almon and his daughter, Isabella, aged seven, were living in the same household with his brother, Duane, and wife, Lydia. That Almon made a second marriage is disclosed by cemetery records of Mayville, Chautauqua County. Here is the grave of Amourette S., 1848-1897, wife of Almon E. Kibbe. Almon died in Mayville, December 4, 1915, and is buried in Mayville Cemetery. Administration of his estate was granted his son-in-law, January 10, 1916.

Children of Almon E. Kibbe[8] and Mary (----) Kibbe:
1. Franklin F., 1869-1879
2. Isabella, 1873, m. George R. Pettit: lived Brocton, New York

DUANE L. KIBBE8, son of Fonclair[7] and Cornelia A. (----) Kibbe, was born circa 1852, in Chautauqua County, New York. He is listed with his father in the 1860 and 1870 census. In 1880 Duane, aged 28, a farmer, and his wife, Lydia, aged 21, were living in the household of his brother, Almon.

EDWIN A. KIBBE8, son of Fonclair[7] and Cornelia A. (----) Kibbe, was born in 1858, probably in Chautauqua, Chautauqua County, New York. In 1860 and 1870 he is listed in his father's household. Edwin and his wife, Lillie, aged 19, were living with Fonclair in 1880. He is listed as a jeweller. His gravestone is in the Mayville Cemetery, Chautauqua County. He died in 1908.

GEORGE KIBBE8, son of Martin[7] and Eleanor (Decker) Kibbe, was born circa 1855, probably in Johnstown, Fulton County, New York. He died in Amsterdam, Montgomery County, New York, in 1928. His will left everything to his sisters, Anna and Caroline, and since Anna was already dead, the estate went to Caroline. There is no indication that George ever married, or that he left any descendants.

ORA BUTLER KIBBE8, son of Ora[7] and Wealthy (Gowdey) Butler Kibbe, was born in East Windsor, Connecticut, November 25, 1813. He was married March 3, 1836, to Mary Maria Allen. She was born in 1816, the daughter of Harvey and Mary (Parsons) Allen. No record has been found of the death of Ora, but his wife died in East Windsor in 1891, her will being dated May 6, 1891.

Children of Ora Butler Kibbe[8] and Mary Maria (Allen) Kibbe:
1. James Allen, 1837, m. Mary Logan
2. Harvey Eugene, 1838, m. 1. 1859, Lydia Ann Jeannette Carew

RYLAND KIBBE8, son of Ora[7] and Wealthy (Gowdey) Butler Kibbe, was born about 1817, probably in Connecticut, before his parents moved to Ohio. His father is recorded in Farmington Township, Trumbull County, Ohio, in 1819. Since Ryland was a minor when his father died in 1830, Daniel Warner was appointed his guardian. It is believed that Warner was an uncle. Ryland married Mary Ann Ensign. His death, March 30, 1842, is reported in the Warren Tribune, April 19, 1842. In 1840 the census showed his family with a daughter and two sons. His widow, Mary Ann, was married June 14, 1844, to Wesley Jenkins. In 1850 the census gives her age as 32, and lists one son, eleven, living with her, and another, twelve, living in the home of Seba Ensign.

Children of Ryland Kibbe[8] and Mary Ann (Ensign) Kibbe:

1. Daughter
2. Charles, 1838 (perhaps the Charles H. who married July 3, 1861, Helen Day, and moved to Mitchell, South Dakota.)
3. Orman Z., 1839-1905, m. Caroline Vanderslip

JERVIS H. KIBBE8, son of Guy Kibbe[7], was born, probably, in New York State, and removed with his parents to Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, by 1828. Later he is believed to have moved to Michigan. He is called Doctor, is said to have married and had sons, and moved to Palmyra, Missouri, before the Civil War. On February 23, 1864, Mrs. Mary Kibbe was appointed to administer the estate of Jervis H. Kibbe in Marion County, Missouri, along with Mary Oldham, William Carson, and G. E. Pratt. Presumably this Mrs. Mary Kibbe was the widow of Jervis, and possibly the others were daughter and sons-in-law. There is listed a Jervis Kibbe as tavernkeeper in Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1820. Perhaps he was an uncle of this Jervis, and brother of Guy Kibbe[7].

BARTON WILLIAM KIBBE8, son of Guy Kibbe[7], was born about 1816, probably in New York State. He was the recipient of a bible inscribed: "Guy Kibby, Hamilton, Ontario, Canada, to son, Barton William Kibby, 1828". At that time the boy must have been about twelve years old. On January 22, 1841, Barton, aged 25, was married in Allegan, Allegan County, Michigan, to Hannah Starr, aged 16. The History of Allegan County says that Barton was a native of New York State, and Hannah Starr was a native of Ohio, both having emigrated to Michigan before their marriage. Barton is said to have died in 1852. In 1860 the census for Allegan shows four of the children of this couple living with Hannah Collins, aged 36, and born in Ohio. This seems to indicate that their mother had remarried, and was widowed, perhaps a second time.

Children of Barton William Kibbe[8] and Hannah (Starr) Kibbe:

1. Jervis H., 1843-1933, m. Lena Jane Updyke
2. William Bartlett, 1848-1922, m. 1870, Annis Squire or Squier

JOHN MORRISON KIBBE[8](Charles Wood[7],Joel[6],Charles[5],Elisha[4],Edward[3],Elisha[2],Edward[1]), son of Charles Wood[7] and Amelia (Morrison) Kibbe, was born in Somers, Connecticut, February 5, 1812. He married Martha Maria Graves of Sunderland, Massachusetts. She was born November 30, 1813, the daughter of Erastus and Rhoda (Rowe) Graves. The Graves family including their married children removed to Georgia, and settled near Macon. They maintained a summer residence in Brooklyn, New York. John M. Kibbe is listed in New York City directories from 1852 through 1857, a shoe merchant associated with the firm of Kibbee & Ball. In 1852 his home was in Orange, New Jersey, and in 1856, in Hoboken, New Jersey.

EDWARD HOPKINS KIBBE[8](Lyman Stokes[7],Joel[6],Charles[5],Elisha[4],Edward[3],Elisha[2],Edward[1]), son of Lyman Stokes[7] and Lydia (Howlett) Kibbe, was born in Ellington, Connecticut, April 3, 1817. In 1833 his parents removed to Bristol Township, Trumbull County, Ohio. Here he was married January 27, 1842, to Harriet N. Ballard[7]. She was born in Bloomfield, Ohio, in 1823, the daughter of Orin[6] and Margaret (Hillman) Ballard, formerly of Gill, Massachusetts. For some years this couple lived on a farm in Bristol Township, but late in life they removed to Lima, Ohio. Edward died July 5, 1878, and his widow died in 1912. They are buried in the cemetery at Bristolville, Ohio.

JAMES HUNTINGTON KIBBE[8] (Lyman Stokes[7], Joel[6], Charles[5], Elisha[4], Edward[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of Lyman Stokes[7] and Lydia (Howlett) Kibbe, was born April 28, 1822, in Tolland, Connecticut, and removed to Bristol Township, Trumbull County, Ohio, with his parents in 1833. His marriage to Jane Louise Hubbard of Middletown, is recorded in Connecticut, April 4, 1843. She was born September 2, 1821, the daughter of George and Electa (Bronson) Hubbard. In 1860 the census lists this couple in Warren Village, Trumbull County, and gives James' occupation as ex-merchant. At that time the widow of John Summerfield Kibbe, was living in James' household. Jane Louise died June 21, 1882.

HENRY MARTIN KIBBE8, son of Martin[7] and Sophronia (Giles) Kibbe, was born in Hardwick, Vermont, in 1826. He married, first, Maria R. Bovee, in Vermont. This couple removed to Farmington Township, Trumbull County, Ohio, some time after 1850. They are listed in Ohio in 1860. Henry served in the Civil War from West Farmington in Co. H, 171st Ohio Volunteer Infantry. Maria died in 1864. Henry was married, second, to Rachel M. Ballard, and she was his widow when he died in Farmington, November 15, 1908. Both Henry and Maria are buried in the West Farmington Cemetery in the plot of Austin Durkee Kibbe. It is, probably, Henry's son, William M., who is buried there with an undated stone marked W. M. Kibbe.

JOHN LORIN KIBBE8, son of Martin[7] and Sophronia (Giles) Kibbe, was born ca. April 3, 1831, in Hardwick, Vermont. He was married there, September 28, 1852, to Mary A. Hall. She was born July 29, 1832, the daughter of Asael and Rebecca (Mason) Hall. It is apparent from the birth record of their first child, that this couple went out to Warren, Trumbull County, Ohio. However they returned to Hardwick, and later children were born in Vermont. John Lorin is said to have been a veterinary surgeon in Hardwick. His wife, Mary, died in Hardwick, August 20, 1911, and John Lorin died there, February 12, 1916.

LOUIS N. KIBBE[8](Sylvester Noble[7],Timothy[6],Timothy[5],Elisha[4],Edward[3], Elisha[2],Edward[1]), son of Sylvester Noble[7] and Susan (----) Kibbe, was born about 1830/33, probably in Indiana. He was married, March 12, 1864, to Elizabeth Eckert, perhaps in Cincinnati, Ohio. She was born December 3, 1830, perhaps in Cincinnati. Her parents are said to have come from Wurtenburg, Germany. There is no further record of Louis, and beginning in 1876, Elizabeth is listed as a widow in city directories. Records in Cincinnati present a sordid picture of bastardy and miscellaneous marital alliances by the children of this couple. Elizabeth died September 26, 1913, aged 82 years, 9 months, and 23 days. She is buried in the Walnut Hills German Protestant Cemetery, Cincinnati.

ANTHONY KIBBE8, son of Israel[7] and Azuba (Root) Kibbe, was born May 17, 1826, in Arcade, Wyoming County, New York. He was married July 4, 1852, at West Point, Columbia County, Wisconsin, to Harriet Woodley, the Reverend Joseph Bowman officiating. Census records give her birthplace as Pennsylvania, and list Anthony as a miller by occupation. In 1860 they were living in Lodi, Columbia County, and he enlisted in the Civil War from Lodi, February 14, 1865. Anthony deserted near Omaha, Nebraska, August 30, 1865. He died in Hampton, Rankin County, Iowa, April 1, 1870. His widow and children appear in census records of 1870, and in 1880 were in Ingram Township, Franklin County, Iowa.

Anthony is said to have had a son, Ira, who was living in 1949, aged 96 years. Ira's son, Harold, and Harold's son, Leo, from Wisconsin, visited the Lumen Kibbes at Springville, New York, in 1950. Since no child named Ira is listed in any of the census records for this family, he must be the Anson, 1854/5, or does not belong to Anthony at all.

If it is proved that the Jairus Kibbe given in the Census of 1850 for Batavia, Genesee County, New York, was the son of Joseph[6] and Chloe (Green) Kibbe, then data on his sons should be given here. It is believed they were:

JARED G. KIBBE, born circa 1824, in New York State, a farm laborer, who with his wife, Laura, aged 23, and daughter, Maria V., 9 months, are given in the 1850 census as a separate household. Possibly his full name was Jared Green Kibbe.

HIRAM KIBBE, probably aged 20, was living with Jairus. It seems probable this is the Hiram or Hirian Kibbe whose descendants are given in the appendix as an unidentified line.

MARTIN V. KIBBE, aged 18, living with Jairus. Possibly this is the Martin Van Buren Kibbe listed in the appendix as an unidentified line.

If it is proved that the Jared Kibbe who died in Oswegatchie, St. Lawrence County, New York, in 1881, was a son of Joseph[6] and Chloe (Green) Kibbe, then data on his son should be given here:

PARKER KIBBE is named in the will of Jared Kibbe of St. Lawrence County, New York, in 1881. He was living in Ogdensburg, St. Lawrence County. His descendants are given in the appendix.

MARTIN KIBBE[8] (Martin[7], Asa[6], Asa[5], Israel[4], Edward[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of Martin[7] and Anna (Houck or Huyck) Kibbe, was born about 1809/10, probably in Herkimer County, New York, and accompanied his parents when they removed to Jefferson County, and later to Oswego County, New York. He is said to have married Abigail Jane Hall. She was born circa 1821, in New York State. This couple removed to Illinois about 1844. In 1850 the census records them in Warren County, Illinois, but no further record of them has been found.

Children of Martin Kibbe[8] and Abigail Jane (Hall) Kibbe:

1. Nelson, 1844-1875, m. 1869, Susan Evaline Hunt
2. Quincy, 1849/50
3. North

ABRIM C. or C. ABRIM KIBBE8, son of Martin[7] and Anna (Houck or Huyck) Kibbe, was born in Herkimer County, New York, February 26, 1814/16. He was married in Mexicoville, Oswego County, New York, in 1840, to Olive Tracy. In that year this couple removed to Kane County, Illinois. In 1850 the census for Dundee, Kane County, gives his age as 36, and his wife, Olive, as 30. His occupation is given as carpenter and joiner. Three children are listed in 1850, but in 1878 this couple are said to have two sons and two daughters living, and to have lost five other children. Names of some of their children are given below.

Children of Abrim C. Kibbe[8] and Olive (Tracy) Kibbe:

1. Ann, 1842
2. Clarence, 1847
3. Adeline, 1850
4. Eva, m. Ed Neill
5. Gene

ALMON M. or ALMOND M. KIBBE8, son of Martin[7] and Anna (Houck or Huyck) Kibbe, was born in New York State in 1818, possibly Herkimer County. It is believed his parents were living in Jefferson County in 1820, so he may have been born there, removing to Oswego County, New York, as they did, and then to Illinois. His first marriage is recorded at Geneva, Kane County, Illinois, October 29, 1846, to Caroline Adams. She was born in New York State, and died in Dundee, Kane County, circa 1858/9. Almond was married, second, May 29, 1865, to Mary J. Winder. She was born in England about 1844. Soon after their marriage, Almond sold the farm in Illinois, and moved by prairie schooner to Iowa, settling at Boone. From here he freighted merchandise to trading posts in the northwest. It is believed that Almond died in Boone about 1866, after which his widow moved to DeSoto, Iowa. His son, William, assumed responsibility for the widow and younger children. Mary died in Duarte, California, March 1, 1928, and is buried with other members of this family in Rose Hills Memorial Park, Whittier, California.

AUGUSTUS KIBBE[8] (Martin[7], Asa[6], Asa[5], Israel[4], Edward[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of Martin[7] and Anna (Houck or Huyck) Kibbe, was born about 1821, in New York State, probably in Jefferson County, and removed with his parents to Oswego County, and then to Illinois. He was married in Dundee, Kane County, Illinois, to Emily Mason. She was born circa 1823, in New York State, and died in Dundee in 1865. Augustus is listed as a farmer in the 1850 census for Kane County. He is buried in Boone, Iowa.

Children of Augustus Kibbe[8] and Emily (Mason) Kibbe:

1. Theodore Augustus, 1844-1914, m. 1880, Nellie Winship
2. Julia Melissa, 1848-1929, m. David Hall: no issue

GEORGE WASHINGTON KIBBE[8] (Asa[7], Asa[6], Asa[5], Israel[4], Edward[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of Asa[7] and Mary (Prindle) Kibbe, was born in Mexico, Oswego County, New York, February 22, 1817. He was married in 1839, to Emily Minerva Kenyon. She was born in Oswego County, June 29, 1821, the daughter of Stanton and Betsey (Calkins) Kenyon. At first this couple lived in Monroe County, New York. Sometime after 1843 they removed to Michigan, settling in Monterey Center, Allegan County. Here they were among the earliest settlers, and the first to build a home in 1847. George was a farmer, and operated a two-story hotel in Monterey for many years. He died in Monterey, June 14, 1883. His widow died in 1917.

Children of George Washington Kibbe[8] and Emily Minerva (Kenyon) Kibbe:

DELOS L. W. KIBBE8, son of Walter[7] and Lydia (Barber) Kibbe, was born December 24, 1830, in Herkimer County, New York. His first wife was Jenney Davey, and it is believed there were no children of this marriage. Delos was married, second, November 18, 1868, to Adelaide L. Reynolds. She was born July 24, 1848, the daughter of Isaac and Louisa (Buck) Reynolds of Shaftsbury, Vermont. This couple lived in Cedarville, Herkimer County, where Mr. Kibbe operated a general store. Adelaide died August 28, 1879, and her husband was married, third, to Clara (Myers) Fredericks, a widow with three children. These children assumed the Kibbe surname: Clarence F., 1872-1951; Lillian; and Warren J., 1876-1928. Delos died in Cedarville, February 27, 1890. His widow, Clara, died in Richfield, Otsego County, New York, December 6, 1895.

HENRY ALBERT KIBBE8, son of George[7] and Lomira Caroline (Richardson) Kibbe, was born in Hartford, Connecticut, May 8, 1854. He was educated in the Hartford schools, and in Wilbraham Academy, Wilbraham, Massachusetts. A serious minded and studious young man, Henry was deeply religious, and sang in the choir of the Methodist church in Hartford. He was married November, 1887, to Alice Louisa Cook. She was born April 4, 1861, the daughter of William and Ruth (Watson) Cook. Henry worked with his father in the building trade, and was a fine decorator and painter. When his father died suddenly, Henry completed the projects left unfinished in Longmeadow, Massachusetts. Later he had a paint store in Hartford, and still later was in business in Boston, Massachusetts. His wife, Alice, died in December, 1892, and is buried in Spring Grove Cemetery, Hartford. Henry died in 1925.

EDWARD L. KIBBE[9](Edward Hopkins[8],Lyman Stokes[7],Joel[6],Charles[5],Elisha[4],Edward[3],Elisha[2],Edward[1]), son of Edward Hopkins[8] and Harriet N. (Ballard) Kibbe, was born April 4, 1843, in Bristol, Trumbull County, Ohio. The eldest of six children, he worked on the family farm until of age. He became a travelling salesman, and worked in this capacity for about twelve years. Edward was married October 3, 1873, to Mary Collar. She was the daughter of Russell and Harriet (Mell) Collar, both natives of Canfield, Ohio. Soon after his marriage, Edward returned to Bristol Township, and engaged in farming and lumbering. He always took an active interest in community affairs, served in many town offices, and was interested in church and fraternal organizations. His wife, born in 1848, died in 1919. Edward died in 1925. They are buried in the cemetery at Bristolville, Ohio.

Children of Edward L. Kibbe[9] and Mary (Collar) Kibbe:

ISAAC KIBBE4, son of James[3] and Hannah (Kelsey) Kibbe, was born March 27, 1711/2, in Enfield, Connecticut. He was married there, July 5, 1744, to Deborah Meachum[4]. She was born September 2, 1723, the daughter of Ebenezer[3] and Mary (Adams) Meachum. Deborah died October 20, 1745, after the birth of her son. In 1746, Isaac married Eunice Miller of Springfield, Massachusetts, who died October, 1760. On November 12, 1760, Isaac was married, third, to Mary Hills[5] of Longmeadow, Massachusetts. She was the daughter of John[4] and Deliverance (Craw) Hills. This family removed to Loudon, Berkshire County, Massachusetts. Isaac is listed as a Revolutionary soldier from Otis and Tyringham, Massachusetts.

DANIEL KIBBE4, son of James[3] and Hannah (Kelsey) Kibbe, was born September 1, 1718/20, near Somers, Connecticut. He was married there, October 29, 1741/2, to Mary Pratt[4]. She was born October 3, 1721, the daughter of Ebenezer[3] and Mary (Wood) Pratt of Somers. Daniel had a saw and grist mill on a branch of the Scantic River. He served in the Revolutionary War, and became a respected and substantial citizen in his community. Mary died October 10, 1803, and Daniel died in Somers, December 15, 1810. They are buried in North Cemetery, Somers.

Children of Daniel Kibbe[4] and Mary (Pratt) Kibbe:

1. Daniel, 1742/3-1772

JAMES KIBBE[5] (James[4], James[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of James[4] and Anna (Kibbe) Kibbe, was born May 25, 1738, in the Enfield-Somers area, Connecticut. In operating a sawmill in Enfield, he floated logs down the Connecticut River. It was in this way, perhaps, that he met Elizabeth Dibble of Saybrook, Connecticut, to whom he was married November 18, 1762. During the Revolution James served in the forces sent to the defense of Boston, being stationed in Roxbury. It is said that his son, Josiah, aged twelve, accompanied his father in service. The twin sons were baptized in Saybrook, and thus avoided the church tax in Enfield. James, the father is believed to have died in Cambridge, Massachusetts, in 1788. Hemenway in the Gazeteer of Vermont says: "Josiah, James, and Ambrose Kibbe and their mother, came to Randolph". This move was accomplished in winter by ox-sled. In the cemetery at East Randolph, Vermont, is the grave of Elizabeth, who died February 6, 1805, aged 71 years.

Children of James Kibbe[5] and Elizabeth (Dibble) Kibbe:

1. James, 1763-1826, m. Mary or Polly Eddy
2. Josiah, 1763-1802, m. 1793, Abigail Cheney
3. Elizabeth, 1766

ELDAD KIBBE[5] (James[4], James[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of James[4] and Anna (Kibbe) Kibbe, was born November 9, 1740, near Somers, Connecticut. His marriage is recorded in Tyringham, Massachusetts, December 26, 1765, to Olive Stanton. She was, probably, the daughter of a Joseph Stanton. Connecticut records show that Eldad served in the colonial wars. He migrated into Berkshire County, Massachusetts, from Connecticut, and later into Vermont and upper New York State. Eldad Kibbe witnessed the will of Josiah Perry in Shaftsbury, Vermont, April 27, 1784, and in 1790 the census lists Eldad living in Ballston, then a part of Albany County, New York. At that time there were four persons in his household: one male over sixteen, one male under sixteen, and two females. Bible records filed in Hartford, Connecticut, give the death of Eldad Kibbe, August 16, 1820. It is believed he was living then in Palatine Bridge, Montgomery County, New York. No accurate or complete list of the children of Eldad Kibbe has been found.

Children of Eldad Kibbe[5] and Olive (Stanton) Kibbe:

1. Olive, m. Elizer Messenger: lived Chautauqua County, New York, 1836
2. Anna ?
3. Rhoda, 1770-1831, m. Job or Jobe Prince
4. Eldad, 1771/2-1857, m. Anna ----
5. James ?
6. Joseph Stanton, 1776/8-1850/3, m. 1. ---- ----
   2. Eleanor (Davidson) Stewart
7. Abiel, 1779-1867, m. 1. Zipporah Pratt
   2. Polly Rice

BILDAD KIBBE[5] (James[4], James[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of James[4] and Anna (Kibbe) Kibbe, was born October 3, 1745, near Somers, Connecticut. He was married there, September 9, 1784, to Azuba Pease. A Bildad Kibbe owned land in Randolph, Vermont, in 1785, but there is no evidence that he lived there. The Census of 1790 lists Bildad in Somers, with six persons in his household: one male over sixteen, one male under sixteen, and four females. In 1800 the census shows a Bildad Kibbe in Cambridge, Franklin County, Vermont, with eight in his family. It is believed to be this Bildad who died in Middlefield, Massachusetts, August 12, 1818. His will, signed March 2, 1815, mentions only his wife, his brothers and sisters, so it is assumed he left no descendants. It is, probably, his widow, Azuba, whose marriage in Middlefield is recorded in 1823, to Joseph Fuller of Somers.

SAMUEL KIBBE[5] (James[4], James[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of James[4] and Anna (Kibbe) Kibbe, was born May 21, 1753, near Somers, Connecticut. He was married April 11, 1778, to Rachel Hancock. She was born October 30, 1758, the daughter of Jabez and Rachel (Wright) Hancock. It is known that Jabez Hancock and many associated families removed to Paris, New York, and it is probable that Samuel Kibbe and his wife were of this group. No further record of them has been found.

Children of Samuel Kibbe[5] and Rachel (Hancock) Kibbe:
1. Salma, 1778
2. Assenath, 1780

JEDIDIAH KIBBE[5] (James[4], James[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of James[4] and Anna (Kibbe) Kibbe, was born December 25, 1755, near Somers, Connecticut. He was married October 8, 1778, to Lodice (Lydia or Louise) Corliss of Springfield, Massachusetts. She was born in 1757, and is said to have died March 8, 1834, aged 77 years. Jedidiah served as a private during the Revolution. He died January 28, 1834. From probate records involving this family it appears there was a son, Austin, and family associations with men named Sheldon, Durkee, and Button.

Children of Jedidiah Kibbe[5] and Lodice (Corliss) Kibbe:
1. Lodice, 1779
2. Lydia, 1779
3. Percey, 1781
4. Jedidiah, 1784-1865, m. 1. 1815, Caroline Field
   2. 1841, Martha Wakefield
5. Parley Addison, 1786-1839, m. 1810, Sarah Morehouse
6. Clary, 1788*
7. Lyman, 1794-1839, m. 1818, Polly Hall, d. 1826
8. Austin, m. 1830, Minerva Wood

* The Hartford Times Genealogical Page, March 1, 1947, suggests that Clary, 1788, child of Jedidiah Kibbe, could be Chauncey, 1788-1859, who married, first, Sally Chandler, and second, Lucretia Tiffany; lived in Woodstock, Connecticut, and died in Somers. Parentage of this Chauncey Kibbe uncertain. See appendix.

EBENEZER KIBBE5, son of Isaac[4] and Deborah (Meachum) Kibbe, was born February 11, 1745, in Somers, Connecticut, his mother dying soon after his birth. He removed to Berkshire County, Massachusetts, with his father, settling near Loudon. Here he was married to Abigail Sumner. She was born June 13, 1752, the daughter of Hezekiah and Desire (Higgins) Sumner who had come to Berkshire County from Middletown, Connecticut. There are said to have been fourteen children born to this couple; names of some who were, or could have been their children are given below. In 1790, Ebenezer Kibbe of Loudon is listed with ten persons in his household; three males over sixteen, three males under sixteen, and four females. It is this Ebenezer, probably, who is said to have died in Loudon in 1820.

Children of Ebenezer Kibbe[5] and Abigail (Sumner) Kibbe:

1. Isaac, m. 1788, Naomi Kibbe
2. Ebenezer, 1772-1857, m. Juda Harrington
3. William, 1773-1855/8, m. Olive Kibbe6
4. Abigail, m. 1792, Ebenezer Pease6
5. Joanna, m. 1789, Joseph Hills(John)
6. Desire or Desiah, m. 1796, David Loyd
7. Hezekiah, married and left descendants

SAMUEL KIBBE[5] (Isaac[4], James[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of Isaac[4] and Eunice (Miller) Kibbe, was born in Enfield, Connecticut, in 1759/60. It is believed he may be the Samuel who was married in 1779, to Mary Hank of Springfield, Massachusetts. A Samuel Kibbe, aged 21 years in 1780, served in the Revolution from the town of Sturbridge, Massachusetts. Descriptive rolls list him as dark complexioned, 5 feet and 7 inches in height, and a farmer. In 1790 the census gives a Samuel Kibbe in Longmeadow, Massachusetts, with nine in his household: one male over sixteen, four males under sixteen, and four females.

DANIEL KIBBE[5] (Daniel[4], James[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of Daniel[4] and Mary (Pratt) Kibbe, was born near Somers, Connecticut, and baptized November 3, 1745. He is said to have died April 27, 1772, perhaps a casualty of the Revolution. Whether he married is not known; possibly he was the father of the Daniel Kibbe, born 1765, who died in Randolph, Vermont, November 19, 1788, aged 23 years.

AMARIAH KIBBE5, son of Daniel[4] and Mary (Pratt) Kibbe, was born in 1747, in Somers, Connecticut. On June 30, 1775, he married Anna Buel. She was born in 1748, and died in 1777/8. Possibly she was the daughter of Joseph Buel. Amariah was married, second, to Hannah Kibbe[6], November 19, 1778. She was born in 1759/60, the daughter of Zerah[5] and Hannah (Bement) Kibbe. Amariah served in the Revolution and is called Captain. By trade he was a wheelwright and joiner. He owned considerable land, erected a grist mill, and a hotel. Hannah died in Somers, January 24, 1823, and is buried in North Cemetery, Somers. On May 4, 1825, Amariah married Maria Grover. She was his widow when he died October 5, 1829.

FREDERICK KIBBE5, son of Daniel[4] and Mary (Pratt) Kibbe, was born March 29, 1762, in Somers, Connecticut. He was married there, November 30, 1786, to Zelinda Pratt[5]. She was his cousin, and daughter of Ebenezer[4] and Zilpha (Wood) Pratt. Frederick was a farmer, land owner, cattle dealer, and operated a grist and saw mill. During the Revolution he served as a private. Zelinda died in Somers, August 2, 1838, aged 69, and Frederick died there, January 25, 1841, aged 79 years.

Children of Frederick Kibbe[5] and Zelinda (Pratt) Kibbe:

1. Silas, 1788-1855, m. Sally Watrous(Nathaniel)

DAVID KIBBE5, son of David[4] and Miriam (Kibbe) Kibbe, was born July, 1747, in Enfield, Connecticut. With his parents he removed to Berkshire County, Massachusetts. His service in the Revolution is listed in his pension record. Enlisting in 1776 with Massachusetts regiments he served eight months under Captain Dibble; in 1777 he served nine months under Captain Chadwick in Colonel Brewer's regiment; another six months during 1778; and in 1780 enlisted for three years in the 4th Massachusetts regiment commanded by Colonel Henry Jackson, serving first under Captain Joseph Fox, and later under Captain Mills. Discharged December 31, 1783, at West Point, his papers were signed by Major General Knox.

In 1790 the census lists David Kibbe, believed to be this man, as a resident of Queensbury, Washington County, New York. There were six persons in his household: two males over sixteen, one male under sixteen, and three females. Various interpretations may be made of this record. Perhaps there were four children and their parents, or there may have been two children, parents and grandparents, or three children, parents, and one grandparent.

It seems probable that this David Kibbe made two marriages, and children of his first marriage were grown and on their own before he made application for his pension, September, 1820. At that time he said he was a farmer, owned no land, was living on property through the charity of the owner, and was in financial need to help support his wife and six children. Between 1818 and 1820, David Kibbe is recorded living in Thurman and Johnsburgh, Warren County, New York. His pension names the six children and lists their ages.

At a later date this David Kibbe removed to Harrison Township, Potter County, Pennsylvania. Here he died January 15, 1838, and is buried there in the cemetery at White's Corner. His gravestone confirms his birth in Enfield, Connecticut. Next to the grave of David is that of Mary Kibbe, said to be his wife, who died February 11, 1835, aged 53 years and 4 months. She must have been the second wife of David, and mother of his younger children.

Children of David Kibbe[5] by a first marriage:
1. David, 1787-1873, m. Emily C. McNutt
? 2. Johanna, m. David West: to Waukesha, Wisconsin

STEPHEN KIBBE[5] (David[4], James[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of David[4] and Miriam (Kibbe) Kibbe, was born January 5, 1749, in Enfield, Connecticut, and removed to Berkshire County, Massachusetts, with his parents. From his pension papers it appears that he served in the Revolution almost continuously from the beginning of hostilities until the peace. He was with Arnold on the march to Quebec, and the siege of that city. There he was wounded, and afterwards had a brief respite for recovery. In his later service he was stationed near West Point, New York. A descriptive roll of 1780, says he was a laborer, dark complexioned, 5 feet 8 inches tall, and aged 30. In 1790 the census lists a Stephen Kibbe in Harlem, New York, with a household of six persons. From his pension application, made March 28, 1818, in Boston, Massachusetts, there is no indication that he ever married or had children. It is believed to be this Stephen Kibbe who died in Albany, New York, in 1829, where the records say: "Stephen Kibbe, aged 80, died ... Corporal ... 1829".

MOSES KIBBE[5] (David[4], James[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of David[4] and Miriam (Kibbe) Kibbe, was born August 26, 1752, and baptized in Enfield, Connecticut, September 6, 1752. He removed to Berkshire County, Massachusetts, with his parents. In 1777 he served as a private in Colonel Woodbridge's Massachusetts regiment. On the march to Ticonderoga he was suffering from smallpox, and unable to keep going. Abandoned, he would have perished but for friendly Indians who found and cared for him. From them he learned about medicinal herbs, and this knowledge was to make him valuable as a medical man, and scout for the Continental Army. Moses was married in Loudon, Berkshire County, March 14, 1779, to Mary Parrish. She was born in 1763, the daughter of Joshua and Phebe (----) Parrish of Loudon. After hostilities ceased this couple settled in Washington County, New York, and in 1790, Moses is listed in Westfield. His household consisted of four persons: one male over sixteen, one male under sixteen, and two females. Moses died in Fort Ann, New York, August 26, 1819, as the result of a fall from his horse. He is buried on his own farm at the foot of Kibbie Hill. A bronze marker was placed here in August, 1922, by the D. A. R. From probate records in Washington County, it is believed there were only two children. His widow, Mary, died in 1839.

JOHN KIBBE[5] (David[4], James[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of David[4] and Miriam (Kibbe) Kibbe, was born February 28, 1755, in Enfield, Connecticut. He removed to Berkshire County, Massachusetts, with his parents. John served in the Revolution from Berkshire County, as a private during several terms extending from July, 1775, to October, 1781, including the march to Kingsbury, Ticonderoga, Saratoga, Claverack, and Stillwater. On June 10, 1778, he was married in Loudon (now called Otis), Berkshire County, to Olive Parrish. She was born in 1759/60, in Philips Patent, New York, the daughter of Joshua and Phebe (----) Parrish. John and Olive died in Otis, and are buried there. Olive died February 10, 1838, and John died October 17, 1839.

Children of John Kibbe[5] and Olive (Parrish) Kibbe:

ELDAD KIBBE[6] (Eldad[5], James[4], James[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of Eldad[5] and Olive (Stanton) Kibbe, was born circa 1771, in Connecticut, and is believed to have removed to New York State with his parents. In 1810 the census for Montgomery County, New York, shows an Eldad Kibbe with twelve in his household. The Census of 1850 for Oppenheim, Fulton County, New York, lists Eldad and his wife, Anna. She was born circa 1779 in Massachusetts. Possibly her surname was Smith. The will of Eldad Kibbe was signed April 11, 1854, in Oppenheim, and a codicil added May, 1856. Eldad died in Salisbury, Herkimer County, New York, March 19, 1857, and his will was probated there. His son, Isaac, was named executor, and lists the heirs and their addresses at that time.

JOSEPH STANTON KIBBE6, son of Eldad[5] and Olive (Stanton) Kibbe, was born September 17, 1776. A record in Connecticut lists him as Stanton, 1778, but this may be a baptismal record. He accompanied his parents when they removed to New York State. On Christmas day, 1810, Joseph Stanton Kibbe was married at Skaneatales, Onondaga County, New York, to Eleanor (Davidson) Stewart, a schoolteacher. She was the widow of Lemuel Stewart of Williamstown, Massachusetts. Her father was Major Peter Davidson of Williamstown, and her mother before marrying Davidson had been the widow of Joseph Nichols, a Revolutionary War casualty. It is said this was a second marriage for Joseph, but neither he nor his wife had had children by their first marriages.

During the War of 1812, Joseph served as orderly sergeant under his brother-in-law, Captain Leonard Earle, in the 27th regiment of New York Volunteers. When Captain Earle was killed, Joseph and Eleanor adopted his son, and cared for him as their own child.

This family lived successively in Genesee, Wyoming, and Chautauqua Counties, New York. Joseph became Indian Agent for the Cattaraugus Indian Reservation at Findley Lake, Chautauqua County. The 1850 census lists

Joseph, 73, and Eleanor, 67, living in the household of their daughter, Cordelia M., in Mina, Chautauqua County. Joseph is said to have died April 28, 1853, and to be buried at Findley Lake.

Children of Joseph Stanton Kibbe[6] and Eleanor (Davidson) Stewart Kibbe:
1. Permelia,S., 1811, m. 1830, Philetus Smith
2. Cornelia Elizabeth, 1818-1862, m. 1835, Sidney Parke[8]

ABIEL KIBBE6, believed to be a son of Eldad[5] and Olive (Stanton) Kibbe, was born August 6, 1779, perhaps in Connecticut, and accompanied his parents when they removed to New York State. Earliest records of him are in Stratford, Fulton County, New York. His first wife was Zipporah Pratt, born circa 1783. She died in Stratford, June 24, 1851. Abiel was married, second, to Polly Rice. She was born circa 1788, and died July 25, 1863. Abiel died in Stratford, May 17, 1867. All three are buried in lot number 5 of the old part of Stratford Cemetery. The four children listed below are believed to have been sons of Abiel Kibbe, and probably there were other children.

Children of Abiel Kibbe[6] and Zipporah (Pratt) Kibbe:
1. Elisha D., 1812-1880, m. Hulda J. ----
2. Harvey P., 1814-1896, m. Rachel Cory

Data from Mrs. Eleanor (Gould) Foulk, Clyde, Ohio.

* Vital records of Connecticut list these marriages, and possibly these were the three daughters of Lyman Kibbe[6]:
Mary Ann Kibbe married 1844, Lyman L. Pease8
Clarissa Kibbe married 1850, Elijah Tarbell, or she may be the Laurinda Kibbe who married Amos Harvey, Jr.
Frances Kibbe married 1839, Henry A. Billings.

AUSTIN KIBBE6, son of Jedidiah[5] and Lodice (Corliss) Kibbe, was born near Somers, Connecticut, and married there, January 14, 1830, to Minerva Wood. She was, probably, the daughter of Charles and Minerva (Cooley) Wood. Her death is recorded in Somers in 1838. It seems probable that Austin remarried. Perhaps it is his second wife, Marcia E., who died July 18, 1881. The bondsmen for her estate were Austin Elliott Kibbe and Theodore Sheldon, Since the wife of Theodore Sheldon was Ellen C. Kibbe whom he married in 1862, it seems reasonable to believe Ellen may have been a daughter of Marcia E. and Austin Kibbe[6], and is so listed.

Children of Austin Kibbe[6] and Minerva (Wood) Kibbe:
1. Emeret, 1831
2. Calista A., 1834
3. Austin O., 1837-1838
4. Austin Elliott, 1838-1925, m. 1883, Sarah Olivia (Chapin) Buffington

Children of Austin Kibbe[6] and Marcia E. (----) Kibbe:
5. Ellen C., m. 1862, Theodore Sheldon

ISAAC KIBBE6, believed to be a son of Ebenezer[5] and Abigail (Sumner) Kibbe, appears in records of Otis, Massachusetts, when he married, June 16, 1788, Naomi Kibbe of Loudon. He is called Isaac Jr., and would have been the junior Isaac Kibbe in that community, since his grandfather, Isaac was living. It is assumed without proof that he and his bride were the parents of Sumner Kibbe, born in upper New York State, Jefferson County, November 2, 1788.

EBENEZER KIBBE6, son of Ebenezer[5] and Abigail (Sumner) Kibbe, was born in or near Loudon, Berkshire County, Massachusetts, February 27, 1772. He married Juda or Judith Harrington. She was born August 14, 1768, and died in South Hero, Vermont, February 27, 1851. Births of the first children born to this couple are recorded in Berkshire County, and later records of this family are in St. Albans and South Hero, Vermont, and in St. Lawrence County, New York. Bible records contributed by descendants, and probate records establish a complete list of their children and marriages. The parents both died in South Hero. Juda died in 1851, and Ebenezer died August 7, 1857, aged 85.

Children of Ebenezer Kibbe[6] and Juda (Harrington) Kibbe:

1. Linus, 1796-1882, m. Alzina Johnson
2. Luman, 1798-1869?, m. 1832, Sylvia Jordan
3. Alma or Abigal, or both, 1800-1803

WILLIAM KIBBE6, son of Ebenezer[5], and Abigail (Sumner) Kibbe, was born in Berkshire County, Massachusetts, March 11, 1773. He was living in Loudon, Berkshire County, when he was married March 22, 1798, to Olive Kibbe[6], She was born in Loudon, July 29, 1779, the daughter of John[5] and Olive (Parrish) Kibbe. Thirteen children are said to have been born to this couple. Births of five are recorded in Otis, formerly called Loudon, Berkshire County, and others who appear to have been the children of William and Olive are listed below. This William Kibbe served in the War of 1812. Late in life William removed to Potter County, Pennsylvania, settling in Bingham Township. Olive died there, December, 1847, and William died May, 1855/8. They are buried in Bingham Township.

Children of William Kibbe[6] and Olive (Kibbe) Kibbe:

1. Roena, 1798
2. John, 1799, m. 1. ---- ----
   2. Wilhelmina or Wilma ----
3. Levi, 1800, m. Nancy ----
4. Hezekiah, 1801/2-1876, m. 1. Martha ----, d. 1834
   2. Lucy ----, d. 1874
5. Mary or Polly, 1803
6. Abigail, 1805-1880, m. William Howe
7. Delilah, 1808, m. John L. Rooks

8. William Sumner, 1809, m. Molena Moats
9. Ira
10. James, 1814-1874, m. Dorcas Brown
11. Truman, 1816-1909, m. 1. Julia Pierce

HEZEKIAH KIBBE6, son of Ebenezer[5] and Abigail (Sumner) Kibbe, was born circa the 1770's, in Berkshire County, Massachusetts. He is, perhaps, the Hezekiah Kibbe listed in Adams County, Mississippi, in 1820, and listed in Madison County in 1830. The 1820 census suggests four sons and three daughters, and in 1830 there were three sons and two daughters still at home. Madison County records the estate of Hezekiah Kibbe, December 4, 1835. On July 28, 1837, Isabella Kibbe was administrator of this estate, but her relationship to the deceased is not known.

Probable children of Hezekiah Kibbe[6]:
1. George W., m. 1832, Tennessee Curtis
2. Margaret, m. 1835, James Davis
3. Jeremiah, m. 1833, Caroline I. Keith

Reference: Data from Lars Sjodahl, Cincinnati, Ohio, including census records, marriage and probate records from Adams and Madison Counties, Mississippi.

ELEAZER KIBBE6, possibly a son of Ebenezer[5] and Abigail (Sumner) Kibbe, appears in vital records of Sandisfield, Berkshire County, Massachusetts. It has been suggested that Eleazer and Ebenezer were one and the same person, rather than father and son. If so, the wife, Timnah, was the wife of a second marriage of Ebenezer. There is no death record for Eleazer, but Timnah died in Sandisfield, June 29, 1833, aged 76 years.

Children of Eleazer Kibbe[6] and Timnah (----) Kibbe:
1. Mathew, b. January 14, 1799
2. Achsah Maria, 1801-1878, m. 1821, Joshua Claflin, 1798-1823; removed to Summit, Wisconsin.
3. Loielle, b. March 10, 1803

LUCIUS KIBBE6, son of Amariah[5] and Anna (Buel) Kibbe, was born in Somers, Connecticut, October 3, 1776. Records of Pittsfield, Vermont, indicate he was there in the 1790's. The History of Vermillion County, Indiana, says Lucius was taken prisoner by the British, and carried to Canada. After his release he migrated to Indiana in the early 1800's. His first wife was named Elizabeth, as shown by a deed of February 1, 1814. It is believed she was born in Ohio, and died in Vermillion County before November, 1814, and is buried there. Her surname before marriage is not known. During the War of 1812, Lucius served in the 2nd and 4th Regiments of Indiana Militia. In 1814 he was engaged in ship building in Tennessee. Records of Jefferson County, Kentucky, show a marriage license issued, November 26, 1814, for Lucius Kibbe and Emily Taylor of Louisville, Kentucky. She was born about 1796, the daughter of Absalom Taylor. This couple returned to Indiana, and settled in Parke County. About 1834, they moved further west, living temporarily in Clark County, Illinois, and finally reached Dubuque County, Iowa. Here Lucius died May 12, 1849. In his will of 1848, he named only the children of his second marriage. By 1851 his widow was living in Delaware County, Iowa, and in that year applied for bounty land.

Children of Lucius Kibbe[6] and Elizabeth (----) Kibbe:
1. Alexander, ca. 1802, m. 1828, Martha Morris
2. Josiah, 1806-1843, m. Sarah Driver, 1814-1880
3. Eliza
4. Thomas, 1810-1889, m. 1833, Jane Vannest
5. Lucius, 1812-1880, m. 1. Lettie Boucher
2. Hannah (Dodd) Miller

Children of Lucius Kibbe[6] and Emily (Taylor) Kibbe:
6. Amariah, believed to have married and left issue
7. Mary Ann, 1817, m. 1834, David Lovelace
8. William (perhaps the William who married Barbara Halbert and Nancy Smith: see appendix)
9. Matilda Ann, m. 1840, John DeLong
10. Emily Ann, m. 1845, David S. Way
11. James Madison, d. 1849, m. Matilda ----

AMARIAH KIBBE6, son of Amariah[5] and Hannah (Kibbe) Kibbe, was born February 14, 1780, in Somers, Connecticut. He was married August 29, 1799, to Charlotte McKinney of Ellington, Connecticut. She was born October 22, 1783, and died November 13, 1860. Amariah was a member of the Congregational Church, a farmer, and merchant. He operated a general store, and hotel in Somers. Amariah earned six military commissions, distinctions received during the War of 1812, and after, and was called General Amariah Kibbe. He died June 23, 1840, and is buried in North Cemetery, Somers.

WALTER RALEIGH KIBBE6, son of Amariah[5] and Hannah (Kibbe) Kibbe, was born September 18, 1781, in Somers, Connecticut. He was married, first, about 1802/3, to Deborah Paine. Born in 1784, Deborah died November 21, 1832, aged 48. On September 28, 1833, Walter married Sabrina Morton. She was admitted to the church in Somers from Williston, Vermont. Her death is listed February 26, 1840, aged 46. Walter's third marriage, May 27, 1841, was to Hannah (Warner) Brown. She was born in 1799/1800, the daughter of Daniel and Hannah (Russell) Warner. After her death in 1856, Walter was married, fourth, to Flenda Fenton. She was born in 1802, the daughter of Elijah and Ruby (Anderson) Fenton. Flenda was admitted to the church in Somers, September 5, 1858, from Ashford, Connecticut. When Walter died, April 22, 1864, Flenda was his widow. He was buried in North Cemetery, Somers, as were his first three wives. Walter was a graduate in 1804 of Yale University; was admitted to the bar in Tolland County in 1807; served as Representative for several terms; was Senator in 1832; Probate Judge for ten years; and postmaster from 1821 to 1828.

ORRIN KIBBE6, son of Lemuel[5] and Love (Pearson) Kibbe, was born in Somers, Connecticut, in 1790. His first wife was Charity Winchell, who died April 9, 1853, in her 68th year. She was born in Turkey Hills, Barkhamsted, Connecticut, the daughter of Oliver and Charity (Easton) Winchell. After Charity died, Orrin married Eliza J. C. Taylor. Eliza died January 18, 1861, and is buried in Skunkamaug Cemetery, Tolland, Connecticut. When Orrin died, April 9, 1865, he was buried beside his first wife in North Cemetery, Somers.

Children of Orrin Kibbe[6] and Charity (Winchell) Kibbe:

1. Mary Catherine, 1819-1845, m. 1843, Alonzo Field Kibbe[7](Jedidiah[6], Jedidiah[5],James[4],[3],Elisha[2],Edward[1])

SILAS KIBBE6, son of Frederick[5] and Zelinda (Pratt) Kibbe, was born March 29, 1788, in Somers, Connecticut. He was married by 1815, to Sally Watrous. She was born in 1794, the daughter of Nathaniel and Olive (----) Watrous. Silas was a farmer, lived in the Somers area, and worked also in his father's saw and grist mill. He died in Somers, March 2, 1855. His widow died in 1868. They are buried in North Cemetery, Somers.

Children of Silas Kibbe[6] and Sally (Watrous) Kibbe:

DAVID KIBBE6, son of David[5] and his first wife, is said to have been born in New York State in 1787. Census records in Harrison Township, Potter County, Pennsylvania, where he was living in 1850, 1860, and 1870, confirm this. It has been assumed by descendants that he was the son of David Kibbe[5], since both men settled in Harrison Township, and came from Washington County, New York, about the same time. Genealogies of Northern Pennsylvania suggests this man was descended from Moses Kibbe[5], but this account is so obviously confused that little credence need be given it. During the War of 1812, this David Kibbe served as a private in the 7th Regiment of New York Militia. His wife was Emily C. McNutt, a native of New Hampshire, born about 1799. This family came from New York State to Harrison Township, Potter County, Pennsylvania, about 1833. Mrs. Kibbe died April 30, 1859, aged 59 years, 8 months, and 20 days. The Census of 1860 shows a Mary Kibbe, born in New York State circa 1793, living in the household of David Kibbe. Whether she was a sister of David, or a second wife, is not known. David died in Harrison Township, June 1, 1873. Both he and Emily are buried in the cemetery at White's Corner. David's gravestone gives his birth as January 1, 1792, a discrepancy of five years which cannot be explained.

Children of David Kibbe[6] and Emily C. (McNutt) Kibbe:

1. Sarah, 1823/4-d. after 1860, m. Jonas Youker
2. John (perhaps the John J., 1825, with son, James E.)
3. David, 1827-1865, m. Cornelia ----
4. Thomas J., 1830/1-1912, m. 1851, Dorcas Cotton(Joseph)
5. Mary Jane, 1833, m. William Bailey
6. Elijah A., 1835; probably Allen E., m. Lorana ----
7. Louise Melissa, 1840-1898
8. James H., 1844, m. Martha Ann Dibble
9. Emily C., 1846, m. Samuel Belcher

MOSES KIBBE6, son of David[5] and Mary (----) Kibbe, was born in Washington or Warren County, New York, about 1814. He removed to Potter County, Pennsylvania, with his parents. In 1850 he is listed with his wife, Maranda, and children in Harrison Township, Potter County. In 1860 this family is listed in Oswayo Township, Potter County.

Children of Moses Kibbe[6] and Maranda (----) Kibbe:

1. Mary A., ca. 1840
2. Jonathan, ca. 1844
3. Moses D., ca. 1847
4. Sophonia, ca. 1850
5. David, ca. 1855-1907

JAMES KIBBE6, son of David[5] and Mary (----) Kibbe, was born in Washington or Warren County, New York, about 1814, and may have been a twin to Moses. In applying for a pension his father said James was the same age as Moses. However the census records suggest that James was born in 1816. It is believed he removed to Potter County, Pennsylvania, with his parents, and was married to Sally Clark. She was born in New York State, June 28, 1818. Their family is listed in 1850 in Ulysses Township, and in 1860 in Alleghany Township, both in Potter County. Sally is believed to have died April 24, 1892. Her grave, overgrown with weeds, is in the Old Hallock Burying ground near Ulysses, Pennsylvania. If James is buried there no stone marks the grave. Possibly it was this James Kibbe whose death in Bingham Township, Potter County, is listed March 1, 1871.

Children of James Kibbe[6] and Sally (Clark) Kibbe:

1. Betsey M., ca. 1841
2. Sabra Jane, ca. 1844
3. Emily Eliza, ca. 1846
4. Martha Ann, ca. 1847
5. Speedy M., ca. 1849, probably died before 1860
6. Mary Minerva, ca. 1854

ELI KIBBE6, son of David[5] and Mary (----) Kibbe, was born June 26, 1816, in Washington or Warren County, New York, and removed to Potter County, Pennsylvania, with his parents. He was married about 1841, to Nancy Namoura Byam. Her birthdate is given as April 28, 1819, by descendants, although the 1850 census for Ulysses Township, Potter County, lists her age as 27, born in New York State. This family moved westward in 1856, and settled on Salt Creek, a mile west of Osage City, Kansas. When Eli died at his home, November 3, 1880, the Free Press of Osage City reported him as one of the oldest citizens of the county, and one of it's first settlers. His widow, Nancy, died June 2, 1883, her funeral held at the city cemetery, Osage City.

Children of Eli Kibbe[6] and Nancy Namoura (Byam) Kibbe:

1. James Henry, 1842-1917, m. 1. Hannah Martin
   2. 1880, Charity Cooper
2. George Washington, 1845-1893, m. 1870, Mary Sarah Galutia
3. Ellen, 1847-1870
4. Elias, 1850-1850
5. Elymus, 1850-1937, m. Evelyn Elizabeth Galutia
6. Garea, 1856-1867

7. Mary 1861-1880, m. Lue Martin
8. Martha, 1861-1861
9. Nancy Martha, 1862-1880
10. Sally Emily, 1864-1903, m. Frank Clifford; lived Kokomo, Indiana; 3ch.

MOSES KIBBE6, son of Moses[5] and Mary (Parrish) Kibbe, was born, probably, in the early 1780's, perhaps in Washington County, New York. In the Surrogate's office of Washington County, is a petition, dated January 24, 1829, filed by Ebenezer White, stating that he is a brother-in-law of Moses Kibbe, and asking that John Hillebert, Jr., be appointed to administer Moses' estate. This petition states that Moses Kibbe was a resident of Fort Ann, New York, but that he died in Whitehall, New York, November 10, 1828, leaving no will. Lucy Gillet and Mary Kibbe relinquished their rights as next of kin to the deceased, and also requested the appointment of Hillebert. Since Lucy (Kibbe) Gillet was the daughter of Moses[5] and Mary (Parrish) Kibbe of Fort Ann, it seems probable that this Moses Kibbe who died in 1828, is her brother. The Mary Kibbe mentioned as next of kin, could have been Mary (Parrish) Kibbe, his mother, who was living then, or the widow of Moses whose surname before marriage is assumed to have been White. No children of the deceased are mentioned.

References: Census, 1790, Washington County, New York, suggests the existence of a son for Moses Kibbe[5].

JOSHUA KIBBE6, son of John[5] and Olive (Parrish) Kibbe, was born in Otis, Berkshire County, Massachusetts, June 2, 1785. He was married at New Lebanon, New York, February 22, 1815, to Anna Walker of Becket, Berkshire County, Massachusetts. They removed westward, and are known to have lived at Lexington, Greene County, New York. Deeds show the purchase of land in Litchfield, Medina County, Ohio, in 1840. Joshua died in Litchfield, in 1845.

Children of Joshua Kibbe[6] and Anna (Walker) Kibbe:

1. Amos J., 1816, m. 1. 1834, Susan Malinda Benjamin

MOSES KIBBE6, son of John[5] and Olive (Parrish) Kibbe, was born January 1, 1787, in Otis, Berkshire County, Massachusetts. It is said he removed to Whitehall, Washington County, New York. It is believed to be his estate which was administered by his only son, George W., after the death of Moses Kibbe in Whitehall, September 11, 1862. Prudence, the widow of Moses, died before January 10, 1866, the date when the estate was finally settled.

Children of Moses Kibbe[6] and Prudence (----) Kibbe:

1. George W., of Whitehall, New York
2. Julia A., m. ---- Wright; lived Whitehall

JOHN KIBBE6, son of John[5] and Olive (Parrish) Kibbe, was born December 31, 1788, in Otis, Berkshire County, Massachusetts. He is said to have married Martha Jane Ranney, and removed to Canada where he died in 1839. The Ontario Register lists two Kibbe men from Shannonville in the Hastings militia, October 18, 1834. They were John Kibbe, aged 40/46, and Orrin, 17 years. This Orrin could have been the son of this John Kibbe, or of his brother, David Kibbe[6].

DAVID KIBBE6, son of John[5] and Olive (Parrish) Kibbe, was born August 29, 1795, in Otis, Berkshire County, Massachusetts. His marriage is recorded in Otis in 1819, to Susannah Snow of Tolland, Connecticut. She was the daughter of James and Grace (----) Snow. The first child of this couple is recorded as born in Tolland. David is said to have died in Otis, June 11, 1872, and his widow died July 20, 1874. They are buried in Otis. David left a will, dated May 15, 1869, in which he named the following children.

Children of David Kibbe[6] and Susannah (Snow) Kibbe:
1. Orrin Eli, 1819, m. Sarah ----
2. Mary Elizabeth, 1821, m. ---- Clark
3. John Millard, 1823, probably married Maria L. Jones

JAMES KIBBE7, son of James[6] and Mary (Eddy) Kibbe, was born October 21, 1798, as recorded in Randolph, Vermont. It is believed to be this James Kibbe whose wife in 1830 was Sarah Hudson, and who was living then in Morristown, Vermont. Later records suggest this may be the James Kibbe whose estate was probated in Strafford, Vermont, August 12, 1876, and whose widow was Chloe. The estate of Chloe was recorded in Tunbridge, Vermont, July 6, 1891. In the Strafford cemetery located in the village there are gravestones with these inscriptions: "James Kibbee, d. Oct. 10, 1875, aged 78" and "Chloe Kibbee, d. July 3, 1891, aged 80/83". Only one child is known to be the child of James and Sarah, but perhaps there were others.

Children of James Kibbe[7] and Sarah (Hudson) Kibbe:
1. Milton Marcellus, 1830-1906, unmarried

JOSIAH KIBBE7, son of Josiah[6] and Abigail (Cheney) Kibbe, was born in Randolph, Vermont, April 25, 1797. He was married, first, in Tunbridge, Vermont, April 8, 1819, to Laura Bundy. She was born October 13, 1800, in Thompson, Connecticut, the daughter of Benjamin and Perninah (Wright) Bundy, who had removed to Tunbridge. This couple lived in the Randolph-Brookfield area, and later removed to Morristown, Vermont. There Josiah built a new, brick house, and it is said that he changed the spelling of his name to Kibby. Family tradition says he ordered a brass name plate for the new house in Morristown, and when it was received the inscription had been mis-spelled. Rather than not use it, or order a new one, Josiah decided to change the spelling of his name. Some of his children adopted the new spelling of the surname, and others retained the old. Laura died in Morristown, October 6, 1831, and is buried there. Josiah was married, second, in Brookfield, Vermont, January 20, 1835, to Lora (Abbott) Perigo. She was born October 12, 1802, and was the widow of Lewis Perigo. Josiah died April 7, 1883, and his widow died October 14, 1884. They are buried at East Randolph, Vermont, where the Kibbe-Kibby monument carries the names of all his children even though some of them are not buried there.

PEARLY CHANDLER KIBBE7, son of Ambrose[6] and Dolly (Follansbee) Kibbe, was born October 23, 1807, in Randolph, Vermont. He was married there, March 29, 1831, to Lucinda Waldo. She was born in East Randolph, May 5, 1811, the daughter of Abner and Sally (Goss) Waldo. This couple removed to Briggsville, Wisconsin, in 1855. Mr. Kibbe was a farmer. While on a visit to Randolph, Mrs. Kibbe died September 14, 1872. She was buried at East Randolph where were buried her daughters, Sarah and Fannie. Pearly Chandler died in Janesville, Wisconsin, February 25, 1879.

Children of Pearly Chandler Kibbe[7] and Lucinda (Waldo) Kibbe:

MOSES CLARK KIBBE7, son of Ambrose[6] and Dolly (Follansbee) Kibbe, was born in Randolph, Vermont, August 17, 1809, and died in Troy, New York, May 11, 1841. Surviving him were his widow, Louisa M., and their daughter, Louisa M. His widow married Hiram Bassett, and removed to Allegan County, Michigan. Here on August 3, 1846, she petitioned for the appointment of Osmand Smith as guardian of her daughter, then a minor aged ten years, one month, and twenty-three days. She also asked that as widow of Moses Clark, she be appointed to administer the estate of her late husband.

BENJAMIN PORTER KIBBE7, son of Ambrose[6] and Dolly (Follansbee) Kibbe, was born July 28, 1813, in Randolph, Vermont. He is said to have gone to Michigan in 1836, and returned to Vermont for his marriage in Chelsea, October 4, 1838. His wife was Frances Sophia Dickinson[7], born February 8, 1819, the daughter of Joshua[6] and Prudence (Fuller) Dickinson. In 1850 they were living in Clinton, Macomb County, Michigan. Porter B. Kibbe, as he was known in Michigan, was the Commissioner of the State Land Office, 1851-1854; served two terms as Judge of Probate for Macomb County; was president of the Bank of Macomb County in 1858; and for many years was in the milling business with his brother, Henry Clinton Kibbe. This family removed from Mt. Clemens, Macomb County, to Detroit, Michigan. There Fannie died December 14, 1865, aged 46. Porter died in Detroit, November 23, 1888, aged 75.

Children of Benjamin Porter Kibbe[7] or Porter B. Kibbe[7] and Frances Sophia (Dickinson) Kibbe:

1. Edward Porter, 1839
2. Frances G., 1841/3, m. Richard G. Elliott

HENRY CLINTON KIBBE7, son of Ambrose[6] and Dolly (Follansbee) Kibbe, was born October 22, 1818, in Randolph, Orange County, Vermont, and went to Michigan about 1839. In 1844 he was in the milling business in Mt. Clemens, Michigan, and also had a lumber business in partnership with his brother, Porter B. Kibbe. He was contractor for the Erie and Kalamazoo Canal in 1847; contractor for the Buffalo and Blackwell Canal Company, New York, in 1849. In 1850 the census shows him in the household of his brother, Porter, in Clinton, Macomb County, Michigan. He was a Senator from the first district in 1851; had a lumber firm, Kibbee, Fox & Company; was cashier of the First National Bank of Detroit in 1863; later was pension agent, and associated with several banking businesses in Detroit. During the Civil War he is said to have secured horses for the army. Henry died in Detroit, April 7, 1893, aged 75. No record of marriage or children has been found, so it is assumed he died without issue.

JARED KIBBE[7] (Ambrose[6], James[5], James[4], James[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of Ambrose[5] and Dolly (Follansbee) Kibbe, was born November 14, 1820, in Randolph, Orange County, Vermont. He removed to Michigan about 1844, settling in Mt. Clemens, Macomb County. In 1847 he began the study of dentistry, and graduated in 1855, from Cleveland, Ohio, Medical School. He began his practise in Port Huron, Michigan. Here he served as mayor in 1866, as Justice of the Peace, Alderman, and City Comptroller. Jared was a member of the Masonic Lodge, and vestryman of Grace Protestant Episcopal Church. He was married March 23, 1852, to Frances Eddy Gillingham of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. She was born in 1827, the daughter of Samuel Harrold and Lucy Lewis (Eddy) Gillingham. Dr. Jared Kibbe died in Port Huron, December 1, 1890, and his widow died in 1896.

Children of Jared Kibbe[7] and Frances Eddy (Gillingham) Kibbe:
1. Ada Follingsbee, 1852, m. 1876, Theodore Wright
2. Lucy Eddy, 1854
3. Samuel Harrold, 1856-1880
4. Henry Clinton, 1859, m. 1888, Louise Halbig

JOHN KIBBE7, son of Eldad[6] and Anna (----) Kibbe, was born circa 1797, in New York State, possibly Montgomery County. In 1850 he is listed in Oppenheim, Fulton County, New York. His wife, Ann Eliza, was born circa 1808, survived him, and petitioned for administration of his estate, July 3, 1863, in Fulton County. Petitions for Letters of Administration for the estate of Ann Eliza were filed in Fulton County, in May, 1870. Possibly the Margaret Higbie, 89, born in Scotland, and Edson Higbie, 62, born in New York State, who are listed in the household of John and Ann Eliza in 1860, were the mother and brother of Ann Eliza.

Children of John Kibbe[7] and Ann Eliza (----) Kibbe:

1. Child, d. 1831
2. George Irving, 1834, m. Harriet A. ----
3. Margaret Ann, 1838, m. Sherman Eugene Whitney
4. John Marcy, 1843-1863/70
5. Cordelia, 1846/7

DAVID KIBBE7, son of Eldad[6] and Anna (----) Kibbe, was born in New York State, probably Montgomery County. He and two sons are named in the will of his father, Eldad Kibbe[6], so he may be assumed to have been living April 11, 1854, when the will was written. However when the estate was administered and Heirs-at-law listed, April 20, 1857, this David is not named, nor are his two sons, Jerome and Adison. To whom he was married is not known, whether there were other children, nor why he is not listed among the heirs. A David Kibbe is listed as a householder in Salisbury, Herkimer County, in 1820, with four persons; two males over 16, and two females over sixteen. In 1840 a David Kibbe is listed in Oppenheim, Fulton County, New York, with wife and three children under ten.

Children of David Kibbe[7]:

1. Jerome (could this be the Jerome Kibbe, 1831/41-1908, who married Amelia B. Coats? See appendix.)
2. Adison

NATHANIEL SMITH KIBBE7, son of Eldad[6] and Anna (----) Kibbe, was born circa 1802, in New York State, probably Montgomery County. In the Census of 1850, 1860, and 1870, he is listed as a farmer in Oppenheim, Fulton County, New York. He married Deborah Osterhout. She was born May 12, 1819, and died January 24, 1864, aged 44 years, 8 months, and 12 days. After his wife's death, Smith Kibbe was living with his daughter, Mary, in 1870.

Children of Nathaniel Smith Kibbe[7] and Deborah (Osterhout) Kibbe:

1. Charles A., 1842-1925, m. 1868, Margaret M. Stewart
2. Mary E., 1844-1915, m. Alexander Potter
3. Chauncey Smith, 1847-1927, m. Estella M. Jackson
4. George, 1853, m. Martha ----

THOMAS VOLNEY KIBBE7, son of Eldad[6] and Anna (----) Kibbe, was born in New York State, probably in Montgomery County. He is named in the will of his father in April, 1854, and was among the heirs listed in 1857. At that time he was living in or near Fonda, Montgomery County.

AMARIAH KIBBE7, son of Eldad[6] and Anna (----) Kibbe, was born circa 1805/6, in New York State, probably in Montgomery County. He married Sarah Louise Spofford[7]. She was born in 1811, the daughter of John D.[6] and Delilah (Utter) Spofford of Montgomery and Herkimer Counties, New York. In 1850 the census lists this couple and their six children in New Haven, Oswego County, New York. Amariah died in New Haven, November 5, 1872. His will was probated March 28, 1873, with his son, William S., as one of the executors. His widow, Sarah, survived him, and was living still in 1880.

Children of Amariah Kibbe[7] and Sarah Louise (Spofford) Kibbe:

1. John M., ca. 1831, m. Effie ----
2. Ellen A., ca. 1833, m. ---- Burlingham
3. William S., ca. 1835-1909, probably unmarried
4. Juliette, ca. 1837, m. G. Larkin
5. Amos N., ca. 1838/9, a Civil War casualty, probably unmarried
6. Pembroke, ca. 1841

ISAAC S. KIBBE7, son of Eldad[6] and Anna (----) Kibbe, was born in New York State, probably Montgomery County, circa 1808. In 1857 he was living in Salisbury, Herkimer County, New York, and was named executor of his father's estate. He is listed in Salisbury in 1860, his aged given as 32, but it is believed this was a misprint for 52. Isaac died in August, 1870, in Salisbury. His will, dated November 29, 1866, with a codicil added in 1868, was probated August 22, 1870. He names his wife, Hannah, and speaks of his children but does not name them. The petition for proof of will lists the widow and two children. A third child was named in the will of Eldad Kibbe, and a fourth is listed in the 1860 census. Hannah was born ca. 1819, and was aged 41 in 1860.

Children of Isaac S. Kibbe[7] and Hannah (----) Kibbe:

1. Eugene, mentioned in the will of Eldad Kibbe
2. Ellen E., m. ---- Allsworth
3. Arthur Delos, 1842/3-1928, m. Mary Alice Vosburg
4. Virginia L., 1844/5, shown in 1860 census

NELSON J. KIBBE7, son of Eldad[6] and Anna (----) Kibbe, was born circa 1812, in New York State, probably in Montgomery County. In 1841 he married Angeline Kelsey. She was born in 1814, the daughter of Peter[5] and Catherine (Jennings) Kelsey. This couple lived in Mexico, Oswego County, New York. In 1850 the census for Mexico lists Nelson as a hotel keeper. He died in Mexico, January 22, 1852. His widow and their three daughters are listed in 1860, and were named in estate records of Eldad Kibbe in 1857.

Children of Nelson J. Kibbe[7] and Angeline (Kelsey) Kibbe:
1. Ophelia Ann, 1843, m. 1874, Albert Newton
2. Mary Jane, 1845/6, m. John Mellon
3. Myrtis Imogene, 1848, m. John Hill

JOSEPH C. KIBBE7, son of Eldad[6] and Anna (----) Kibbe, was born circa 1818, in New York State, probably in Montgomery County. In 1850 he is listed with his parents in Oppenheim, Fulton County, New York. He was living in Johnstown, Fulton County, in 1860 and 1870. His occupation is given as liveryman and retired farmer. Jane M., his wife, was born circa 1837. Possibly it is her parents, John and Olive or Alice (----) Hillibrat, who were living in the same household in 1870.

Children of Joseph C. Kibbe[7] and Jane M. (----) Kibbe:
1. Harriet, ca. 1853
2. Franklin, ca. 1857, probably d.y.
3. Ann B., ca. 1863

ELISHA D. KIBBE[7]Abiel[6],Eldad[5],James[4],James[3],Elisha[2],Edward[1]), son of Abiel[6] and Zipporah (Pratt) Kibbe, was born about 1812, probably in New York State. In the 1860's Elisha is listed in Herkimer County, and was a farmer in Salisbury Center. He died November 12, 1880, and his wife, Huldah, died May 7, 1880. The estate of Huldah was probated in Herkimer County. Both Huldah and Elisha are buried in the old part of Stratford cemetery, Fulton County, New York.

Children of Elisha D. Kibbe[7] and Huldah J. (----) Kibbe:
1. James G., 1836-1847
2. Delia Ellen, ca. 1851, m. ---- Nellis
3. Huldah, 1854-1854

HARVEY P. KIBBE7, son of Abiel[6] and Zipporah (Pratt) Kibbe, was born in New York State, January 10, 1814, probably in Fulton County. He married Rachel Cory who was born February 23, 1812. In 1850 they are listed in Stratford, Fulton County, and in 1860 were in Salisbury, Herkimer County, New York. Harvey was a farmer, and constable in Salisbury, but his postal address was in Stratford. Rachel died February 17, 1885, and Harvey died March 23, 1896. They are buried in the newer portion of Stratford cemetery, lot 9.

Children of Harvey P. Kibbe[7] and Rachel (Cory) Kibbe:
1. George H., 1837-1907, m. Alice R. A. ----
2. Mary Ann, 1841, m. ---- Bullock
3. Huldah Lovina, 1844-1845

WILLIAM H. KIBBE7, son of Abiel[6] and Zipporah (Pratt) Kibbe, was born February 22, 1818, in Stratford, Fulton County, New York. He was married April 18, 1845/7, to Eleanor Bliss. She was born in Stratford, September 16, 1822, the daughter of Ebenezer and Roxey (Blakesley) Bliss. William was a farmer and lumberman, and served as town assessor. Probate records of Herkimer County, New York, indicate that William died in 1900. Eleanor died in Stratford, December 25, 1924, aged 102 years.

Children of William H. Kibbe[7] and Eleanor (Bliss) Kibbe:
1. Bliss, 1848-1930, m. 1875, Emma A. Shaver
2. Marilla, 1849-1861

THOMAS N. KIBBE7, son of Abiel[6] and Zipporah (Pratt) Kibbe, was born November 30, 1822, probably in Stratford, Fulton County, New York. In 1850 he was listed in Stratford with his wife, Betsey, and three children. In 1860 Thomas was listed as a farmer in Salisbury, Herkimer County, New York, and his wife was given as Elizabeth*. Thomas N. Kibbe and Cornelius Perkins were proprietors of the Kibbe and Perkins General Store in Salisbury in 1869, but the home address of Thomas was Stratford. It is this Elizabeth or Betsey, wife of Thomas N. Kibbe, who died in 1876, and whose estate was probated in Herkimer County. Records of Montgomery County, New York, list the estate of Thomas N. Kibbe who died in Amsterdam, December 12, 1890. His widow was Anna, and in her petition for administration, she stated there were no surviving children. The grave of Thomas N., is in the cemetery at Stratford, Fulton County, as is that of his daughter, Martha Louise. Descendants of Thomas and Elizabeth have said this couple were buried in Tomah, Wisconsin, but of this they must be mistaken.

Children of Thomas N. Kibbe[7] and Elizabeth (----) Kibbe:
1. John J., 1842-1882, m. Rhoda Coudey
2. Byron Elisha, 1843-1865, m. 1864, Esther Sixbey

AUSTIN ELLIOTT KIBBE[7] (Austin[6], Jedidiah[5], James[4], James[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of Austin[6] and Minerva (Wood) Kibbe, was born August 30, 1838, near Somers, Connecticut. He was married in 1883, to Sarah Olivia (Chapin) Buffington. She was born in 1837, the daughter of Vashni Hall and Orpha Zelinda (Kibbe) Chapin, and was the widow of Daniel Buffington. Sarah died January 15, 1915, and Austin died September 30, 1925.

Children of Austin Elliott Kibbe[7] and Sarah Olivia (Chapin) Buffington Kibbe:

1. Nelson Elliott, bp. 1883/5; of Brookfield, Massachusetts, 1925

SUMNER KIBBE7, possibly the son of Isaac[6] and Naomi (Kibbe) Kibbe, was born November 2, 1788, in Jefferson County, New York, near the Thousand Islands. Although his parentage is uncertain, it is believed he was the son or grandson of Ebenezer[5] and Abigail (Sumner) Kibbe. Sumner married Tacy Collins, born September 15, 1797. He was a farmer, and itinerant preacher of the Universalist faith. In protest of her husband's lack of interest in supporting his family, Tacy is said to have pretended invalidism, and taken to her bed. She outlived her contemporaries, and died circa 1887.

Children of Sumner Kibbe[7] and Tacy (Collins) Kibbe:
1. Pell Collins, 1816-1874, m. Tabitha Permelia Livingston
2. Elizer, 1818, d. unmarried
3. Betsy R., 1823, m. ----- Littlefield: no issue
4. Leonora, 1825, m. ----- Arnold: one daughter
5. Abby, 1828, probably unmarried
6. Lydia B., 1831
7. George W., 1834, m. Belle Harriet West
8. Clarissa C., 1837, m. 1. Jerome White
   2. Lewis Lamson

LINUS KIBBE7, son of Ebenezer[6] and Juda (Harrington) Kibbe, was born November 1, 1796, in Otis, Berkshire County, Massachusetts. With his parents he removed to northern Vermont, and later to St. Lawrence County, New York. He was married in Burlington, Vermont, February 19, 1825, to Alzina Johnson. They lived in or near Brasher, New York. Linus died of pneumonia at Helena, New York, November 13, 1882. His widow died similarly at Helena, March 21, 1883, aged 83 years and 9 days. The will of Linus was probated November 29, 1882.

Children of Linus Kibbe[7] and Alzina (Johnson) Kibbe:
1. Alma, d. before 1878, m. Daniel H. Ward

LUMAN KIBBE7, son of Ebenezer[6] and Juda (Harrington) Kibbe, was born December 8, 1798, in Otis, Berkshire County, Massachusetts. He removed to Northern Vermont with his parents. There he was married in South Hero, October 13, 1832, to Sylvia Jordan. Luman died in Jefferson, Missouri, about 1869. He is said to have had two daughters and four sons, but only one son was living in 1869, the others having died without issue.

Children of Luman Kibbe[7] and Sylvia (Jordan) Kibbe:
1. Calvin

RUFUS B. KIBBE7, son of Ebenezer[6] and Juda (Harrington) Kibbe, was born July 27, 1807, in St. Albans, Vermont. For some years he was a druggist and physician in Canandaigua, New York. He removed from there to Michigan. Rufus was a Senator for the 3rd district from Lenawee County, Michigan, in 1846-1847. Removing to Branch County, he settled in Coldwater, Michigan, and there built an extensive and profitable medical practise as well as a pharmacy. In the spring of 1862, Rufus enlisted, and served in the Civil War as a surgeon and Captain with the 15th Michigan Infantry. He resigned, and was invalided home, October 3, 1862. His wife was Harriet DeWolfe, born in Connecticut in 1811. Rufus died of Bright's disease, November, 1878/9, in Coldwater. His widow died in 1896. They are buried at Coldwater, Michigan.

HEZEKIAH KIBBE7, son of Ebenezer[6] and Juda (Harrington) Kibbe, was born September 20, 1816, either in St. Albans, Vermont, or St. Lawrence County, New York. He died of Bright's disease in South Hero, Vermont, May 19, 1897. Two marriages of Hezekiah are recorded in South Hero. The first, January 29, 1845, was to Nancy Lamson. She died in 1851, aged 31. The second marriage of Hezekiah, January 21, 1852, was to Loraine Meigs. It is possible this Hezekiah Kibbe was the father of Ella Whitcomb Kibbe, born in South Hero, Vermont, in April, 1877, or was her grandfather. See Vermont appendix.

SUMNER KIBBE7, son of Ebenezer[6] and Juda (Harrington) Kibbe, was born February 20, 1824, probably near Brasher, St. Lawrence County, New York. He died November 11, 1863, being killed in battle in Missouri during the Civil War. His wife is said to have come from Alburg, probably New York. Her surname was Darby. It is believed this couple had five sons and two daughters. Three sons died in 1864.

JOHN KIBBE[7] (William[6], Ebenezer[5], Isaac[4], James[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of William[6] and Olive (Kibbe) Kibbe, was born in 1799, probably in Berkshire County, Massachusetts. From census records of Bingham Township, Potter County, Pennsylvania, it appears that John lived in New York State until after the death of his first wife. His family is recorded in Bingham Township in 1860. In 1870 this family is listed with John's second wife, Wilma or Wilhelmina, aged 41.

Children of John Kibbe[7] by his first marriage:
1. Rachel, 1846
2. George, 1848
3. Jason, 1851

Children of John Kibbe[7] and Wilhelmina (-----) Kibbe:
4. Eldridge, 1867

LEVI KIBBE[7] (William[6], Ebenezer[5], Isaac[4], James[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of William[6] and Olive (Kibbe) Kibbe, was born in Otis, Berkshire County, Massachusetts, August 1, 1800. From census records it appears he lived in New York State when his children were born, and since his wife, Nancy, was born there, it may be assumed that Levi was married there. In 1860 they were living in Bingham Township, Potter County, Pennsylvania, and both Levi and Nancy were aged 59.

Children of Levi Kibbe[7] and Nancy (-----) Kibbe:
1. Vienna B., 1824
2. Joseph C., 1826

HEZEKIAH KIBBE7, son of William[6] and Olive (Kibbe) Kibbe, was born December 6, 1801, in Otis, Berkshire County, Massachusetts. He died in Bingham Township, Potter County, Pennsylvania, September 10, 1876. Cemetery records show that Hezekiah married twice. His first wife, Martha, died following childbirth, February 12, 1834, aged 29. The second wife was Lucy. She was born in August, 1816, and died September 22, 1874, aged 58 years, 1 month, and 19 days.

Children of Hezekiah Kibbe[7] and Martha (----) Kibbe:
1. Child, 1832-1832
2. Son, 1833-1833
3. Daughter, 1834-1834

Children of Hezekiah Kibbe[7] and Lucy (----) Kibbe:

TRUMAN KIBBE[7] (William[6], Ebenezer[5], Isaac[4], James[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of William[6] and Olive (Kibbe) Kibbe, was born April 15, 1816, probably in New York State, and accompanied his parents when they removed to Bingham Township, Potter County, Pennsylvania. His first marriage was to Julia Pierce who was the mother of his first child. After her death Truman married Betsy G. Gee, and she was the mother of his other children. Betsy was born May 30, 1823, and died June 2, 1884. The third marriage of Truman was to Lydia Jane Daniels. She was born December 14, 1821, and died in Bingham, September 15, 1903. Truman died there, March 15, 1909.

Children of Truman Kibbe[7] and Julia (Pierce) Kibbe:

1. George Washington, 1843-1929, m. 1. Emma ----, d. 1870
   2. Dorothy Church Fuller
   3. Jennie B. (Smith) Walters

SYLVESTER KIBBE[7] (William[6], Ebenezer[5], Isaac[4], James[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of William[6] and Olive (Kibbe) Kibbe, was born August 18, 1823, probably in New York State, and accompanied his parents when they removed to Bingham Township, Potter County, Pennsylvania. It is believed he is the Sylvester Kibbe who married Charlotte Mumson. Possibly it was a first wife of Sylvester, Elizabeth, who is buried in Esperance, New York. She died in 1857, aged 18.

Children of Sylvester Kibbe[7] and Charlotte (Mumson) Kibbe:

1. William Sherwood, 1860, m. 1. 1889, Margaret Simpson
   2. 1908, Anna May (----) Thomas

ALEXANDER KIBBE7, son of Lucius[6] and Elizabeth (----) Kibbe, was born circa 1802, possibly in Clark County, Indiana. It appears to be this man who married, November 27, 1828, in Davidson County, Tennessee, Martha Morris. They returned to Indiana and lived in Parke County. As a widow Martha is recorded in Parke County in 1850, aged 48, her birthplace given as Tennessee.

Children of Alexander Kibbe[7] and Martha (Morris) Kibbe:

1. Sarah, 1830
2. Martha, 1832
3. John, 1835
4. George, 1837

JOSIAH KIBBE7, son of Lucius[6] and Elizabeth (----) Kibbe, was born September 13, 1806, probably in Clarke County, Indiana. He died in Clinton County, Indiana, September 2, 1843, and is buried in the Hickman Burial Ground. His wife was Sarah Driver, born August 12, 1814. From the Census of 1850 for Parke County, Indiana, it appears that Sarah remarried, becoming the wife of Franklin Harmon. It is believed she died December 3, 1880.

Children of Josiah Kibbe[7] and Sarah (Driver) Kibbe:

1. Eliza J., 1833
2. James, 1835-1911, m. 1858, Elizabeth Kilgore
3. William, 1837/8

LUCIUS KIBBE[7] (Lucius[6], Amariah[5], Daniel[4], James[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of Lucius[6] and Elizabeth (-----) Kibbe, was born November 16, 1812, in Indiana. He was married, first, in 1846, in Delaware County, Iowa, to Lettie Boucher. She was born March 4, 1825, and died in Traer, Tama County, Iowa, May 11, 1860. In 1862, Lucius married Hannah (Dodd) Miller. As early as 1846, Lucius is said to have taken up homestead land in Kansas, and in 1862 moved his family there. They settled, first, in White Cloud, and later in Lawrence and Pleasanton. In Baldwin City, Kansas, there is preserved a log cabin called the "Kibbee Cabin". It is said to be a replica of the cabin built by Lucius Kibbe in 1854 near this area. Here the first sermon by a regularly appointed minister in the Kansas Territory was preached in Kibbe's cabin.

Unfortunately Lucius Kibbe was not able to stay here long. In 1854 he shot a pro-slavery man in self-defense. Although acquitted, he was forced to flee with his family because of constant harassment by the pro-slavery groups. When Nebraska Territory was opened to homesteaders, Lucius moved there. He died in Nebraska at Creighton, Knox County, November 7, 1880.

Children of Lucius Kibbe[7] and Lettie (Boucher) Kibbe:

1. Randolph Boucher, 1847-1922, m. Elizabeth Anderson
2. Alonzo Boucher, 1848-1935, m. 1883, Sarah Ferguson
3. Enos Boucher, 1851-1925, unmarried
4. Jane Boucher, 1853-1883, m. Paddy Johnson
5. Marietta Boucher, 1855-1892, m. William Parker

AMARIAH KIBBE7, son of Lucius[7] and Emily (Taylor) Kibbe, was born, probably, in Indiana, perhaps in Parke County. He is believed to have married and left children. An Amariah Kibbe is said to have lived in Linn County, Iowa, and he may be this man.

Children of Amariah Kibbe[7]:
1. James
2. Robert
3. Daughter

References: Data from Harold Randolph Kibbee, Matheson, Colorado; and from Calvin Gruver, State College, Arkansas.

WILLIAM KIBBE7, son of Lucius[6] and Emily (Taylor) Kibbe, was born in Parke or Clinton County, Indiana. Nothing authentic has been found about this man. It seems possible he may be the William Kibbe who was in Vigo County, Indiana, in 1858. Records of the descendants of William Kibbe of Vigo County, are given in the appendix.

References: Data from Harold Randolph Kibbee, Matheson, Colorado; and from Calvin Gruver, State College, Arkansas.

JAMES MADISON KIBBE7, son of Lucius[6] and Emily (Taylor) Kibbe, was born, probably, in Clinton County, Indiana. He died December 25, 1849, in San Diego, California. His wife was named Matilda. It is believed he left no descendants. His widow married in 1853, Adam Lasher.

References: Data from Calvin Gruver, State College, Arkansas; and from Harold Randolph Kibbee, Matheson, Colorado.

AMARIAH KIBBE7, son of Amariah[6] and Charlotte (McKinney) Kibbe, was born January 9, 1803, in Somers, Connecticut. He was married in Somers, July 15, 1841, to Caroline Blodgett. She was his widow when he died in Somers, August 20, 1862, aged 59. Probate records in 1862 name three children. In 1896, Caroline's estate was divided in three parts: one third to her son, Jairus H.; one third to her daughter, Elizabeth; and one third to be divided between the two children of her deceased son, Henry A.

Children of Amariah Kibbe[7] and Caroline (Blodgett) Kibbe:
1. Henry A., 1847, died before 1896
2. Elizabeth F., 1848, m. 1869, Gardner C. Wood
3. Jairus H., 1849

JAMES MONROE KIBBE7, son of Amariah[6] and Charlotte (McKinney) Kibbe, was born May 1, 1818, in Somers, Connecticut. He was married December 21, 1847, to Hannah B. Carpenter. She was born February 3, 1825, the daughter of John and Fanny (King) Carpenter of Wilbraham, Massachusetts. Monroe Kibbe, as he was commonly called, was educated in the local schools, and lived his entire life in the home where he was born. He worked in the hotel, and on the farm, held various town offices, and was a member of the Congregational Church in Somers. Hannah died May 13, 1894, and Monroe died July 30, 1899, and is buried in North Cemetery, Somers.

Children of James Monroe Kibbe[7] and Hannah B. (Carpenter) Kibbe:
1. James Monroe, 1853-1853
2. Son, 1855-1855
3. Anna C., m. 1878, Harry Gager Kibbe[9](Henry Root[8],Asa[7],Peter[6],[5], Elisha[4],Edward[3],Elisha[2],Edward[1])

JOHN KIBBE7, son of David[6] and Emily (McNutt) Kibbe, was born in Washington or Warren County, New York, about 1825, and removed to Potter County, Pennsylvania, with his parents. It is believed he may be the John J. Kibbe shown in census records of 1860 in Oswayo Township, Potter County. His aged then was 35, and in his household were Mary A., aged 20, and James E., aged 7. The estate of John J. Kibbe, late of Oswayo Township, was probated in Potter County, September 21, 1866. The widow was Mary A., who renounced her rights to administer the estate. If the child, James E., was the son of John J., his age suggests that he was the child of an earlier marriage.

THOMAS J. KIBBE7, son of David[6] and Emily (McNutt) Kibbe, was born in upper New York State. Two different dates and places are given; one version says he was born in Warrensburg, Warren County, April 1, 1828, and the second says Washington County, April 1, 1831. In either case he removed with his parents to Harrison Township, Potter County, Pennsylvania, at an early age. He was married there, June 17, 1851, to Dorcas Cotton. She was born in Potter County, December 1, 1833, the daughter of Joseph and Anna (Brown) Cotton. Thomas served in the Civil War as a private in Co. B, 171st Regiment of Pennsylvania Militia, and also in Co. I of the 189th Regiment of New York Infantry. His homestead was built on land he himself had cleared. Thomas and his wife are buried in the Kibbe vault in the cemetery at White's Corners in Harrison Township. Thomas died October 23, 1912, and Dorcas died November 1, 1912.

EDWARD PORTER KIBBE[8](Benjamin Porter[7],Ambrose[6],James[5],James[4],James[3], Elisha[2],Edward[1]), son of Benjamin Porter[7] and Frances Sophia (Dickinson) Kibbe, was born February 9, 1839, perhaps in Mt. Clemens, Macomb County, Michigan. In 1850 the census shows him living in Clinton, Macomb County, and later he is known to have lived in Detroit, Michigan, where his parents had moved. He attended schools in Detroit, and an academy in Pennsylvania. Enrolled at the University of Michigan, Edward was forced to withdraw after two years because of ill health. In 1862 he joined the Michigan Lancers as a 2nd Lieutenant, but the regiment was disbanded by the War Department. Edward was sent to Nashville, Tennessee, as a government employee. He was called to Houghton, Michigan, to close his uncle's business there, and stayed on in association with the publication of mining papers. Edward became editor and proprietor of the Northern Michigan Journal. It is not known whether he ever married.

CHAUNCEY SMITH KIBBE[8], (Nathaniel Smith[7], Eldad[6], Eldad[5], James[4], James[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of Nathaniel Smith[7] and Deborah (Osterhout) Kibbe, was born May 30, 1847, in Oppenheim, Fulton County, New York. He served in the Civil War. On April 22, 1869, he was married at Pike, Wyoming County, New York, to Estella M. Jackson. She was born August 12, 1848, at Butternuts, Otsego County, New York. For a year or so after his marriage Chauncey lived in Pike, and then removed to Fulton County at Gloversville. Here he was in the manufacturing of gloves, a business he continued even after his removal to Batavia, Genesee County. Chauncey lived in Batavia for fifty years. There he developed a prosperous real estate business before disposing of his manufacturing business in Gloversville. Many subdivisions in surrounding towns of New York State were developed by Mr. Kibbe and his son. Estella (Jackson) Kibbe died in Batavia, June 8, 1920. Chauncey died there, January 8, 1927, aged 80. They are buried in Elmwood Cemetery, Batavia.

JOHN M. KIBBE8, son of Amariah[7] and Sarah Louise (Spofford) Kibbe, was born circa 1831, possibly in New Haven, Oswego County, New York. In 1870 he was a farmer living in Lysander, Onondaga County, New York. Listed with him were his wife, Effie, aged 34, and two children, Iona and Amariah. It is believed the other two listed here were also his children.

Children of John M. Kibbe[8] and Effie (----) Kibbe:

1. Iona, ca. 1859, m. 1879, Calvin Brockett8
2. Martin, ca. 1859*
3. Bertha M., m. ---- Tompkins
4. J. Amariah, ca. 1867

* In the Census of 1870 for New Haven, Oswego County, New York, there is listed Martin, aged 11, in the household of Amariah Kibbe[7]. It is believed this child was a grandson of Amariah, and probably the son of John M. Kibbe[8], and has been so listed. No Martin Kibbe is listed in the will or settlement of the estate of Amariah in 1873, nor is a Martin Kibbe mentioned in 1909 when the estate of William S. Kibbe was probated.

WILLIAM S. KIBBE8, son of Amariah[7] and Sarah Louise (Spofford) Kibbe, was born circa 1835, probably in New Haven, Oswego County, New York. He is listed in his father's household in 1850 and 1870. In 1880 he was living with his widowed mother. When William died in 1909, his estate was probated in March, upon petition of his nephew, J. Amariah Kibbe. There was no will. The next of kin were his brother, Pembroke of New Haven; his sister, Juliette of Mexico, New York; his nieces, Iona (Kibbe) Brockett and Bertha M. Tompkins, and nephew, J. Amariah Kibbe, all of Dolgeville, New York. No evidence has been found that William ever married.

ISAAC KIBBE5, son of Isaac[4] and Margaret (Terry) Pease, was born October 12, 1763, in Enfield, Connecticut. He was married in Enfield, January 30, 1785, to Abigail Lockwood. After 1791 there are no records of this couple in Connecticut, but New York City directories show that Isaac was a merchant there in 1792, with the firm, Kibbe and Ludlow. In 1795 the firm name was Kibbe, Blagg & Company, and in 1801, Kibbe & Titus. After 1816, Isaac appears to have removed to Buffalo, New York. Perhaps his wife, Abigail, died about this time. In 1817 Isaac was married in Buffalo, to Serene (Heacock) Grosvenor. She was born August 8, 1784, the daughter of Reuben and Silence (Easton) Heacock of Woodstock, Connecticut, and was the widow of Abel Grosvenor who died in 1813. By 1832 this couple had returned to New York City, and Isaac appears in the directories there until 1845. He died in New York, June 14, 1845, in his 82nd year. His widow died April 3, 1867, aged 83.

GAIUS KIBBE5, son of Isaac[4] and Margaret (Terry) Kibbe, was born August 10/17, 1765, in Enfield, Connecticut. He was married August 17, 1785, to Mary or Polly Pease. She was born in Enfield, May 2, 1767, said to be the daughter of Sharon[5] and Mary (Prior) Pease, grand-daughter of Benjamin Pease, and great grand-daughter of Isaac Pease. Use of these names among descendants was in honor of the Pease ancestors. In their early married life this couple lived in Enfield, but by 1797 Gaius is recorded in Coos County, New Hampshire, where his sister, Margaret, and the Parsons families had settled near Colebrook. By 1802 Gaius had moved his family across the river into Minehead, Vermont. Since 1830 this area has been called Bloomfield, Vermont. Mary (Pease) Kibbe died in Minehead, May 14, 1802, aged 35.

Gaius Kibbe was married the following spring, March 17, 1803, in Chesterfield, Massachusetts, to Nancy Kidd. She was born in Chesterfield, December 18, 1777, the daughter of Charles and Frances (Hamilton) Kidd of Pelham and Chesterfield. About 1814 this family removed to Buffalo, New York, and by 1820 began their long trek to Louisiana. A grandson wrote of their experiences: "Mr. Kibbe, having secured a grant of land in Atta-quapas (or Attakapas), Louisiana, induced his large family of sons and daughters, and their children, to remove with him to that new country. Accordingly preparing rafts of lumber, and houses ready for erection, having all their household effects including a cow or two, they embarked from Olean Point, coming down to the Ohio River, and spent the first winter in Cincinnati. In the spring they pursued their voyage down the Ohio and Mississippi, and into a bayou to their land. Here acclimating fever attacked them, and many died ... ". They settled in the Bayou Teche area of St. Mary Parish, Louisiana. Gaius died there, July 21, 1821. His widow died September 15, 1840, in Bayou Chicot, Louisiana.

* Valentine Bennet, born in Massachusetts in 1790, died in Gonzales, Texas, in 1843. His descendants still live in Gonzales. Records of Miles Squier Bennet, grandson of Gaius Kibbe, tell of the drowning of Nathan C. Dudley in the Alleghany River, February 28, 1820. The widow of Nathan, Lucy (Kibbe) Dudley, died in 1849 in Mississippi City, Mississippi.

WILLIAM KIBBE[5] (Isaac[4], Isaac[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of Isaac[4] and Margaret (Terry) Kibbe, was born March 4, 1767, in Enfield, Connecticut. He was married in Enfield, June, 1792, to Esther Terry[5]. She was born January 5, 1767, the daughter of Eliphalet[4] and Mary (Hall) Kibbe. Probably it is this William Kibbe who appears in New York City directories between 1801 and 1812, as a merchant associated with Isaac Kibbe, his brother. By 1815 this family had removed to Canandaigua, New York, in Ontario County. William is said to have been cashier of the Ontario National Bank. Probate records of Ontario County indicate that William and his wife, Esther, both died there.

Children of William Kibbe[5] and Esther (Terry) Kibbe:

1. Persis, 1793, unmarried
2. Simeon Terry, 1794-1825, m. 1819, Lucy Terry Barton
3. Esther, 1796, unmarried
4. Mary, 1797/8, m. 1817, Orson Benjamin
5. Emily, 1800-1824, unmarried
6. Caroline, 1803-1806

GEORGE KIBBE[5] (Isaac[4], Isaac[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of Isaac[4] and Margaret (Terry) Kibbe, was born February 18, 1773, in Enfield, Connecticut. He died September 3, 1815, in Canandaigua, New York. From newspaper records in Albany, New York: "September 3, 1815, at his brother's home in Canandaigua, George Kibbe, esquire, of Onondaga County, New York, aged 42." Perhaps it is this George Kibbe who had the first store in Syracuse, and was postmaster there in 1801.

GEORGE R. KIBBE[6] (Isaac[5], Isaac[4], Isaac[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of Isaac[5] and Serene (Heacock) Grosvenor Kibbe, was born in 1818, probably in Buffalo, New York. In 1850 the census for Buffalo, Erie County, gives the wife of George R. Kibbe as Anna. Other records give her name as Angeline G. Her surname before marriage is not known. Possibly she was the daughter of Aaron Norton who is said to have married a Mr. Kibbe, cashier in a Buffalo bank. Another account says she was born in Little Falls, New York. She was born circa 1827, and died in 1909. George is listed as a banker in the 1850 census. He died in 1878.

Children of George R. Kibbe[6] and Angeline G. (----) Kibbe:
1. Susan R., 1847
2. George R., 1849
3. Isaac, 1850-1873
4. Serena, m. Mr. Stanley of London, Ontario
5. Grosvenor
6. Annie
7. Alfred Beers, 1858-1904, unmarried
8. Minnie, said to be living in 1934

ISAAC KIBBE[6] (Gaius[5], Isaac[4], Isaac[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of Gaius[5] and Mary (Pease) Kibbe, was born June 9, 1792, in Enfield, Connecticut, and removed with his parents to New Hampshire, then to Vermont, and in 1814 to Buffalo, New York. He was married near Buffalo, perhaps in Concord, New York, October 7, 1816, to Sarah Spaulding. They lived in the Parish of St. Marys, Hamburg, New York. In 1820 they joined in the family exodus to Louisiana. This item from newspaper files in Albany, New York, reveals the tragedy of their deaths: "May 17, 1822. Died Isaac Kibbe, wife, and family ... , at Altacapas, Louisiana, August, 1821, to January, 1822. On August 10, 1821, a son died aged 3 months; October 27, 1821, Daniel Spaulding, brother-in-law, died aged about 23; October 29, 1821, Mrs. Kibbe died; Isaac died November 8, 1821, aged about 29, leaving an orphan daughter. On January 9, 1822, died Sarah, aged 3 years." Probate records in St. Mary's Parish, Franklin, Louisiana, indicate that on December 1, 1821, there were two children, Sarah and Margaret, who were sole heirs to the estate of Isaac and Sarah (Spaulding) Kibbe. Sarah is said to have died January 9, 1822, but no further record has been found of Margaret.

Children of Isaac Kibbe[6] and Sarah (Spaulding) Kibbe:

1. Sarah, 1818-1822
2. Margaret
3. Son, 1821-1821

BENJAMIN PEASE KIBBE6, son of Gaius[5] and Mary (Pease) Kibbe, was born in Colebrook, New Hampshire, September 11, 1800. He is said to have died in Colebrook in 1830. Nothing has been learned about him, but it seems evident that he did not move to Louisiana with his parents, and remained in New Hampshire.

Reference: Data from Mrs. Charlie Wallis, Corsicana, Texas, taken from collected data of the late Charles Griffin Kibbe[8].

GEORGE KIBBE6, son of Gaius[5] and Mary (Pease) Kibbe, was born April 12, 1802, in Minehead, Vermont. His mother died a month after his birth. Since his aunt, Margaret, was a midwife and herb doctor, perhaps he and his brother, Benjamin, were given into her care. They both appear to have remained in the east, and are recorded in Colebrook, Coos County, New Hampshire. It is believed to be this George Kibbe whose marriage to Hannah Hunt is recorded in Canton, Massachusetts, in 1832. They are both listed as residents of Sudbury, Massachusetts. This couple lived in Massachusetts and New Hampshire until after 1846, and then removed to Mississippi. By 1850 they had moved to Texas, and settled in Victoria County. Both George and Hannah are said to have died in 1851 in Victoria County. No complete or authentic list of their children has been found, but the following appear to have been theirs.

Children of George Kibbe[6] and Hannah (Hunt) Kibbe:

1. George G., 1833
2. Vesta, 1835-1937, m. 1. Robert E. Sutton
   2. ---- Thomas
3. Joanna, m. 1853, Silas P. Lamkin
4. William
5. Isaac Pease, 1846-1916, m. 1872, Sallie Frances Carpenter

CHARLES KIBBE6, son of Gaius[5] and Nancy (Kidd) Kibbe, was born August 30, 1804, in Minehead, Vermont. In 1814 his parents removed to Buffalo, New York, and from there to the Bayou Teche area in Louisiana. Charles was married February 4, 1830, in Lafayette Parish, Louisiana, to Joanna Booth. She was born in Georgia, August 20, 1809, the daughter of Reuben and Mary (Moss) Booth. Charles was a planter and merchant. This family moved west, and had reached Tyler County, Texas, when Charles died, November 20, 1850. His widow and children settled in Victoria, Texas. Joanna died February 10, 1864, and is buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Victoria.

Children of Charles Kibbe[6] and Joanna (Booth) Kibbe:

1. Mary Eluina, 1833-1901, m. 1857, Paul Hamilton Breeden
2. William Robert, 1835-1838
3. Alice or Alzenith Frances, 1836-1867, m. 1862, William Larrabee Callander[8]
4. Charles Lafayette, 1838-1839
5. Charles Booth, 1841-1876, m. 1870, Essie Anna Dale
6. Albert Tracy, 1843-1866

WILLIAM KIBBE6, son of Gaius[5] and Nancy (Kidd) Kibbe, was born June 3, 1813, in Minehead, Vermont, and removed with his parents to the Bayou Teche area in Louisiana. In 1834 he went to Texas, and there served with Captain William M. Logan's company, participating in the Battle of San Jacinto in 1836. His name is inscribed on the monument marking the battlefield. In recognition of his service, William was granted about a thousand acres of Texas lands in 1838. He was living in Vermilion Parish, Louisiana, when he was married, September, 1837, to Louisa Salana Campbell (sometimes called Zelma Louise Campbell). She was born December 31, 1817, and died January 8, 1844. Her grave is in the old community, Rice Cove, near Abbeville, Louisiana. Soon after the death of Louisa, William married her sister, Keziah or Kissiah Campbell. William is called Judge, and was an honorary member of the Texas Veterans Association. He died in Iberville Parish in 1874, and is buried in Abbeville, Louisiana.

Children of William Kibbe[6] and Louisa Salana (Campbell) Kibbe:

1. Frances, 1838, m. Delmas DuBois

SIMEON TERRY KIBBE6, son of William[5] and Esther (Terry) Kibbe, was born August 3, 1794, in Enfield, Connecticut. He was married there, July 26, 1819, to Lucy Terry Barton. They were first cousins. She was born October 18, 1797, the daughter of William and Mehitable (Terry) Barton of Hartford, Connecticut. On August 15, 1819, Lucy was recommended to the church in Canandaigua, New York, and this couple moved there about this time. Simeon died in Canandaigua, February 2, 1825. His widow was married October 31, 1826, to Moses Chapin.

ALFRED BEERS KIBBE[7](George R.[6],Isaac[5],Isaac[4],Isaac[3],Elisha[2],Edward[1]), son of George R.[6] and Angeline G. (----) Kibbe, was born January 3, 1858, in Buffalo, New York. He attended medical school in Buffalo, 1878-1889, and became an oculist and aurist. After 1899 he settled in Seattle, Washington. He was president of the State Board of Medical Examiners. Alfred never married. His interests and hobbies were X-ray, sailing, and Japanese art.

GEORGE G. KIBBE7, son of George[6] and Hannah (Hunt) Kibbe, was born in Massachusetts about 1833/4. The first evidence of him is in 1860 when the census lists him in Goliad, Goliad County, Texas, aged 26. He was living in the household of Mrs. Mary Hughes. Since his parents lived in Massachusetts at the time of his birth, and moved to Texas where they both died by 1851, it is not surprising to find him in the household of friends or relatives. He is believed to be the George G. Kibbe who enlisted in the Confederate forces at Brownsville July 1, 1861. In the same company was a William Kibbe who may have been a relative. Confederate records give the enlistment of a George G. Kibbe in Beesville, Texas, July 2, 1861. It seems improbable that these records refer to the same man. Noted on one record is the death of George G. Kibbe by 1882, but to which George G. Kibbe this refers is not known.

ISAAC PEASE KIBBE[7] (George[6], Gaius[5], Isaac[4], Isaac[3], Elisha[2], Edward[1]), son of George[6] and Hannah (Hunt) Kibbe, was born in Colebrook, New Hampshire, April 12, 1846. Soon after his birth his parents removed to Mississippi, and by 1850 had moved to Texas. There they settled in Victoria County. It is believed both parents died in 1851, and Isaac lived with relatives at Port Lavaca in Calhoun County. In 1862 he enlisted at Victoria, and served as a scout with the Confederate forces throughout the war. Isaac had very little formal schooling, and had begun working when very young to help pay for his livelihood. After the war he worked as a clerk, and then manager of a general store. From 1870 to 1889, he managed a wholesale and retail lumber business in Victoria. In 1889 he moved to Goliad, Texas, and established an extensive lumber business which he operated until Governor Culberson appointed him State Fish and Oyster Commissioner in 1894.

Isaac was married in DeWitt County, Texas, June 19, 1872, to Sallie Frances Carpenter. She was born in Virginia circa 1850. Her parents were natives of Virginia who moved to Alabama prior to the Civil War, and in 1869 had settled in DeWitt County, Texas. Mr. Kibbe died in Union County, New Jersey, November 4, 1916. His widow died April 21, 1939, in San Antonio, Texas. They are both buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Victoria, Texas. It is said of Mr. Kibbe that during his entire life he was noted as an enterprising, public spirited citizen, always working for the good of the community.

CHARLES BOOTH KIBBE7, son of Charles[6] and Joanna (Booth) Kibbe, was born August 8, 1841, in St. Landry Parish (Bayou Chicot), Louisiana, and removed to Texas with his parents. Here he lived successively in Victoria, Indianola, Galveston, and San Antonio. He was a merchant, accountant, and teacher. During the Civil war he served with the Confederate forces as second sergeant in a company for Bee County, 29th Brigade, Texas Militia. Charles was married February 21, 1870, in Indianola, Calhoun County, to Essie Anna Dale. She was born in 1847, in Grand Gulf, Mississippi, the daughter of John Henry and Elizabeth Ann (Hall) Dale of Indianola. Charles died in San Antonio, Texas, April 21, 1876. His widow married Henry Allen. She died in Los Angeles, California, February 1, 1943.

Children of Charles Booth Kibbe[7] and Essie Anna (Dale) Kibbe:
1. Essie Dale, 1870-1871

ALBERT TRACY KIBBE7, son of Charles[6] and Joanna (Booth) Kibbe, was born in Hollinsville, Avoyelles Parish, Louisiana, January 7, 1843. He died at the home of his sister, Alice (Kibbe) Callander, in Victoria, Texas, September 29, 1866. Albert is buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Victoria. Probate records do not indicate that he left any descendants, and he is believed to have been unmarried. His brother, Charles Booth Kibbe, was appointed administrator of the estate.

ROBERT PERRY KIBBE7, son of Charles[6] and Joanna (Booth) Kibbe, was born February 8, 1846, in Avoyelles Parish, Louisiana, according to his bible records. During the Civil War he served with the Confederate forces as a private, having enlisted in 1861. He was assigned to Company A, Victoria County 24th Brigade, Texas Militia. Robert was seventeen when he was discharged. On February 11, 1869, Robert was married in Goliad, Texas, to Sue Elizabeth (Moore) Bigham. She was the widow of Monroe M. Bigham, and mother of a daughter, Mary Myrtle. Her father was William H. Moore, and her mother, Nancy, was a full blooded Cherokee Indian who had been reared by a white family. Robert Perry, called Perry, was a stock farmer. He died at the home of his daughter, Alice, in Cuero, DeWitt County, Texas, January 24, 1903, and is buried there in Hillside Cemetery. His widow died in San Antonio, Texas, May 12, 1903, and is buried there.

WILLIAM GAIUS KIBBE7, son of William[6] and Louisa Salana (Campbell) Kibbe, was born in Vermilion Parish, Louisiana, January 25, 1842. He attended schools in Louisiana, and completed his education at Tulane University Medical School. During the Civil War he served with the Confederate forces. With the cessation of hostilities in 1865, William settled at Lake Charles, Louisiana, and practised there until 1870. At that time he moved to Perry's Bridge, and in 1878 to Abbeville, Louisiana. He was married in 1863, to Sophia Walker of Kentucky.

JOSHUA KIBBE2, son of Edward[1] and Mary (Partridge) Kibbe, was born in Brookline (Muddy River), Massachusetts, and baptized in Boston, January 31, 1661. His marriage is recorded in Woburn, Massachusetts, May 24, 1688, to Mary Comey. She was born January 30, 1663, the daughter of David[1] and Elizabeth (----) Comey. For the first twenty-two years of their married life no records have been found for this couple. In 1710 they settled in West Sherborn, Massachusetts, and owned land, also, in Douglas. Names of four children are recorded, and probably there were others. Mary died in Sherborn, June or July 9, 1712. Joshua died October 15, 1731/2.

JOSHUA KIBBE3, son of Joshua[2] and Mary (Comey) Kibbe, was born in Sherborn, Massachusetts, in 1712, his mother dying soon after. In 1733 he was married in Medway, Massachusetts, to Abigal Dowse. Medway records his death, January 29, 1754. He is said to have left no descendants. It is, probably, the widow of Joshua Kibbe who was married in 1756, to John Snell, as recorded in Medway. Joshua was a carpenter, and his estate was divided equally between his widow and his brother, Edward.

On August 13, 1767, he was married in Medway, to Mary Cody of Hopkinton, Massachusetts. She was born July 26, 1749, the daughter of Joseph[3] and Mary (Whitney) Cody. Edward served seven years in the Revolution, entering as a private, and was mustered out as a Captain. This couple with their children moved to New York State, and settled in Naples, Ontario County, about 1793. In town records of April, 1796, Edward is listed as an assessor. He died in Naples, January 3, 1827, ending a long career of Community service. His widow, Mary, applied for a pension after his death. She died in Naples, January 2, 1847, aged 97 years. The will of Edward Kibbe, dated May 6, 1826, was filed for probate January 24, 1827, in Ontario County. In it he named his widow, and listed his children.

Children of Edward Kibbe[4] and Mary (Cody) Kibbe:
1. Joseph, 1767/8-1851, m. 1. Lydia Meade
   2. 1821, Mehitable (Barber) Parker
2. Edward, 1770, m. Olive -----
3. Abiah, 1773-d. before 1826, m. Joseph Delap
4. John, 1775-1847
5. Mary Cody, 1778-1869, m. 1800, Alexander Heyward
6. Lucina, 1781-1862, m. 1. William Dunton
   2. Levi Watkins

7. James, 1783, mentally retarded
8. Sarah, 1785-1884, m. 1. Charles Wilcox
2. Leonard Anable
9. Elizabeth, 1789, d.y.
10. Betsey, 1790, m. Loring Pottle

JAMES KIBBE5, son of Isaac[4] and Phebe (Whitney) Kibbe, was born in 1770, probably in Mendon, Massachusetts. It is believed that he removed to New York State, and it seems probable he is the Jame Kibbe who died in Naples, Ontario County, in 1808/9. His widow, Susannah, renounced her rights to administer his estate, January 5, 1810. Possibly he had a son, Eli Kibbe, born circa 1804, who is listed in the 1960 census for Naples, and was living with George Lyon and his wife, Elizabeth, aged 39.

ELI KIBBE5, son of Isaac[4] and Phebe (Whitney) Kibbe, was born circa 1772, in Holliston, Massachusetts. He is believed to have moved to New York State. Perhaps it is this Eli Kibbe listed in the 1820 census, in Camillus, Onondaga County, with his wife and three daughters. It is assumed that he had no sons, since none are shown in the census.

ISAAC KIBBE[5] (Isaac[4], Edward[3], Joshua[2], Edward[1]), son of Isaac[4] and Phebe (Whitney) Kibbe, was born, probably, in Holliston, Massachusetts. The first record of him is found in Medway, Massachusetts, where the death of his first wife is listed. She was Sally Bragg, the daughter of Ariah and Sarah (Fisher) Bragg of Milford, Massachusetts. Isaac and Sally were married March 27, 1808. Sally died May 8, 1822, aged 42 years. The following year, May 27, 1823, Isaac married Keziah (Adams) Miller in Medway, Massachusetts. She was born in Medway, March 19, 1783, the daughter of Obadiah[6] and Abigail (Harding) Adams, and was the widow of Daniel Miller. Isaac died in Holliston, May 12, 1860, and Keziah died there, February 27, 1863.

Children of Isaac Kibbe[5] and Keziah (Adams) Miller Kibbe:
1. Sally Bragg, 1823, m. 1856, Lucius Williams
2. Adalizer Miller, 1825-1825
3. Edward Miller, 1826-1826
4. Lyman Maynard, 1828, m. 1. 1849, Elizabeth Kingsbury(Charles)
   2. 1860, Carrie Tyler

JOSHUA KIBBE[5] (Isaac[4], Edward[3], Joshua[2], Edward[1]), son of Isaac[4] and Phebe (Whitney) Kibbe, was born circa 1774, probably in Holliston, Massachusetts. Nothing is known about him save that he removed to Boston, Massachusetts, and died there, October 18, 1837.

WHITNEY KIBBE5, son of Isaac[4] and Phebe (Whitney) Kibbe, was born in 1791, in Holliston or Medway, Massachusetts. His marriage, February 5, 1814, to Elizabeth Snell, is recorded both in Medway and Holliston records. He is called "of Medway". Morse in his History of Sherborn and Holliston, says that Whitney Kibbe married Elizabeth Hall Sawin, but nothing has been found to confirm this.

Children of Whitney Kibbe[5] and Elizabeth (Snell) Kibbe:
1. Hannah, 1817, m. 1841, Calvin Follensbee
2. Sally, 1819, m. 1843, Samuel Farnsworth
3. Mary Jane, 1821, m. 1848, Samuel Farnsworth
4. James, 1823
5. Joseph, 1825
6. Elizabeth, 1828

JOSEPH KIBBE5, son of Edward[4] and Mary (Cody) Kibbe, was born November 11, 1767/8, in Medway, Massachusetts, and baptized in 1770. His first wife was Lydia Meade. It is probable that Joseph removed to Naples, Ontario County, New York, with his father in 1793. In 1800 the census lists him in Naples. After the death of Lydia, Joseph was married in Naples, April 5, 1821, to Mehitable, the widow of Elijah Parker. She was born in Massachusetts circa 1777, the daughter of Lemuel and Rachel (----)Barber who had come to Naples in the 1790's. This couple removed to Liverpool Township, Medina County, Ohio. Here they are listed in the Census of 1850. At that time Joseph was aged 83, a weaver by occupation, and Mehitable was aged 76. Joseph died in Liverpool, August 11, 1851. His widow died August 2, 1854.

Children of Joseph Kibbe[5] and Lydia (Meade) Kibbe:
1. Polly, m. James Knapp
perhaps others
Children of Joseph Kibbe[5] and Mehitable (Barber) Parker Kibbe:
2. Sarah, ca. 1822, m. 1840, John Dye: 3 children

EDWARD KIBBE5, son of Edward[4] and Mary (Cody) Kibbe, was born November 19, 1770, in Medway, Massachusetts. He is believed to have moved to Naples, Ontario County, New York, as did his parents. It is, probably, this Edward Kibbe and possibly his wife, Olive, listed in 1850 in the household of Betsey (Kibbe) Pottle. There is a discrepancy in his age as listed. The Census gives the age of Edward as 75 years, and Olive, aged 78. She was born in New Hampshire.

JOHN KIBBE5, son of Edward[4] and Mary (Cody) Kibbe, was born August 3, 1775, in Medway, Massachusetts, and removed to New York State. He is listed in his father's will in 1826, and is said to have died in Naples, Ontario County, August 17, 1847, aged 73. Perhaps it is his widow, Laura, born circa 1795 in New York State, who is listed in the 1850 census for Naples, and was living with the family of Samuel and Elizabeth Dickinson.

LYMAN MAYNARD KIBBE6, son of Isaac[5] and Keziah (Adams) Miller Kibbe, was born March 16, 1828, in Holliston, Massachusetts. He was married June 25, 1849, to Elizabeth Kingsbury. She was the daughter of Charles and Miranda (Tyler) Kingsbury, and died May 23, 1860. On November 29, 1860, Lyman married, second, Carrie Tyler.

Children of Lyman Maynard Kibbe[6]:

1. Charles, of Newton, Massachusetts
2. Daniel or David L., a minister, Springfield, Massachusetts.

Unidentified Kibbes in the states where recorded.

ALVA KIBBE and His Descendants

ALVA KIBBE (Alvah, Alvis, or Alvin) is said to have been born in New York State, September 22, 1815. He died in Highland County, Ohio, September 7, 1854. His wife was Arythea Olivia Clark, daughter of Hiram Rogers and Elizabeth (Rodgers) Clark, said to be natives of Vermont. She was born in New York State, January 12, 1820, and died in Highland County, near Rainsboro, Ohio, January 18, 1888. This couple lived for a while in Smethport (Smithport), McKean County, Pennsylvania. About 1844 they removed to Rainsboro, Ohio. The Census for 1850 lists Alva Kibbe and his family in Paint Township, Highland County. Living with them were Hiram and Elizabeth Clark, aged 55, born in Vermont, and also George Clark, aged 22, born in New York State. It is assumed these were Mrs. Kibbe's parents and brother.

Alva purchased land in the Spargurs addition, Rainsboro, April 12, 1853, and this property remained in the family until sold by his heirs, March 19, 1888. At that time Thomas Judson Kibbe and his wife, Rovilla and her husband, were living in Kansas; Hiram Kibbe and wife lived in Tennessee; and Emily (Kibbe) McCoy was living in Highland County, as was Eddie B. Holmes, the son of Sarah, deceased.

Emily (Kibbe) McCoy died January 27, 1922, Marshall Township, Highland County, Ohio. Two of her daughters, Amanda (McCoy) Smith and Jennie (McCoy) Bowles, are living in Springfield, Ohio. A granddaughter, Mrs. Marie Broomhall is a Methodist minister in Hillsboro, Ohio.

Children of Alva Kibbe and Arythea Olivia (Clark) Kibbe:

1. Rovilla Elizabeth, 1842-1921, m. 1860, Robert McNary
2. Hiram Alva, 1843-1918, m. Martha Ann Fraser
3. George Philemon, 1846-1847
4. Emily Lavina, 1848-1922, m. 1867, Levi Dillon McCoy
5. Thomas Judson, 1851-1893, m. 1875, Lucinda Ann Glasscock
6. Sarah Drusilla, 1853-1874, m. 1873, William W. Holmes

HIRAM ALVA KIBBE or Hiram Alfred (Alva), son of Alva and Arythea Olivia (Clark) Kibbe, is said to have been born in Smethport, McKean County, Pennsylvania, November 27, 1843. He was married in Knoxville, Tennessee, June 22, 1865, to Martha Ann Fraser. She was born in Knoxville, June 12, 1847, the daughter of William Granville and Margaret Ann (Brown) Fraser. During the Civil War Hiram served in Co. A, 2nd Ohio Infantry from 1863 to 1865. A son says he was a famous drummer boy of Ohio's 2nd Heavy Artillery. Martha died in Knoxville, October 28, 1928, and Hiram died there, May 26, 1918.

Children of Hiram Alva Kibbe and Martha Ann (Fraser) Kibbe:

THOMAS JUDSON KIBBE (Alva), son of Alva and Arythea Olivia (Clark) Kibbe, was born August 28, 1851, probably near Rainsboro, Highland County, Ohio. He was married July 22, 1875, possibly in Hillsboro, Ohio, to Lucinda Ann Glasscock. She was born in Ross County, Ohio, December 21, 1858, and died in Kansas, January 7, 1920. This family removed from Ohio to Jewel County, Kansas, and in 1888 were in Coffey County. In 1889, they settled in Westphalia, Kansas. Thomas died in Westphalia, September 9, 1893. At the time of his death he was working as a carpenter, and store clerk.

Children of Thomas Judson Kibbe and Lucinda Ann (Glasscock) Kibbe:

1. Lydia Clara, 1877-1944, m. J. M. Barnes (perhaps John Martin Barnes)
2. James Ernest, 1879-1960, m. Bertha Boots
3. Byrdie Marie, 1883/4, m. James Harrison Kellerman
4. Starley Alfred, 1886/7-1964, m. 1912, Maude LeMasters: no issue
5. Otis Floyd, 1889, m. 1920, Ann Hoover: no issue

CHAUNCEY KIBBE and His Descendants

CHAUNCEY KIBBE was born about 1786/8, probably in Somers, Connecticut, or the environs. It has been suggested that he may be the child, Clary[7], born 1788, to Jedidiah[6] and Lodice (Corliss) Kibbe, or it may be he is the child recorded as Clara[7], born 1786, to Peter[6] and Esther (Pomeroy) Kibbe. Neither of these children have records beyond their births.

Chauncey Kibbe married in Woodstock, Connecticut, December 19, 1819, Sally Chandler, 1801-1838, the daughter of Thomas and Alpleda (Dodge) Chandler of Woodstock. Births of three children are given in Woodstock records, and four younger children are indicated in probate and guardianship records following the death of their mother in 1838.

On September 1, 1851, Chauncey (given as Channing) was married to Lucretia Tiffany[6]. She was born in 1809, the daughter of Allen[5] and Mary (Chamberlain) Tiffany. She was his widow when he died in Somers in May, 1859. It is not known whether the Lucretia Kibbe who married Peter Barnett in 1873, was the widow of Chauncey, or a daughter of this second marriage.

Chauncey is said to have kept a tavern in Woodstock. The History of Woodstock says that Chauncey lived for a while in New York City. Directories of New York show four sons of Chauncey living and working in the city at various periods. William C., is listed as a teacher by 1846/7; Henry C., is listed as a tea merchant in 1848/9; Theodore C., was a clerk in 1859; and George C., in different capacities from 1856/7 onward. General William C. Kibbe was an honorary trustee of the Woodstock Academy in 1869.

Children of Chauncey Kibbe and Sally (Chandler) Kibbe:

1. Thomas Chandler, 1820-1836; drowned in the Connecticut River
2. William Chauncey, 1822-1904, m. 1862, Emma Leonard
3. Sarah, 1825
4. Henry Clay, 1827-1876, m. 1854, Sarah Ann Affeck or Affleck
5. Charles C., 1829-1845
6. Theodore C., 1832/3
7. George C., 1835-1869/72, m. Hanna ---- ?

WILLIAM CHAUNCEY KIBBE (Chauncey), son of Chauncey and Sally (Chandler) Kibbe, was born in Connecticut in 1822. Some accounts give the birthplace of this man as Illinois, though no evidence has been found to indicate his parents were ever there. He is known to have taught school in Brooklyn, New York, as a young man, and became principal of Public School 19. In 1849 he joined in the gold rush to California, but was never successful in any of his mining ventures. He did, however, take an active part in suppressing early Indian uprisings in California and Nevada, and organized the "Kibbe Guards" at Weaverville. In recognition of his work the Governor appointed him Adjutant General in 1858. With the outbreak of the Civil War William returned to New York. He was married at Rockland Lake, New York, April 23, 1862, to Emma Leonard of that town. Afterwards they lived in Brooklyn, and General Kibbe held a position in the Hall of Records. He died at his home in Brooklyn, January 24, 1904. No record of any children has been found.

HENRY CLAY KIBBE (Chauncey), son of Chauncey and Sally (Chandler) Kibbe, was born February 24, 1827, in Connecticut. It is believed to be this man listed in New York City in 1848-9, as a tea merchant, and in San Francisco, California, in 1875, as an inventor. Newspapers reveal the suicide in San Francisco of Henry Clay Kibbe on January 19/20, 1876. The immediate cause of his action was a shortage in the accounts of the company of which he was secretary, although after his death he was absolved of any blame.

Henry was married in Sacramento, California, in 1854, to Sarah Ann Affeck or Affleck. At the time of his death they were separated. His wife and eldest daughter were in Paris, France. A note addressed to a Mrs. Hogg by Henry Kibbe, entrusted her with the care of his children, Florence and Harry, and said: "Let my remains be laid where I laid the bodies of my children, grandfather, and grandmother," Another note was left for his brother, Theodore, who was living in San Francisco at that time.

Children of Henry Clay Kibbe and Sarah Ann (Affeck) Kibbe:

1. Anton A., d. January 15, 1929, Oakland, California
2. Jennie
3. Florence, ca. 1860
4. Harry Ulysses, 1865-1922, m. Flora Harriet D'Auby Jenkins

THEODORE C. KIBBE (Chauncey), son of Chauncey and Sally (Chandler) Kibbe, was born in Connecticut in 1832/3. He is named in Connecticut Probate Records, and appears in New York City directories by 1859-60. Theodore is listed as a private in Co. G, May 7, 1861, and served in the Civil War until his resignation, January 2, 1863, when he had attained the rank of Captain. A note left by his brother, Henry, in January, 1876, indicates that Theodore was then in San Francisco, California, but expressed the belief that Theodore was returning to New York.

GEORGE C. KIBBE (Chauncey), son of Chauncey and Sally (Chandler) Kibbe, was born in Connecticut circa 1835/37. He is mentioned in Connecticut probate records, and appears in New York City directories in 1858-9. During the Civil War George was in the Ellsworth Zouaves, an organization found in New York City, and composed of members of their fire department. The Zouaves were accepted by the State, April 20, 1861, and mustered into service at Washington, D. C., May 1, 1861. Having attained the rank of Colonel, George left the service in 1865, and is said to have died after 1869 of the wounds he received during the war. In 1872, Hannah, widow of George Kibbe is listed in the city directory, and living at the same address formerly given for George C. Kibbe. George had been Deputy Surveyor of the port of New York.

DAVID EDWARD KIBBE and Descendants

DAVID EDWARD KIBBE, spelled Kibby, died January 5, 1900, probably near Thayer, Nebraska, where he is said to have lived. Name of only one child is known.

JAMES F. KIBBE (David Edward), son of David Edward Kibbe, is said to have lived in or near Thayer, Nebraska. He is believed to have married April 29, 1886, someone whose surname was Prather.

Children of James F. Kibbe and ---- (Prather) Kibbe:
1. George Dean, 1895-1929, m. 1916, ---- Hanmett
2. Daisy May, m. John Tubman: 5 children

GEORGE DEAN KIBBE (James F.,David Edward), son of James F. and ---- (Prather) Kibbe, was born July 10, 1895, probably near Thayer, Nebraska. He was married in Dalhart, Texas, March 15, 1916, to ---- Hanmett. She was born August 17, 1897. George kept a grocery store in Dalhart, and died there, January 31, 1929. His widow was married to someone named Wood, and had several Wood children.

DAVID J. KIBBE and Descendants

DAVID J. KIBBE is said to have been born in Wayne County, New York, circa 1832/5. It is known that he lived in Pennsylvania, and was married to Rachel Cotton of Harrison Township, Potter County. She was born in Pennsylvania about 1836, the daughter of Joseph and Anna (Brown) Cotton, and she was a sister of the Dorcas Cotton who married Thomas J. Kibbe[7]. As yet the relationship of these two Kibbe men has not been determined.

In 1860 the census lists David, Rachel, and four children in Harrison Township, and they are said to have lived there until 1864. Removing to Michigan they lived a year near Saginaw, and then settled on a farm in Union Township, Isabella County. They are listed here in 1870, have five children, and Joseph Cotton living in their household. About 1884 this family removed to Shelby Township, Oceana County, Michigan. David was a highly successful farmer, and respected member of his community.

Children of David J. Kibbe and Rachel (Cotton) Kibbe:
1. Joseph, ca. 1855/6
2. Ansel, ca. 1857/8
3. Elmer, ca. 1858/9
4. Adaline, ca. 1860
5. Angeline, ca. 1863

ELI KIBBE and Descendants

ELI KIBBE and his wife, Abigail (Mitchell) Kibbe, are said to have been the parents of Arvin Kibbe, born in New York State. Perhaps this Eli is the same man as the Eli Kibbe, born circa 1804, who is listed in 1860 in Naples, Ontario County, New York, and was living then in the household of George Lyon and his wife, Elizabeth, aged 39.

Children of Eli Kibbe and Abigail (Mitchell) Kibbe:
1. Arvin, 1827, m. 1853, Matilda Stewart
Probably other children

GEORGE KIBBE and Descendants

GEORGE KIBBE (spelled Kibby) was born in 1818, and died in 1881. He is known to have lived in Kirkman, Iowa, and to have married twice. The name of his first wife is not known, but his second wife was Juliette Jenks. She was born in 1845, and after being widowed in 1881, she remarried, becoming Mrs. Gus Campbell, by whom she had two Campbell children.Juliette died in 1929.

Possibly this George Kibbe is the same as the George said to be in Lansing, Iowa, in 1860. The will of Pamela Sarah , wife of Joseph Kibbe of Niles, Cayuga County, New York, names a son, George, in Lansing, Iowa, in 1860. The Census of 1860 for Cayuga County shows a Joseph Kibbe who was a native of England. If it is proven that this George Kibbe, 1818-1881, was the son of Joseph and Pamela Sarah (----) Kibbe, then this line does not descend from Edward[1] and Mary (Partridge) Kibbe.

Children of George Kibbe by his first marriage:
1. Albert, b. March 21, 1852-d. March 10, 1949; married and divorced; left a large family
2. Leonard, b. December 15, 1858-d. in Oklahoma; perhaps unmarried
3. George, b. March 6, 1861-d. September 22, 1881, in Oklahoma; married
4. Frank, b. July 23, 1866

Children of George Kibbe and Juliette (Jenks) Kibbe:
5. Vilie M., b. July 12, 1869-d. January 13, 1925; unmarried
6. Ernest S., b. January 25, 1871-d. July 13, 1898; unmarried
7. Matthew, 1872-1929, m. 1903, Anna Christine Goldberg
8. Florence, 1872-1959, m. Charles Gearhart
9. Willis, 1877-1966, m. 1905, Lena Klinkefus
10. Grace, 1880-1934, m. Harry H. Carter

MATTHEW KIBBE (George), son of George and Juliette (Jenks) Kibbe, was born June 30, 1872, presumably in Kirkman, Iowa. He was married at Moorehead, Clay County, Minnesota, March 25, 1903, to Anna Christina Goldberg. She was the daughter of Swedish parents, Peter and Anna (----) Goldberg. They were neighbors in the farming community near Baker, Minnesota, where Matthew had bought property the previous year. As early as 1911 he began having periods of mental illness, and in March, 1918, was committed to the State Hospital. He died at Willmar State Hospital, December 17, 1929, and is buried at Willmar. Anna, his wife, died during the flu epidemic in October, 1918, and was buried in Sabin Cemetery beside her mother.

Children of Matthew Kibbe and Anna Christina (Goldberg) Kibbe:

1. Hazel, 1903-1904
2. Ethel Evelyn, 1905, m. 1926, Albin Swanson: no issue
3. Edna Margaret, 1907, m. 1926, Conrad Watterburg
4. Glenn Clifford, 1910, m. 1942, Violet Spratt

HENRY S. KIBBE and His Descendants

HENRY S. KIBBE was born circa 1814, in New York State, and died intestate in Ellery, Chautauqua County, New York, April 16, 1876. His widow, Cyrena, petitioned for administration of his estate. They are listed in the census of 1860. At that time Henry was aged 46, a farmer, and Cyrena was aged 35. In 1870 they are listed again. The will of Cyrena was signed June 2oth, and probated November 3, 1898. She gave her age as 73.

Children of Henry S. Kibbe and Cyrena (----) Kibbe:
1. Henry S., ca. 1847; deceased by 1876; married
2. Amelia (probably Charlotte A.), ca. 1849, m. ---- Furlow; lived Carroll, New York
3. Willis E., ca. 1850/1-1924, married
4. Almonzo P., ca. 1854
5. Rosetta A., ca. 1856, m. ---- Tillyon; lived Ellery, New York
6. William G., ca. 1857, died before 1876: no issue

JAIRUS KIBBE and Descendants

JAIRUS KIBBE is listed in the Census of 1850 in Batavia, Genesee County, New York. It seems possible this man may be one of the twin sons born to Joseph[6] and Chloe (Green) Kibbe in Connecticut in 1803, and reported in vital records as James Kibbe. With Polly, aged 46, who is assumed to be his wife, the following children appear in the census. Jairus was aged 46, a farmer, born in Connecticut.

Children of Jairus Kibbe and Polly (----) Kibbe:
1. Jared G., 1824, m. Laura ----
2. Hiram, 1830
3. Martin V., 1832
4. Ligora A., 1837 (female)
5. Bertha E., 1843

References: Connecticut Vital Records.
Census, 1850, Batavia, Genesee County, New York.

JARED G. KIBBE (Jairus ?), perhaps this man was Jared Green Kibbe. He is listed as a householder in 1850 in Batavia, Genesee County, New York, and it is believed he was a son of Jairus and Polly (----) Kibbe, who are listed in the same census though not in the same household. Jared was born about 1824, and his wife, Laura, was born about 1827, both in New York State. If it can be proved that the G. in his name stood for Green, it seems certain he was the grandson of Joseph[6] and Chloe (Green) Kibbe of Connecticut. His father, Jairus, was a twin to a Jared Kibbe.

Children of Jared G. Kibbe and Laura (----) Kibbe:
1. Maria V., 1849

Reference: Census, 1850, Batavia, Genesee County, New York.

HIRAM KIBBE (Jairus ?) is listed in the household of Jairus Kibbe in the 1850 census for Batavia, Genesee County, New York, and is believed to be a son of Jairus, born about 1830. Descendants of a Hiram or Hirian Kibbe have said he was one of several brothers, one of whom was named Jackson. The similarity of Jackson to Jairus or Jared suggests there may have been confusion over the exact name, and no Jackson Kibbe has been found. The Hiram reported by descendants was said to have been born in New York State, April 16, 1830, and married Louise Monrow. She was born in New York State, January 27, 1833. They lived in New York State until late in life, and then removed to Urbana, Iowa. Louise died in Urbana, August 22, 1896, and Hiram died there, May 29, 1900.

Children of Hiram Kibbe and Louise (Monrow) Kibbe:
1. Alice
2. Adelbert, 1856-1924, m. Mary Elizabeth Craig
3. Edwin or Edward Carlton, ca. 1860-1921, m. Lorana Lockridge

References: Census, 1850, Batavia, Genesee County, New York.
Data from Mrs. Mattie (Kibbie) Duffs, Shellsburg, Iowa; and from Raymond Thorton Kibbe, Billings, Montana.

MARTIN V. KIBBE (Jairus ?), believed to be the son of Jairus and Polly (----) Kibbe, is listed in their household in 1850 in Batavia, Genesee County, New York. His age was 18. It seems probable he is the Martin Van Buren Kibbe whose descendants have said he was born in New York State circa 1830. The census makes his birthdate about 1831/2. Martin Van Buren Kibbe married twice, the surname of his first wife was Bradley, and the name of his second wife is not known.

Children of Martin Van Buren Kibbe and ---- (Bradley) Kibbe:
1. Frank Duane, m. Elsie Wilderson: no issue
2. Elmer, married, and had: Jessie, Fern, Vesta, and Clarence Kibbe, who never married
3. John Randolph, 1867-1929, m. 1893, Minnie Morton

Children of Martin Van Buren Kibbe by his second marriage:
4. Carl
5. Fred

ADELBERT KIBBE (Hiram,Jairus), son of Hiram and Louise (Monrow) Kibbe, was born March 10, 1856, in New York State. He was married there to Mary Elizabeth Craig, a native of Glasgow, Scotland. She was born June 26, 1859. This couple removed to Urbana, Iowa, in the 1880's. Adelbert died in Urbana, March 15, 1924, and his widow died there, January 10, 1934.

Children of Adelbert Kibbe and Mary Elizabeth (Craig) Kibbe:
1. Edward, 1881-1939, m. 1902, Lena Roths
2. James, 1883-1961, m. 1913, Amelia Steinberg
3. William, 1885-1953, m. 1909, Ava Dickerson
4. Earl, 1886-1955, m. Edith ----: no issue
5. Mattie, 1893, m. 1913, Emmett Duffs

EDWIN or EDWARD CARLTON KIBBE (Hiram,Jairus), son of Hiram and Louise (Monrow) Kibbe, was born in New York State circa 1860. He married Lorana Lockridge. About 1885 he removed to Iowa where his brother and parents had settled in Urbana. He died in Poplar, Montana, about 1921. Both he and his wife are buried in Urbana, Iowa.

Children of Edwin Carlton Kibbe and Lorana (Lockridge) Kibbe:
1. Rex Thorton, 1890-1960, m. Anna McKibbon
2. Henry Lee, m. Mayme Evans
3. Lillian, m. James Doyle Lynch

JOHN RANDOLPH KIBBE (Martin Van Buren,Jairus), son of Martin Van Buren and ---- (Bradley) Kibbe, was born in New York State in 1867. He died in Edmond, Oklahoma, in 1929, and is buried there. In 1893, he was married to Minnie Morton. She was born in Illinois in 1868, the daughter of J. H. and Harriet (----) Morton. Minnie died in Oklahoma City in 1950.

Children of John Randolph Kibbe and Minnie (Morton) Kibbe:
1. Irene, 1894, m. 1918, David Hartman
2. Minnie, 1896
3. Frances, 1902-1954, m. Carlton Spangler
4. Morton Bradley, 1906, m. 1935, Grace Holmes
5. Theodore Arthur, 1910, m. Ellen Jeffries

JARED KIBBE and Descendants

JARED KIBBE died in Oswegatchie, St. Lawrence County, New York, April 1, 1881. Apparently his wife was already deceased as she is not mentioned in the probate records of his estate. It is believed possible he may be one of the twin sons born in Connecticut in 1803, to Joseph[6] and Chloe (Green) Kibbe. Use of the name Parker, suggests it may have been the surname of Jared's wife.

Children of Jared Kibbe:

1. Alvira, m. ---- Cooper; living Sacramento County, California, 1881
2. Parker, ca. 1836, m. Jane ----
3. Edna, m. ---- Church; living Sacramento County, California, 1881

STEPHAN KIBBE and Descendants

STEPHAN KIBBE and his brother, Douglas, are said to have been born in New York State. It is quite probable they are not descendants of Edward[1] and Mary (Partridge) Kibbe. Family tradition states their name was originally spelled MacKibbey, that brothers came from Scotland to Canada, quarrelled, and one came to the United States. This man dropped the Mac from his surname, spelling it Kibbey. No trace of a Douglas Kibbe has been found. Descendants say that Stephan Kibbe married Sarah Jane Corbin who was born in New York State. In 1843 they were living in Livingston County, New York. Later they removed to Summit Township, Mason County, Michigan, near the town of Ludington. Here they both died and are buried. Sarah died February 15, 1898, aged 74, and Stephan died April 5, 1903?, aged nearly 87 years.

Children of Stephan Kibbe and Sarah Jane (Corbin) Kibbe:
1. William E., 1843-1911, m. Ella Bickford

WILLIAM KIBBE and Descendants

WILLIAM KIBBE is known to have lived near Terre Haute, Vigo County, Indiana, in 1858. His first wife was Barbara Halbert. Presumably she died for in the 1870's this man was married to Nancy Smith, and living in Clay County, Indiana. He is said to have died in 1880, either in Excelsior or Denver, Missouri, and is buried in Allendale, Missouri. It seems possible that this William Kibbe may have been a son of Lucius[6] and Emily (Taylor) Kibbe, known to have lived in the Indiana area at the time of his birth.

LUTHER KIBBEY of Monaville, West Virginia, became a minister, and moved to Oak Hill, Ohio. His daughter, CLEATIS MARIE KIBBEY married in 1946, Harland Harris.

Reference: Data from "Kibbey Annual", V. 2, August, 1946.

DONALD RICHARD KIBBEY, Ohio State University, 1922, was co-author with Harry D. Moore of a book, "Manufacturing materials and processes", published 1965, Homewood, Illinois.

WILLIAM C. KIBBEE, private, aged 21, 5th Reg., Co. L, Ohio Volunteer Infantry, entered June 29, 1898, residence Cleveland. In hospital in Cleveland, September, 1898.

RAY J. KIBBE, private, aged 20, residence Geneva, in Co. E, 5th Reg., Ohio Volunteer Infantry, June 25, 1898. This Ray is, probably, the same as the son, Ray Kibbe, in family of Jerome Kibbe given below.

Reference: Soldiers of Ohio in the War with Spain.

JEROME KIBBE, b. ca. 1841; died May, 1908, aged 67, Geneva, Ohio. His wife was Amelia B. Coats, daughter of Warren and Rhoda (Pratt) Coats of Pompey, Onondaga County, New York. In 1880 Jerome and Amelia were in Ashtabula County, Ohio, listed thus: Jerome M. Kibby, 42 or 49, N.Y. or N.J. ?

Amelia, 38, b. N.J. (N.Y.?)
Carrie, 9, b. Ohio
Guy, 5, b. Ohio
Ray, 2, b. Ohio

It seems probable that Jerome and Amelia were both born in New York State. In the will of Eldad Kibbe[6], probated in Salisbury, Herkimer County, in 1857, there is listed a grandson, Jerome, son of David Kibbe[7]. Jerome and his father were not among the beneficiaries when the estate was settled.

Reference: Census, 1880, Ashtabula County, Ohio.
Data from Mrs. Stella Harris, Wakeman, Ohio, as sent to Mrs. Mabel (May) Tally, Wichita, Kansas.

JOHN L. KIBBEE, born April 10, 1860, Jackson, Ohio, married there, April 10, 1889, Grace Correll Long. She was born in Jackson, November 9, 1861, daughter of John L. and Cornelia (Hoffman) Long.

Children of John L. Kibbee and Grace Correll (Long) Kibbee:
1. John Long, b. April 10, 1890
2. Elizabeth, b. September 7, 1900

ELIZABETH KIBBEY married October 3, 1850, George Carlinger; recorded in Hardin County, Ohio, Marriage Records.

Unidentified Kibbes in Pennsylvania

ELIZABETH, widow of CHARLES KIBBE, received a Civil War pension in 1868; her maiden name was Poole.

Reference: Data from Pennsylvania Archives, sent by Lars Sjodahl, Cincinnati, Ohio.

ELSIE S. KIBBEE, Norristown, Pennsylvania, married Henry Edward Davies. He was born February 13, 1894, son of Joseph and Mary Emma (Beyer) Davies.

DAVID KIBBEE estate. Letters of Administration were issued and granted to James Kibbee, as administrator of this estate, December 29, 1853; see Docket B, p. 82. (Could this be the David Kibbe, son of Eldad Kibbe[6], who was missing among the beneficiaries when the estate of Eldad was settled in 1857?)

SARAH KIBBE died Ulysses, Pennsylvania, March 5, 1896. Her will, executed March 4, 1876, names only her son of an earlier marriage, Rawson H. Young.

O. M. KIBBE died Sharon Township, Potter County, June 18, 1899. Renunciation of her right to administer this estate was made by Della Kibbe Leonard, August 26, 1905. She requested the appointment of J. Walter Wells. No indication is given of relationship of Della to the deceased; perhaps a daughter, or remarried widow.

JOHN A. KIBBE of Oswayo Township, Potter County, died October 19, 1921, with burial in Crystal Cemetery. His widow, Emily C., aged 64, was living in Sharon Center. Witnesses of his will were Mary Kibbe Hulbert, E. S. Behn, and Clarissa Hosmer, and no indication of relationship to deceased. He was survived by his widow, and two adopted children: Calvin J., 14, and Leona F., 12.

JOHN J. KIBBE, 35, born New York, with Mary A., 20, born Pennsylvania, with child, James E., 7, born New York, are listed in 1860 in Oswayo Township, Potter County. It has been suggested this John J. was a son of David[6] and Emily (McNutt) Kibbe. When this John J. Kibbe died in 1866 in Oswayo Township, his widow was Mary A., and she renounced her right to administer the estate. James H. Leach was appointed administrator, and one of the sureties of his bond was Moses Kibbe. It is probable that Moses and John J. were related. Mary A., the widow was a second wife, and not the mother of the son, James E.

Reference: All estates given taken from Potter County, Pennsylvania, Probate Records.

ABNER KIBBE, 32, born New York, and wife, Minerva, 27, born New York, listed 1860 in Harrison Township, Potter County, with children: Richard, 8, b. New York; Mary M., 6, b. New York; John E., 4; Jacob D., 2; and Lucy A. 2 months, the last three b. in Pennsylvania.

JAMES KIBBE, 18, born New York, listed 1860, Harrison Township, Potter County, in family of John H. White.

JAMES KIBBE, 29, born New York, and wife, Margaret, 28, born Pennsylvania, with Mary H., aged 7 months, listed Bingham Township, Potter County, 1870. Probably the two James Kibbes are the same man.

Reference: Census records, Potter County, Pennsylvania.

Unidentified Kibbes in Texas

LEONIDAS KIBBE, born Illinois, December 11, 1834; died Dallas, Texas, February 23, 1897. (Possibly this was a son of George^{6} and Hannah (Hunt) Kibbe, born when they were en route to Texas).

Reference: Greenwood Cemetery, Dallas, Texas, in notes from Mrs. Mabel Tally, Wichita, Kansas.

C. J. KIBBE, 38, private, Co. A, Fort Bend Volunteers, Cavalry 16th Brigade, Texas State Troops; enlisted for six months, August 7, 1863.
